THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Church Social—The Phillips Congregational church ladies are planning for a musical to be given in the church next Friday evening.

Death of Mrs. Walker—Mrs. K. E. Walker, aged 55, formerly of this city, died Saturday at Riverside. The body will be shipped to Ogden for interment.

Prison Bible Class—Rev. P. A. Simpkin is conducting a well attended Bible class at the state prison. Quite a number of the convicts seem to be interested in Bible study.

New Hatchery Soon Ready—Fish and Game Commissioner Chambers has returned from Springville where he says the state hatchery there will be ready Dec. 5, for occupancy.

Ladies of G. A. R.—The Reynolds Circle, Ladies G. A. R. will hold a social Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Richard Shannon, on Johnson avenue, Poplar Grove line.

Mrs. Labadie to Talk—Mrs. Harriet R. Labadie, an eastern lecturer, will speak at the state university on "A Doll's House," by Ibsen; contrasting true and false mortality.

Kelton Sheep Quarantined—State Veterinarian A. C. Young has returned from Kelton where he quarantined a band of 600 high grade sheep that he found infected with the leg and lip disease.

Theosophist Society—The Theosophist society meets this evening to study the "Astral Plane," and the "Fourth Dimension" in mathematics. The society has a club room in the Commercial building.

Funeral of J. Bond—The funeral of J. Bond, the veteran restaurant man, was held Sunday afternoon from Odd Fellows hall, under the auspices of the G. A. R. Interment was at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Leaves For New York—John Kempf, for several years connected with the Utah Light & Railway company, has accepted the superintendency of a New York gas plant. He leaves with his family for Gotham, Dec. 1.

U. C. T. Ball—The United Commercial Travelers are to give a social and ball at the Odeon, on Thanksgiving eve. The Hawaiian Troubadors will furnish instrumental and vocal music in the reception room during the intermission.

Funeral of G. L. Hannahs—The funeral of George L. Hannahs was held Sunday afternoon, from Evans' chapel by the Knights of the Maccabees, Rev. P. A. Simpkin delivered the eulogy. The uniform rank of the order escorted the body to the cemetery.

First Meeting of Men's Club—The initial meeting of the Men's club of the St. Paul's church will be held in the guild rooms of the church, corner Fourth South and Main, this evening at 8 o'clock, when the organization will be perfected and officers elected for the year. Peter Fitzgerald will give a talk on the work of the Men's club in Chicago. All men are eligible for membership and are cordially invited to be present.

Buildings Nearly Completed—The sidewalks fronting the new Holmes building at Second South and State streets, have been completed, and the fencing cleared away. The building will shortly be completed. The delayed structural steel for the roof of the new apartment house at A and South Temple streets, has come, and the great building is now under cover. The L. D. S. gymnasium will be under cover by Monday evening.

City Refuses to Pay—The bridge which crosses the Jordan river at Twelfth South street has just been repaired by the county at the expense of several hundred dollars. The city refused to pay any part of the expense of repairing it although the bridge is as much in the city as it is in the county. It is probable, however, that next year the city and county will build a new concrete or steel bridge and each stand half of the expense.

Methodists "Home Coming Day"—The Methodists are observing today as "Home coming day." There will be services this evening, in the First Methodist church, when the pastor will speak on "The Passing of two rare Characters." The idea of the annual "homecoming" days is to renew interest in the church work and to bring back to more active attendance those who have fallen off during the year, through indifference and carelessness.

WIDOW WANTS $20,000.

Mrs. Alice B. Beckstead Brings Suit Against Gilson Company.

Mrs. Alice B. Beckstead, widow of Maurice Beckstead, has filed in the United States district court suit against the Gilson Asphaltum company for $20,000 for the death of her husband. The allegation is made that Beckstead was in the employ of the company on June 22, 1909, working in the Dragon mine in Uintah county, when he was so severely injured that he died within two days.

The complaint alleges that it was due to neglect on the part of the company in not providing proper machinery and equipment that caused the death. Beckstead, it is said, was run down by a car which was not provided with proper brakes.

EXHORTS PARENTS TO WATCH THE CHILDREN

Their Duty Is to Train Them Until the Young Reach an Age of Proper Understanding.

Parental and organized authority over the young was the subject of a dual address delivered Sunday by Rev. P. A. Simpkin, pastor of the Phillips Congregational church, first in this city and then at Logan. The problems which confront the young during a crucial time in their life were taken up and dwelt upon at length.

"One may not walk unmoved through the streets of Salt Lake at midnight," said Mr. Simpkin. "The presence of hundreds of young people unchaperoned, unrestrained, intoxicated by life's pleasures as they view them, is very disturbing to the observant mind, and the fact that there is a very perceptible drift toward the neighborhood of known evil and more than questionable reputation adds pangs of more than regret."

Rev. Mr. Simpkin dwelt long upon the duty of the parents and made an earnest exhortation that they watch with ever increasing care the conduct of their children until they arrive at an age when discretion is reached and when they may look upon life and its accompaniments with understanding eyes.

CROUP CURED AND A HILD'S LIFE SAVED.

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the thousands who have been benefited by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My child, Andrew, when only three years old, was taken with a severe attack of croup, and thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy his life was saved and today he is a robust and healthy boy," says Mrs. A. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. This remedy has been in use for many years. Thousands of mothers keep it at hand, and it has never been known to fail. For sale by all druggists.
