The Evening paper is the paper of Today, the morning paper is the paper of Yesterday.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

5 o'clock -EDITION.-

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 1895, SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

NO. 92 VOL. XXVIII.

IN COLD BLOOD.

Massacre of Negro Laborers in New Orleans.

MANY SLAIN OR WOUNDED.

Summary Scenes in Various Parts of the City.

A BRITISH SAILOR WOUNDED.

Possibility that the Affair Will Raise the Subject of International Complications.

THE ORLEANS, March 12.—Hoping to recover on the levee at an early hour this morning. At the head of a gang of about one negro was killed by the newspapers. In the vicinity of the French market several negroes are wounded. At 7 o'clock about twenty negroes came to the Harrison (Jackson) line and fired upon the engine as they came along. About twelve were killed.

In Jewa from Louisiana avenue to Rockville street is in the house of an aged lady. The police are patrolling the city and are completely in control. Quiet has rather settled down on the city and appears upon its knees trout. All will be over in a practically all a month.

Early and finished began this morning at 7 o'clock and resulted in killing of by men and the wounded on Dauphine street between Ursulines and Barracks