CATARRH

THE EYE, EAR and THROAT

Successfully Treated with

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

SUCCESS is the test of merit, and success in the treatment of Catarrhal Affections, after so many miserable failures, makes unfounded assertion impossible. Is Dr. Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh possessed of such properties? The evidence, in the form of unsolicited testimonials from the most respectable people in all stations of life, must be conclusive on this point. Have we believe, in the theory of popular medicines has such a mass testimony been offered, freely offered, in favor of any remedy than that of the proprietors of Dr. Sanford's Radical Cure. And yet, honesty of purpose, not represent a thousandth part of the cures, and stations which are to day effected by Dr. Sanford's Radical Cure. Its sale is unprecedented in the history of proprietary medicines, and it is the only remedy of any kind, of any method of cure, for which such claims can be preferred, but upon the positive testimony of a published statement. Hence the testimonials in our possession are confined to a few of the cures which have resulted from the remedy mentioned. The following unsolicited testimonials from Hiram Walker, Esq., of Galena, Ill., and Rev. Mr. Ferguson, are unsought, unbought, and the spontaneous offspring of a grateful heart.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter, Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.: Gentlemen—I hasten to inform you that I owe my health to Sanford's Radical Cure. For more than 20 years I have been afflicted with this very troublesome disease, and have tried all the remedies I could hear of, but without material or permanent benefit. Last Fall the disease had spread so that none thought I could live through the winter. I was advised to try your Radical Cure, and I am happy to say it has cured me. I was an object of pity to my neighbors, and I feel as if I should live to come back or not. I saw an advertisement of this medicine, and although being very incredulous, I procured a bottle of your agent in Galena. I commenced using it regularly, and before I tried this, and was at once benefited by it. The changes of climate, a chronic disease of the liver, and my age—over 70, cannot prevent my entire recuperation, but the benefit I have received from this medicine is to me invaluable, and I am happy to say that I feel as well as I did when I arrive at a vigorous old age.

If this statement can be of any service to those afflicted as I have been, and enable people to bring the virtues of your excellent medicine on the Pacific coast (where it is much needed), it is at your service to use it as you may think best.

Very truly yours, HENRY WELLS.

BEAVER, U.T., October 29, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

I was not a little amused a short time since in reading in your valuable paper an extract from a Richmond, Missouri, paper giving the reasons assigned by our friend David Whitmer for retaining the copy of the original manuscript of the Book of Mormon. I trust your readers will not charge me with intimating that Mr. Whitmer is a bad meaning man. On the contrary I understand that not only David, but the Whitmer family have the reputation of being and having been honorable citizens wherever they have resided, but as "accidents will happen in the best of families" so friend David has shown great weakness and some wrong doing in this matter. When Oliver Cowdery wrote the copy now said to be in the hands of Mr. Whitmer, he was Joseph Smith's scribe or clerk. He did not write it for himself, but was appointed by revelation to do that writing under the direction of Joseph as the foundation of a great and marvelous work which was destined to revolutionize the world. It was the beginning or starting point for the organization of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, over which Joseph Smith presided at the time and for several years after that document was wrongfully taken from the custody of the Church by excommunicated members. It was morally and legally Church property. Professor Orson Pratt, the present Church historian, should he go out of office to-day would have just as good a right, both in law and equity, to take with him all of the Church documents in his custody, as such historian, as for David or John Whitmer to retain documents put into their hands by Church appointment. Nay, more, the secretary of state, of war, of the navy, of the interior, or any other trust might just as legally take all government papers with them when they go out of office, and each successor clear his department of the papers of his term of service. "When the light that is in a man becomes darkness how great is that darkness." D. T.

Editors Deseret News:

Our Ward, under our kind and fatherly bishop, Wm. G. Burton, is in as good a condition as can be expected, considering the great amount of outside influence that has to be contended with. The saints with few exceptions are up and alive to their duties. Although we can not boast of as large a membership as our neighboring wards, I think our efforts in striving to keep pace with the progress of the kingdom of God, is not one with behind those of our neighbors.

Our Sunday School under the able superintendency of Brother Carpenter, assisted by Brother Francom and a corps of teachers, is in a good and flourishing condition, giving the juveniles a tuition that will prove an inestimable blessing to the same, and prepare them to be instrumental in the hand of God of furthering his purposes here upon this earth. Many thanks are due Bro. Carpenter and all his assistants from the brethren and sisters of this Ward for their untiring energy in the interest of our Sunday school.

On Monday the 28th our Y. M. M. I. A. convened for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing term. After a few remarks from H. C. Martin, O. C. Bluemel and I. Cashmore, in which they eulogized the conduct of our retiring president, which on his part was well merited, the following officers were elected: Wm. Francom president (re-elected); O. C. Bluemel first, and J. J. Whittle second counselors; A. L. Blackburn, secretary; I. Cashmore, treasurer. All the officers and some of the members expressed their determination to work with a zeal well befitting the cause. The prospects are bright for some very enjoyable and instructive sessions during these winter nights. I remain yours in the gospel covenant. A. L. B.

DESERET NEWS OFFICE

THE SUN FOR 1878.

The Sun will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

The Sun has been, is, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the Truth and its own convictions of duty. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than ever was enjoyed by any other American Journal.

The Sun is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or of the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its love and hates. It is for the honest man against the rascals every time. It is for the honest Democrat against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876 by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he is still, unfortunately—it speaks out for the right. That is THE Sun's idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1878.

THE SUN has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds, and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1878 than in 1876, 1877, or any year gone by. THE SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make itself in any sense a museum of ancient History. It is for the men and women of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to feed its readers the promptest, fullest and most accurate intelligence of whatever in the wide world is worth attention. To this end the resources belonging to well established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The elections of the 5th, the meeting of the new Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the public will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these events, of interest, may be added the probability that the Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increased feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the spread and strengthening everywhere of a healthy sentiment of reform in the public service. To represent with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of its varying phases, and to expound according to its own known methods the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of THE SUN's work for 1878.

We have the means of making THE SUN, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we mean to apply them freely.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the DAILY SUN, a four page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an edition also issued on Sundays, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postpaid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free. Address
