TO BE IN DARKNESS.

Salt Lake's Street Lamps Will Not be Lighted Tonight

UNLESS THE PROGRAM CHANGES.

The Electric Light Company Demands a Heavy Increase of Tribute from the City.

Salt Lake stands face to face with the promise that tonight she will be in the same position that several Pacific coast cities have been in recently—without street lights, owing to a dispute with the electric light company. In most of the coast cities referred to, mainly in California, the municipal officers have stood firm and have won the fight; in some they have been convinced that the company's claims were just in whole or in part, and have conceded them, or have effected a compromise. What Salt Lake will do remains to be seen—when there is light enough.

The trouble comes this way: A year ago the electric light company offered to light the city for $6.50 a month for street lamps, and entered into a contract to do so. That contract expires last night, April 13. This year, when a new contract was sought to be made, the company demanded that the price be made $15.50 per month for each lamp—an increase of $2 each, or between seven and eight thousand dollars a year.

The committee on improvements of the City Council took the matter up and thoroughly investigated it. Today the members expressed themselves emphatically against the new rate. They are willing to renew the contract at the old figure, but now since we slaughtered the moon at a jump, Therefore they have agreed to recommend that the light company's allegations be rejected.

"Do you really believe the light company will be as stubborn as to cut off the lights tonight?" was asked of one of the improvement committee today.

"I hope we will not," was the reply. "The statement is more positive, that unless we come to their terms, out go the lights; and I suppose they will have to go."

Thus the matter stands. Of course the City Council may overrule its committee whose has investigated the subject, but this is not regarded as likely now. It is asserted that even if it were true that the company is operated strictly upon a net 10 per year—which is not conceded—it should stand by its own action and should not attempt to extort a price that will pay for all past losses and rake up a handsome profit to the company. The improvement committee says it is willing to recommend the payment of a fair price for the future, but is unwilling to go to what it calls the "fancy figures" of the company, since the public treasury contains but $1,500 of the $5,000 appropriated for the purpose. Mean while the light company says it cannot afford to continue at the losing figure of the past year but wants to $15 or about 200 per cent, advance.

Missionary Farewell.

Tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, in the Seventeenth Ward assembly hall, under the auspices of the Mutual Improvement associations, a complimentary entertainment will be tendered to Elders Abner D. Hyde Jr., who will soon depart for Germany, and Raymond McCune, who goes to Great Britain. An excellent program has been arranged for the occasion and the public are respectfully invited. It commences at 8 o'clock sharp.

Splendid Rainfall.

The copious and refreshing showers of the past two or three days have made gladness the heart of the farmer, gardener and stockman alike. The rainfall seems to be quite general and therefore the benefit is the greater. Today's downpour set in soon after 10 o'clock and continued for an hour. The weather clerk reports indications of falling temperature and snow.

OGDEN MAN'S SUICIDE.

Cuts His Throat With a Razor at Los Angeles While Temporarily Insane.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 13.—Prof. D. F. Brunning, a teacher of guitar music, committed suicide at his room this morning by almost severing his head from his body with a razor. The deceased was about 30 years old and had been teaching music here for about two years. He was a heavy drinker, and when a physician was called last night he was found to be delirious, and an attendant was left in charge of him for the night.

A 2-ounce bottle marked "Sulphuric Acid" was found in his room, and a razor, and, despite the efforts of the attendant, who tried to find him until help could be obtained, he jumped up a flight of stairs and grabbed a razor and slashed his throat, exclaiming that they should not take him. He then threw out the sheet music and pictures and set the house about free lunch with a result, which he had secreted about his person.

He has relatives who are wealthy in Ogden.

Fred Farmer Still Missing.

Corresponding of the News.

Nephi, April 13.—Mayor Smith of Nephi has a letter from Deputy Sheriff Parker of Lamb concerning the missing man, Fred Farmer. He says he has hunted up and down the Colorado river and cannot get any tidings of him, and fears he is lost. He found a camp where Farmer stayed all night with the men that returned to the west with the May camp next morning. Nothing has been seen of him since.

The latter who went with May and Farmer on the way out and brought back the news, says on returning that he didn't see the young man that saw two bears and turn back. He also said he had some queer thoughts concerning Farmer when up in the hills and he alone but did not sleep. He said he was afraid of the "old man," as he called May.

Mr. Wm. Lee, whom the Nephi paper stated on the same the participants had made good their escape.

Henry Ward Beecher once informed a duke who came to him complaining of gloomy and unpleasant feelings, that what he most needed was a good cathartic, meaning, of course, such a medicine as Ayer's Cathartic Pills, every dose being a cure.

No small affection which young children are liable to, develops alarming symptoms when their disappearance. In our day the objection is removed and Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the most powerful and popular of blood-purifiers, is as pleasant to the palate as a cordial.

Improper and difficult care of the scalp will cause grayness of the hair and baldness. Escape both by the use of that reliable specific, Hall's Hair Renewer.

"There is Danger in Delay."

Since 1862 I have had a great deal of throat trouble. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and to all appearances am cured. Neither hoarseness from which I had suffered so much, nor cough, has come back. W. J. Hibbitt, late Major U. S. V., and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ayer's Cream Balm has entirely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have met with equally marvelous results. Alfred W. Stevens, Chillicothe, Ohio.
