POLITICAL MENTION.

A Rousing Democratic Meeting at the Theater Last Night.

BIG REPUBLICAN RALLY NEXT

Republican Address to the Voters of Utah—Meetings, Speakers and General Election Items.

There will be a great amount of campaign oratory in this and other popular counties of Utah tonight. Both the big parties have sent all available speakers into the field and each is endeavoring to its utmost to have the "last say" before Tuesday's great contest. The important precincts that do not get campaigners tonight will have them on Monday night.

DEMOCRATS AT THE THEATER.

The Salt Lake Theater was filled last night by eager listeners, both Republicans and Democrats, to hear the Hons. John T. Caine and B. H. Roberts advocate their political faith and loyally point out what they considered the faults of political doctrine outside their own. The B. H. Roberts office was the only one so present, and his efforts were highly appreciated, and then there was the drum corps. Mr. Caine was the first speaker and was warmly greeted, as was also Mr. Roberts, who occupied the greater portion of the time.

FIRST PRECINCT RALLY.

The Republicans of the First precinct held a rousing meeting last night in the Second ward meeting house. The gathering was presided over by Frank Armstrong. Messrs. Elmer B. Jones, George Rockley, John L. Lewis and Chairman George M. Cannon addressed the listeners and the Saleratus quartette furnished good music.

REPUBLICAN ADDRESS TO VOTERS.

Chairman George M. Cannon has issued an address to the voters of Utah, which he introduces in the following language: "The next few days will witness the closing of one of the most important political campaigns in the history of Utah." Attention is called to the fact that the Republican party entered the field early and the energetic work of its speakers in all parts of the Territory. The Democratic party is taken to task on account of its opposition to bounties and its manner of dealing with the tariff question. It is also accused of waging a campaign along the lines of religious prejudices and the claim made that Utah has been injured thereby. The statement is made that the Democratic administration has pursued a course that has retarded the growth and destroyed the interests of the people. On the question of church and state, the address holds that the Republican party stands on the clause relating to that matter in the Constitution. Lastly it is held that it is the duty of Republicans to push on to a victory that will elect every nominee on the State ticket and send undivided delegations to the State Legislature from twenty-three out of twenty-seven counties.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY MEETINGS.

Democratic meetings and speakers have been announced for this evening in Salt Lake county as follows:

Union—Enos L. Smith, E. B. Jones.

First Precinct, Ninth ward annex—Geo. Miner, George A. Smith.

West Side, Sullivan house, 265 South Fifth West—George W. Moyer and others.

IN THE FOURTH PRECINCT.

The Republicans of the Fourth precinct held a rousing meeting in Tagger's hall last night. The chairman was E. M. Rouson and the speakers were J. S. Darnier, Hyrum E. Booth, Chairman George M. Cannon and Arthur Brown. The hall was crowded, a large number of gentlemen being compelled to stand up.

SCANDINAVIAN MEETING.

Wilke's pavilion was well filled last night with Scandinavian Republicans who had assembled to see Kasson illustrate certain methods of "ballot box hyer sonny" and also to hear the issues of the campaign discussed. Mr. A. Eckland officiated as chairman and the speakers were Harlow Ferguson, E. D. R. Thomgren, W. L. Snyder, J. C. Hamburg and H. E. Bonin. The musical part of the meeting was under the direction of Messrs. Agnes and Olge Thorgren, the Youngberg sisters and Mr. L. C. Cronn.

PAYSON REPUBLICAN TICKET.

The Payson Republicans have nominate the following municipal ticket:

For mayor—Charles Brewerton.

For recorder—F. A. Hulsh.

For treasurer—Frank Fairbanks.

For marshal—Armon Clayton.

For justice of the peace—Samuel Worthington.

Councilmen—Ammon Netcher, G. Elsworth, John H. Dixon, T. G. Weaver, Charles Hawkins.

POLITICAL STRAWS.

The Bond Ax reception and entertainment last night was very largely attended by prominent citizens. A splendid feast was served and the most good feeling prevailed. All who attended are unanimous in their praise of it.

Tickets are booked weekly monthly coupon tickets made with Price's Baking Powder.

Priesthood Meeting.

The monthly Priesthood meeting of the Salt Lake Stake was held in the Tabernacle commencing at 11 a. m. today, Elder Angus M. Cannon presiding.

The roll call showed the following attendance: Three Patriarchs, Elder Eliza Morris, president of the High Priests' quorum, fourteen presidents of Seventies and six home missionaries.

All the wards in the Stake were properly represented excepting the Fourth, Tenth and Eighteenth city wards, and West Jordan of the country.

The First, Second, Fifth, Tenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth and Twenty-fourth wards were represented by their presiding officers.

There were representatives of the Lesser Priesthood in attendance from the following named wards: First, Second, Ninth, Eleventh, Thirteenth, Fifteenth and Twenty-second of the city; Mill Creek, Big Cottonwood, Little Cottonwood, Union, South Jordan, North Jordan, Granger and Brighton of the country.

In view of the absence of some of the young men who had been notified to be present to have the ordination of Elders ratified, Brother Cannon urged greater care on the part of such to perform the duties of their calling.

The speakers were Elder John W. Hess, president of the Davis Stake, Eliza Morris, Joseph E. Taylor and Angus M. Cannon.

They treated on these topics: The importance of Priesthood meetings; the advantage of a large attendance; necessity of perfect harmony among the various quorums; the serious lack of appreciation of the importance of the Priesthood; the necessity of care in providing for the poor of the wards, if necessary, by men being sent from house to house to collect offerings; necessity of instructing young men about to become Elders, to the importance of that calling; the need of greater unity among the Saints in spiritual matters; and the advisability of self-sacrifice to the cause of truth.

HARRY McCALLUM RESIGNS.

The Ogsterb Club Will Fill His Place This Afternoon.

The Organization Will Remain Firm in Its National and Local Party Policies.

This afternoon members of the executive committee of the Ogsterb club, a local Republican organization, gave it out that Harry S. McCallum, one of the founders of the club and its president since the organization, had handed in his resignation as president, and also as a member. The resignation has been accepted, and a meeting of the executive committee called for 4:30 p. m. today to fill the official vacancy. The reasons for Mr. McCallum's action are not stated, but it is probable they are of a political nature. It is understood the executive committee proposes to formulate an address to the club members, reaffirming its allegiance to the Republican party, and declaring for a continuance in the line of the national party progress in Utah.

Charged With Assault.

Mr. J. C. Jorgenson appeared at police headquarters this morning, with a very bad wound in his head, and swore to a complaint charging one William Cantwell with assault. Cantwell will be heard on that charge next Monday.

Raw silk from Kansas cocoons is the best. In this it resembles Price's Baking Powder.

FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS.

Utah University vs High School on the Gridiron today.

The football season opened on the University campus at a quarter to twelve this morning, the competing teams being the High School eleven vs the University boys. The competing eleven being the leading junior teams of the city, considerable interest was manifested in the affair as the large and delirious array of spectators testified, which was composed of the partisans of both the scholastic institutions. From start to finish they rent the atmosphere into cross sections with tremendous yells as another warrior bit the dust, or their own particular favorite performed deeds of valor.

U. of U. won the toss and elected to protect the east goal, giving the High School boys the ball and the benefit of the drop of weeds. The game commenced under Prince Lee-Yale rules with 30 minutes each way, and from the kick-off through the entire game there was no swerving from any on the part of either team, and and time being as scarce as hen's teeth. The ball play through the entire game was to the last minute was hitting the center with varying results; cross-buck, double tackles and flying wedges were in requisition by their absence. The High School team was slightly the better and good generalship would have led them to victory. Nothing but the U. of U's superior avoirdupois saved them.

From the start of the game the U. of U. had the ball and within six minutes Eccles secured a touch down after a series of bucks, which was converted into a goal by Moss. Thereupon the High school boys somewhat and they proceeded to make things interesting for their opponents. A timely bunt by Eccles relieved the pressure a moment and the game was played with varying aspects until the call of time.

On resuming hostilities, Porter indulged in some pretty work which culminated in a touch down for the High school by McKee which Odell promptly turned into a goal with the score 6 to 0. The game finished as a tie despite the executing of Acier Hardaway, who was finally sheared off the field by the coaches.

Following are the teams and positions.

Didn't Do Much.

Among the boys who were arrested Thursday evening for Hallowe'ening were four who were apprehended by Officer Pratt, but who are said by that gentleman to have been comparatively innocent of wrong doing. They were Frank Haynes, Willie Noe, Roy Simmons and Earl Wattsen. They were just about to visit a schoolhouse, having tipped over the carriage sheds in front of his house, when the officer nabbed them.

Remember to use much less of Dr. Price's Baking Powder than any other.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

Price, Carbon county, Advocate: It is stated that the Price trading company and Salt Lake members of the Whitney family have made a deal for the Morgan coal property in Salt Lake City. It is not known what use will be made of the property which has proven a costly elephant to all previous owners.

Tooele Transcript: John W. Tate, county registrar, Thursday heard the cases of three challenged voters in this precinct. The men so ordered to appear are all Republicans, and they were disposed of in the following way: Orlando Smith showed his naturalization papers, which were over ten years old, and he was dismissed. James Lyman had taken his oath and had another name, so was served the same way. Evidence was adduced in the case of J. Macdonald, showing that he had paid his poll tax here, left his personal property here when on a tour in southern Utah this summer, and fully intended coming home to live this winter; on his strong rulings on the Attorney George A. Sheets that he would at once appeal the case to the Utah Commission.....About a week ago there were about 150 Gosiute Indians camped on the outskirts of town on the west side, and the redskins were treated to a genuine "Ghost Dance" every night. In the center of their camp they had a willow lodge built in a circle, and each evening at dusk a huge fire was built in the middle of this circle. The old as well as the young bucks and squaws then formed in a ring around the fire, and then the scene was bewildering. Covered with their bright paint, and humming their peculiar sounds they continued their revelries until daylight. At intervals some of them got tired and dizzy and fell out for a short rest, but were soon on their feet again and in the "ring" again as lively as ever. Every hour or so Chief Tabby of the tribe called them to order and then he would saw the air in a very impressive manner, and preached at some length to his people, who listened attentively. The chief is said to be an orator of no mean ability, but if he could have been understood by the people who visited the camp, that might better be determined. The Indians continued dancing around the fire had made a trench in the ground, as though it had been dug with a spade.

Mt. Pleasant Pyramid: Last week, or high on Wednesday, we neglected to mention a sad and distressing affair which happened at Chester on the 14th. The little baby of Gunner Gunnerson, which was just beginning to creep, crawled up to the cupboard and got hold of a piece of bread containing strychnine, to poison mice. When the bread, the little one had eaten a quantity of the fatal bread, and, in spite of assistance, died shortly in terrible agony. This is the fifth fatality to occur among children in Chester, due to poisoning, in the last few years, three having died at one time by eating poisonous herbs.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, Nov. 2, 1895.

$10,000 Damage Suit.

Messrs. C. Davis has brought suit against Jesse Knight and Wm. Knight for $10,000. Plaintiff alleges that on the 20th of September, 1895, and in the night time of said day he was lawfully traveling along Seventh street of Provo City, and that the defendants wilfully and maliciously, forcibly, violently and brutally assaulted and beat the plaintiff in the face and upon the head and body, knocking him down and beating him after he was down, so thereby bruised and wounded the plaintiff and stunned and broke the bones of the upper part of the left side of plaintiff's face so that his sense of smell, taste and sight have been thereby permanently impaired and the said left eye of his face permanently misshapen and disfigured, so that thereby and by reason of the premises and of the facts above stated, the plaintiff has suffered great physical and mental pain, distress and anxiety in his damage in the sum of $10,000." He asks for $50 for loss of time for he was unable during which he was unable to perform his labors as a teacher in the Brigham Young Academy and for $35, expended for medicines and medical attendance.

The testing complained of was administered by William Knight, who gives as a reason that Prof. Davis had off cited a corporal punishment on his (Knight's) little sister, who went to the academy. Jesse Knight, the father of William, was not present at the time of the beating.
