LOCAL BRIEFS.

At the regular meeting of the Utah Poultry association, to be held Friday, September 15th, M. J. Heard will deliver a lecture on Standard Poultry and Board Keeping. The general public are invited.

It is believed that the Salt Lake Bicycle association will be dissolved next week, when a formal closing of the affairs will be celebrated in Salt Lake and at points north. This gives Salt Lake two "shows" entirely in the east.

The Twenty-sixth volunteer infantry from Plattsburg, New York, will probably pass through Salt Lake Saturday night. There are 1,200 officers and men in the regiment. They are traveling in tourist and have fifty coaches.

President W. A. Nelden of the Salt Palace association was so seriously ill today as to prevent all communication with him, even by telephone. He is confined at his home under the care of a physician, and is threatened with typhoid fever.

Harvey T. Piercle and Miss Mary Smith, both of this city, were married in Pocatello last Friday. Mr. Piercle formerly built the Pocatello Gazette. Kinchen Smith and Miss Stick is the daughter of Samuel Smith of the Neighborhood Group. They will make their home in Pocatello.

The funeral of Morris Stocker, the latter who died the fatal fall in the Progress block, was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of Joseph William Taylor's undertaking establishment, the relatives of the deceased having arrived from Denver. The remains were interred in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

The members of the City Council met early this afternoon in Mayor Morris' office to hear assessments. The matter of fixing the cost of the sewer on the north side of Third South street between Second and Fifth East streets, was taken up, and it was decided to charge $12 per lot. The expense will have to be met by the abutting property owners.

Bicycle wheel boxes are to be placed on the sidewalks of Third South street as soon as it is ready for the opinion that efforts to their delivery to the owners of a drop of the wheels, which are traveling boxes. They stand a lonely invitation to the curiosity inspector to take over the contents of the boxes. When he has done so, he's sorry. When they are gone, they are gone.

The Utah Democratic club last night appointed the following board of delegates: James H. Moyle, Jr., Frank W. H. Dyer, C. Dunbar, John T. Caine, Jr., J. Morris, F. J. Cornelius, J. A. Hockings, J. A. Pendry, W. H. King, J. L. Rawlins, Fisher S. Harris, Arthur Brown, F. H. Leonard and J. F. Howells. These gentlemen will be the ex-officio members of the board.

Dr. C. T. Brown left here this morning for Los Angeles, and has joined the International Congregational council, which convenes in the city of visitors on September 19. The council will hear Rev. D. D. of the World's Fair orator, delivery an address to the assemblage. Dr. Brown is accompanied by his wife, who is a delegate to the council, and President of the American Missionary society of New York.

Some boys, girls and old folk are losing gain or causing their old shoes permanently to be thought of on the dress occasion. Now would some more of their kind, and have a good time were ever and as the opening of the season for Utah dances has arrived the best thing to do is to go to the shoe store and get a good pair of dancing pumps, or a good pair of dancing shoes, or a good pair of dancing slippers, or a good pair of dancing boots, or a good pair of dancing anything in the line of footwear, at Cohen's, 164 Main street.

Dennis Sherrill Harris, better known by the euphonious appellation of Dennis Sherrill, was arrested last night on the name of Rice Harris in Templeton's building last evening and arraigned in police court today charging to J. M. Tanner. Harris is what he went for and he knows it. He was accompanied by Judge Bell, Master's clerk. The entire case was to Mr. Bailey in the Infirmary and appearance. Judge Bell appeared for the former rather than to aid. Mr. Harris was released by Bailey as a supposition. He became identified with the lady's work and contained for. It is alleged that the lady had letters and the above, and letters may be indeed against her.

A warrant was issued by Justice Parsons today for the arrest of C. C. Anderson, charging him with cruelty to animals. The complaint was made by Mr. T. G. Ferry. Anderson came as a person young and his "sound" is generally in the middle of the Fourth street circuit. The horse that he was hence going of late is suffering with a sore back. The saddle of the horse has chafed and gives rise to the gall which is now in contact rubbing. Dr. Beatty warned Anderson that the horse was in bad shape, and it was in the condition described, for the representation saw and heard for himself and the officer is constituted as a commissioner and is punishable to a fine of $100 or three months' imprisonment in the county jail.

J. H. Hindon, the Heard Transit Bicycle, who recently left from the top of the reports wages into the street, and with scarcely a scratch on the rider, was seen early today by one of the reporters. He had been putting new tires on the wheel, and the wheel fitted, and he was on the top of a car with his head out of an opening watching the work. Hindon was riding the wheel when the work, when his head struck a pole and he fell to the floor of the car with a fractured skull. He was taken to the hospital in an open and the injured man was conveyed to the Holy Cross hospital. He regained consciousness shortly after the accident and recognized those about him. The injured man is in a much better condition than was at first supposed and Dr. Millard states that he will recover.

Her Endres, mother of Mrs. Gallison of this city, was run over by a train near Ogden yesterday and was killed. The young man had gone from Kemmerer, Wyoming, in charge of a load of horses, and was on his way to Salt Lake. He was to be brought here for Julius Hintz and his brothers in-law, Charles Rathbun and George N. Miles, the grandsons of the deceased, who live in this city. The stock train had been switched to let a Union Pacific freight come out of the Ogden yard, which came out of the yard and ran down the cabooses, when he was struck by the train. Work was sent to the Young mans office, Mrs. Hintz, Mrs. Gallison, Mrs. Rathbun, Mrs. Hatfield, or their sister, who left for Omaha last night, to take the remains to Kentucky, where the parents of the deceased reside. Her Endres was well known in Salt Lake, was 52 years of age and unmarried. He was a member of the Methodist church and scores of people will be grieved to hear of his death.

Returns from an Extended Tour Through Europe and the East.

Samuel H. Auerbach, one of the most prominent and prosperous merchants of Salt Lake City, has just returned from an extended tour through Europe and the East, in which he combined business with pleasure. He first went to London, remained a short time, and continued his tour to Germany, where he visited Berlin, Dresden, Leipsic and West Prussia. On his journey to his home he visited Ostend, Dieppe and Paris. While in Paris he paid a visit to Austria, and made a short stay at Carlsbad. The object of his trip to Carlsbad was to visit his brother, Julius Auerbach, who is a well known merchant there, with whom he had a delightful visit.

In relation to the feelings of Germans regarding the Dreyfus case, Mr. Auerbach did not care to speak, but gave it as his opinion that there was a great stir made about it, which seemed to pass him.

Business in Germany he says is good. The market is steady, and prices are going ahead. He returned to New York on July 8, where he his been engaged since in the business of his firm, Sam. Jones, pres.; Sigmund Jones, vice-pres.; Jos. Jones, sec.; Jos. Jones, treas.; Jos. Jones, asst. sec.; Jos. Jones, asst.
