IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been relaid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets on the Old Pioneer Route—

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, A. H. Earl, Ticket Agent at Ogden, or to J. H. Mountain, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb. or to W. H. Stennett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

UTAH AFFAIRS.

Congress and Polygamy,

Including the

POLAND BILL.

THE ABOVE IS A SERIES OF LETTERS by "Wasatch," intended to give the reader some acquaintance with affairs in Utah, political, religious and otherwise; and to show, in some degree, the real objects certain men have in view, in urging upon Congress special and proscriptive legislation for Utah.

The writer has used, very generally, the language of prominent and disinterested parties, knowing that such matter has the greater weight.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, . January 24, 1876.

Local and Other Matters.

THERMOMETER 42 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p. m. to-day. Fine, some clouds.

Progressing.—By private letter from St. George we learn that the work on the Temple is progressing steadily toward the completion of that building.

Wrong Figures.—In the letter on broom making by H. B. Scoville, in the NEWS on Saturday, for "$1.20" per ton read "$120," and for "80 cents" per ton read "$80."

D. A. and M. S.—A full attendance of the directors on Monday, Jan. 23, 1876, at 6 p.m., is requested on special business. By order of

W. WOODRUFF, President.

The First Principles.—On Friday evening Dr. S. B. Young delivered a discourse before the 12th Ward Young Men's Mutual Improvement Society, on the First Principles of the Gospel.

His Age.—We are requested to state that the age of Ellis M. Sanders, accidentally killed at St. George, Jan. 11th, by being run over by a team, was thirty-one years.

Benefit Performance.—The Salt Lake Dramatic Combination have volunteered their services for a performance for the purpose of raising funds to aid the ladies' department of representation at the Centennial Exposition. The performance will be given on Saturday night at the Theatre.

Complimentary Concert. — Here are complimentaries to a complimentary benefit concert to Mr. A. C. Smyth in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, this evening, when some of the best local talent in the city will appear, Mr. S. R. Marks conductor. Concert commences at 7:30 p. m.

Life of the Prophet.—Elder Jos. F. Smith will deliver his second lecture on "Scenes from the Life of the Prophet Joseph Smith" in the 16th District School Rooms, under the auspices of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Association, Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock. Admission free.

The Book of Mormon.—On Thursday evening Dr. W. H. H. Sharp will lecture on the "Book of Mormon and the History of Joseph Smith," at the 10th Ward new meeting-house; under the auspices of the Young Men's Literary Association of that ward, commencing at 7 o'clock; free.

Beautiful Crotchet Work.—Today we were shown one of the finest and most intricate pieces of crochet work, in the shape of a tidy, we have ever seen. The pattern is neat and the main feature of it consists of a number of raised roses, with the flower leaves as near to the form of nature as could be in that kind of work. It was done by the hand of Sister Allington, of the 6th Ward.

Very Thirsty.—We are requested, by a resident of the locality, to state that the dwellers on Arsenal Hill bench, otherwise known as the 17th and 19th Wards bench, have been without a supply of water, other than came from the clouds in feathery flakes or is strewn around in congealed slabs. Doubtlessly the gentlemanly and accommodating watermaster will relieve this want as soon as it is brought to his attention.

Books Received.

DESERET MUSEUM,
Jan. 24, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

Will you please insert that I have received the following valuable books from the office of the Chief of Engineers, Washington, D.C.?—

Reports of the Geological Explorations of the Fortieth Parallel, under Clarence King, Esq.; Vol. 3 on Mining Industry, with the Atlas accompanying the same; and Vol. 5, The Botany Indigenous to that section, described by Sereno Watson, Esq, and Professor Daniel C. Eaton.

Very respectfully,
JOSEPH L. BARFOOT,
Manager.

Sunday School.—Yesterday Sunday, was a happy day in the record of the Tenth Ward Sunday school, announcement having been made that prizes to the teachers and scholars of said school would be distributed. The large new meeting house was packed with children and their parents. About 325 prizes were distributed, ranging downwards from $3 each. Some more expensive and valuable prizes were given by the members of the higher classes to their teachers from funds raised privately among themselves. Among the latter class of testimonials was a Webster's unabridged dictionary to Brother John Kirkman, also a neatly bound "Book of Mormon" to Brother James H. Harrison.

Milk and Honey.—The following was handed in this morning—

SALT LAKE CITY,
Jan. 24th, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir:—On looking over Saturday's issue of your valuable paper, I noticed an article headed "Milk as Food and Medicine." I wish to add that my experience for the last ten years, with my family and friends, has convinced me that honey mixed with milk, in the proportion of a teaspoonful of pure honey to a teacupful of new milk, as fresh as possible, is of far greater benefit, both as medicine and food, than the milk alone, especially for children who are troubled with canker, which is a prevalent disease in this mountain country.

Respectfully yours,
JARVIS.

Sudden Death.—Yesterday morning Lieut. Warren, of the Fourteenth Infantry, was in this city, and rode up to Camp Douglas, arriving there about 9 o'clock. He entered the sutler's store, sat down and engaged in reading a newspaper, when some one called him to breakfast, and the party, receiving no answer to repeated invitations, examined him and discovered that he was in an almost lifeless condition. Dr. Vollum was called to his aid, but he was beyond the reach of human assistance, and lingered, with scarcely any perceptible signs of animation, till 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when he expired.

Seventies' Conference.—Owing to the extreme inclemency of the weather yesterday, the Seventies' Conference, at South Cottonwood Ward, was not nearly as largely attended as it would have been had it been otherwise. A stormy wind blew during the day and the snow drifted considerably in that locality.

At the morning meeting the speakers were Bishop L. D. Young, Elder R. F. Neslen and President Joseph Young, and in the afternoon Elders S. B. Young, A. M. Musser, John Pack, Albert P. Rockwood, Karl G. Maeser and Bishop Joseph Rawlins. The preaching was spirited and timely and a good feeling prevailed. The conference was adjourned till further notice.

Interesting About Silk.—To-day there were exhibited to us thirty-six skeins of very beautifully reeled silk, weighing, in the aggregate, four and a half ounces, produced at President Young's cocoonery, by Mrs. Dunyon and reeled by the same lady; also from the same source, a sample of sewing silk, manufactured by that intelligent lady, who appears to have a good understanding of many of the details of the silk business. She has not only demonstrated that the silk raw material can be raised here, but also, to some extent, be manufactured. Mrs. Dunyon is about preparing some silk for Brother Hannam, of Provo, who purposes weaving from it a piece of satin, to be placed in the Centennial Exhibition.

Mrs. D. is desirous of forming a class of young women, with a view to instructing them in the details of silk raising, reeling, &c.

The progress of silk culture in Utah may be apparently slow, yet it is steadily and surely gaining ground on the road which leads to its becoming some time one of the staple and chief products of the Territory.

Accidentally Killed.—About five o'clock on Saturday evening Brother William Hailstone, butcher, an old and well known citizen of Salt Lake, having arrived here in 1854, was crossing East Temple Street from the direction of the Eagle Emporium to the Exchange Buildings corner, when he was knocked down and run over by a sleigh driven by Mr. Roundy. He was taken to Godbe and Co.'s drug store and examined by a physician when it was ascertained that he had received severe injuries. He was conveyed to the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. William Peterson, butcher, in the 15th Ward, where he lingered till five o'clock this morning, when he expired. An inquest was to be held by Coroner Taylor and a jury to day.

We understand that the intervention of a street car between Mr. Roundy and Mr. Hailstone prevented the former from seeing the latter until the moment he was struck and knocked down, yet the presence of the obstacle that intercepted the view of the driver should have suggested the exercise of caution, of which there is too great an absence with sleigh drivers on our streets generally. The occurrence of this lamentable accident, by which a peaceable and respectable citizen has lost his life, is powerfully suggestive of the necessity of stringent prohibitory measures against fast and careless driving.

Correspondence.

That Message.

BEAVER, Jan. 16, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

After a careful perusal of the Governor's message as a whole, I rather like it, but there are some statements that, while I give his Excellency all due credit for sincerity, I think need some explanation and correction and a view of the other side. The following language shews that some foul blunderer, or perhaps a morbid "ring," has not been slow to impose upon our new official the hackneyed falsehoods which the Utah persecuting "ring" has blazoned abroad with a zeal worthy of a better cause—

"I am informed a large number of young men and women, born and reared in this Territory, have entered and are about to enter upon the duties of life, and the grave responsibilities of parents and citizens, who are destitute of the simplest rudiments of an education; and that a large number of children now growing up are destined to the same fate, unless the Legislature interposes in their behalf, and accords to them, to a reasonable extent, free schools."

Without any reflections whatever upon the veracity of our Governor, I say, and I speak advisedly, being an early settler in the country, even before any kind of government existed, except the nominal rule of Mexico, and that of the wild savages, that greater facilities for education, under all the circumstances in a new country, were never offered nor more readily accepted. I will further state that the average of not only all of the territories, but several of the western states, in point of "the simplest rudiments of education," are, by their own statistics, including the populous State of Missouri, not in advance, and the last named not on a par with Utah. There are a few ranchers and some miners too remote from our settlements to avail themselves of the advantages of schools; but, aside from that, none need, and few ever do, go uneducated. The Legislature might, and perhaps should, pass a compulsory law reaching the case of the few ranchers who fail to hire teachers to instruct their children in their own houses, but even this class is exceedingly rare.

Whilst I am a strong advocate for the extension of literary knowledge, I have many objections to the present free school system, but have not space to argue the points at present.

With regard to the Alpha and Omega—"polygamy," it existed before the government and the nation took it with the country, and, with a knowledge of its almost universal dominance, either in practice or precept, threw around the polygamic community the shield of the constitution and laws of our common country, and gave almost a quarter of a century's sanction by its silence on the subject, until at last a venal ring succeeded in 1862 in getting an expost facto law passed, with the forlorn hope (under guise of virtue) of prostituting wives and bastardising children, in order, as was argued in Utah, by said ring, to supply a necessity (?) in establishing houses of illfame, as an accommodation not only to government officials and other transients, but to resident youths, and after passing an unconstitutional law allowed it to become obsolete without attempting to enforce it, thus leaving the just impression that they had no faith in the act they had passed. Whilst plural marriage is the only final remedy for and solution of the so called social evil, Utonians believe in and practise it for more noble ends and from a higher stand point—that of religion. To argue that marriage is not religion is simply to deny the express word of God, and to ignore the first great commandment after matrimony was divinely solemnized, to multiply and replenish the earth. To ignore plural or celestial marriage is to turn infidel and ignore Lamech, Abraham, Jacob, Manoch, David, the ancient Christians and last but not least the commandment of God through the great modern seer and martyr, Joseph Smith.

Whatever view may be taken by the Supreme Court of the United States, it cannot be denied that the law of 1862 was passed with the express view to suppress what was known to be held as a fundamental principle in the faith of the church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; hence that law was passed by Congress to "prohibit the free exercise of religion," and should be declared unconstitutional. The will of the parties is just as free in polygamy as in monogamy and the offspring is equally legitimate, hence no oppression or interference with the rights of others. The great apostle to the Gentiles said, "The man is not without the woman or the woman without the man in the Lord, hence it is clear that until irreligious infidels made marriage a civil contract, so far as they themselves were concerned, it was under God a strictly religious institution, which, save for the cause of adultery or fornication, no man was allowed to put asunder," but they remained "in the Lord" "one flesh."

BUD.

Warning to Mothers.

BRUNSWICK, KENNEBEC CO.,
MINNESOTA, Jan. 13, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

A very sad and fatal accident occurred here to-day about 3 o'clock p. m. Mrs. Helen, wife of Mr. Lucius Thallman, went to her next neighbor for a washboiler, about a quarter of a mile from her house, and left in the room two little children, two girls, one four and one two years old, and some fire in the stove. On her return, coming near to the house, she heard some crying, and she threw the boiler away and ran, but when she got the door unlocked and went into the house she found the four year old girl lying on the floor dead. Her clothes were all burnt off, except her shoes and stockings and a little strip of her clothing around her waist. Her face and ears were burnt and hair burned partly. The floor where she was lying had also caught fire.

The poor little sufferer had been to the window and the door trying to get out, but the mother had fastened the door before she went away, that the child should not get out and catch cold. Wonderful to relate, the other little girl was unhurt. How the fire started remains a mystery. A tobacco pipe was lying close by, and it is supposed she had tried to light the same and her clothes caught fire. The fire in the stove was all right. Who can tell the agony of the sufferer, and the grief of the parents, the mother especially? I feel in all my heart to sympathize with them. They are Americans by birth, and good people. I am staying to-night with the man's brother, a very good man, and I can say the same of his wife and children.

Many people here have not seen a "Mormon" Elder before, but they have heard everything bad about us as a people.

I have now held 32 meetings alone for small and great congregations. I feel the Spirit of the Lord upon me, and I am working among the people through all opposition. Please inform my many friends that I am well and feel, with the help of the Lord, to fulfil my mission.

B. P. WULFFENSTIGN.

P. S. I sometimes feel the lack of books, as all my books are my hymn books, Swedish, English and German. Next Sunday I have promised to hold two meetings here in the school house—one Swedish, at 11 o'clock a. m., and one English at 2 p. m.

Yours in haste, B. P. W.
