9 to 16

Deseret Evening News.

NO. 229 SATURDAY, AUGUST 20, 1898. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH. VOL. XXXI.

THE EVENING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF TODAY, THE MORNING PAPER IS THE PAPER OF YESTERDAY.

REMARKS

Delivered at the Eighty-ninth Annual Conference of the Church, in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, Utah, by

ELDER FRANKLIN D. RICHARDS,

Wednesday Afternoon, April 6th, 1898,

and

ELDER A. O. WOODRUFF,

Thursday Morning, April 7th, 1898.

[illegible] it is a very precious favor to [illegible] permitted to meet with the Saints [illegible] Conference, indeed, all [illegible] in their assemblies, and feel [illegible] to speak to you this [illegible] I greatly desire that means [illegible] of the Spirit that will enable me [illegible] speak. My heart feels [illegible] in the opening of this Conference, [illegible] instructions, [illegible] of good counsel to be [illegible] and profitable unto us. [illegible] this morning we have spoken, but it was with [illegible] in the beginning of this work. Prior [illegible] we have been spoken of [illegible] spoken, and they seem [illegible] the date of paying tithing [illegible] a matter of controversy. One [illegible] here in the Church now, [illegible] of the work we are used [illegible] the author of this work, so it was [illegible] of the beginning.

[illegible] to turn back to the [illegible] view the Gospel came to me and [illegible] to baptism, in the river of Manassa, in the year 1835. When I [illegible] I felt the Spirit of God [illegible] me, and I felt that I was [illegible] to be a servant of God [illegible] I was ordained to be an Elder [illegible] I was called to go on a mission [illegible] I was willing to have my [illegible] I did so, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Kirtland [illegible] I was called to go on a mission [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Missouri [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Nauvoo [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Boston [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Washington [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Philadelphia [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Nauvoo [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Salt Lake City [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Sanpete [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Sevier [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Iron County [illegible] I was willing to go, I felt the Spirit [illegible] I was called to go to Washington County