Pennsylvania Conference.

The Pennsylvania Conference of the Northern States Mission was held at Littleton, West Virginia, Saturday and Sunday, March 26th and 27th. An introductory meeting was held on Friday evening and there were three meetings on each day of the conference; also a Priesthood meeting between the two sessions on Sunday. All the Elders, except Elder H. C. Keetch, who was too ill to attend, having a considerable distance to travel, and Elder Wm. H. Freeman, who returned home during the present month on account of the death of his little daughter, were present. President Snyder, from Washington D. C., and Elder Orson Whitaker from Kanosh, Utah, joined us on Saturday. President Snyder desired the speakers to confine their remarks to the first principles of the Gospel. The remainder of the morning session was taken up by Elder Joe. Waite, who spoke upon the necessity of obeying the initatory ordinances.

The afternoon session was the previous one, was interesting. The speakers were Elders David Southworth, Oscar A. Robinson, Thomas Hawden and Orson Whitaker and President S. W. Snyder, all of whom bore testimony to the truth of the Gospel. President Snyder said it was necessary for us to stay low lest we should be blessed from heaven for they, like the Israelites of old, are to be subdued upon all standing within their jurisdiction. To be in possession of the Spirit of God, we should be of that men would be compelled to accept the witness of Christ.

At the evening meeting two converts which were baptized by Elders Geo. W. Johnson and Joseph H. Dennis, upon the previous day, were confirmed
