NEW SOLONS MEET.

Question of Lloyd's Successorship to Watson Postponed.

CONTEST FOR THE PRESIDENCY.

Settled Till Between Newell and Ramsey—O'Meara for Some Reason Remained away.

The new City Council met shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of organization. The opening minutes were of a highly interesting character and were presided over by Councilmen Wiscomb while Recorder Emery filled the duty incumbent upon him.

R. T. Lloyd was in the chair of Councilman Watson, deceased, who after being denied the rights appertaining thereunto, was permitted to make a speech in which he claimed loudly and emphatically that he was Mr. Watson's legal successor and that he proposed to act accordingly.

The chair held otherwise and on motion of Newell further consideration was postponed until Tuesday night next.

The chairman here announced nominations for president as being in order and Stewart named Ramsey as a man who would see that the affairs of the city would be well looked after and its treasury carefully guarded.

Dale placed the name of Newell before the council as a man of ability and fairness. The first vote stood:

Ramsey—Diehl, Wheeler, Buckle, Emery, Stewart, Callister—6.

Newell—Shivley, Dale, Hayward, Morris, LeFebvre, Allen, Newell—7.

Absent—O'Meara.

The chair announced no choice—stating that eight votes were necessary to elect and on motion of LeFebvre a recess of ten minutes was taken in which to allow the members to caucus.

On resuming regular deliberations and the taking of a second ballot it was announced that Le Febvre (Republican) had deserted the Democratic moves and allied himself with his own party. His vote was the only change from the first ballot, and made the result Newell 6, Ramsey 7. Absent—O'Meara.

A third ballot at 3:30 resulted in the election of Councilman Newell, who received 9 votes. Those Republicans who voted for him were Diehl, LeFebvre and Wiscomb. Adjourned until Tuesday evening next at 7:30.

SCHOOL BOARD OFFICERS.

A General Re-organization Tonight Presumably on Strict Party Lines.

The board of education will meet in regular session tonight and re-organize for the ensuing year. The prospects are that absolute partisanship will prevail in all the changes made. Mr. Dealy, the only candidate for the presidency will be elected; the vice-presidency lays between Alff, Colton and Westerfield, Mr. Moreton will probably succeed himself as clerk and Treasurer H. G. Whitney will in all probability be elected or a candidate of opposite politics will be. It is said that Josiah Barnett is the unanimous choice of his party for custodian of the board's funds. His election is apparently certain.

A Veteran Called Home.

General Order No. 12.

HEADQUARTERS FIRST BRIGADE, National Guard of Utah. Salt Lake City, Utah, January 2, 1896.

General Order No. 12.

Companies A, B, D and H, First Infantry, the Signal Corps, Troop C, First Cavalry, and the First Battery, are hereby authorized to participate in the inaugural parade in this city, Monday, January 6th, 1896.

Second. The regimental commander First Infantry, the commanding officer of the Cavalry squadron and the captains of the Signal Corps and Battery, will issue the necessary orders for the assembling of their respective commands, so as to report the same to the assistant adjutant general, First Brigade, at Richards street, between South Temple and First South street, not later than 10:45 a. m. on the day mentioned.

The battery will parade with gun squad.

By order of Brigadier General R. W. Young.

FRANK JENNINGS,
Lieutenant Colonel and Assistant Adjutant General.

A MORNING HOLD-UP.

A Traveler is Relieved of His Money on South Temple Street.

A holdup occurred by means of a gun play, was perpetrated this morning at 3 o'clock upon a gentleman, name, with others, is to come from Hastings, Neb., to Ontario, Cal. It occurred on South Temple street, near the Jennings property, and resulted in the man, who refused to divulge his name, being relieved of a $20 gold piece and other coins of smaller denominations. The case was quickly reported to the police and in a very short time thereafter, Joe Sullivan, alias Collinton, was in limbo with the charge of highway robbery opposite his name. The man assaulted stated positively that Jennings was no accomplice, and regretted very much that he could not stop until tomorrow to testify against him, his intent being him to leave town tonight. The officers feel that they have a case against Sullivan and it is likely that the gentleman's expedition may be taken before he leaves town.

Summoned by Death.

Special to the News per Deseret Telegraph.

MINERSVILLE, Utah, via BEAVER, Jan. 2.—Mrs. Jerome Heathcote, one of the most esteemed citizens of this place, died here yesterday. She was about 62 years of age; the mother of twelve children and has resided here about thirty-five years, a devoted and faithful Latter-day Saint. Her son George, about 23 years old, who has been suffering from periodical attacks of epilepsy for several years, on hearing the death of his mother, fatally attempted to commit suicide by stabbing himself over his heart with a sharp pointed knife. Although not necessarily fatal, the injuries wounds is of a serious nature.

IS A COUNTY AUDITOR.

C. F. Emery, Selectmen's Clerk, Named for the New Office.

Attorney Whitlemore's Opinion on Official Claims—Decides That They Were Considerably Too High.

The county court met in regular session this afternoon and among other things created the office of county auditor. C. F. Emery, the selectmen's clerk, was chosen to fill the office. County Attorney Whitlemore rendered an important opinion on the salary question as follows:

Gentlemen: I herewith return the claims of J. C. McNally, probate judge, Charles H. Roberts and A. S. Identes, selectmen, for compensation for the month of December, 1895, and in relation herewith to report as follows:

The Territorial statutes require that the county court shall not audit or allow any claim or bill against the county unless the same be itemized, giving names, dates, particular services rendered, character of work done, etc.

That all claims against the county presented by members of the county court for per diem or mileage or other services rendered by them must be itemized and verified as other claims and must state that the services have been actually rendered. The compensation of probate judges and selectmen is fixed by the law at $4 per day for each day actually employed in attending to business pertaining to the county court for mileage.

I find that the charges in each of these claims are made in conformity with the rate of compensation as aforesaid, but that the claims do not comply with the law in regard to the manner in which the charges are made in reference to the character of the work and particular services rendered. I have therefore prepared to earn case a claim in a manner that in my opinion is in conformity with the laws of Utah and herewith submit them to this court for adoption.

Certificates of Election.

Certificates of election were today issued by Secretary Charles C. Richards, to the gentlemen who will shortly assemble in this city to draft laws governing the new State of Utah. Those for the Republican members of the Legislature are in the hands of Chairman George M. Cannon, while Chairman Powers holds those belonging to the Democratic members.

Tomorrow at 10 a. m., the Time Now Fixed.

The case in which Mr. Fyler and Mrs McKenz are the principals was scheduled for vivisection in Commissioner Bommer's court commencing at ten o'clock this morning. At that hour however, a postponement was taken until 2 o'clock, the assurance being then given that the hearing would be a "go" as Deputy Marshal Timoney claimed to know of a person who would come in and give some very material testimony for the prosecution.

Two officers arrived and with it Judge Bommer's desire for a shave, he had he went to consult his tonsorial artist, while in the meantime Mr. Fyler dropped into the court room. He was acquainted of the court's absence and the reason for it, when suddenly he too was brought to a realization of the fact that he had a superfluous growth of whiskers, and set he went to do likewise.

Presently in came the court, followed quickly by Assistant U. S. Attorney Joseph T. Richards, when the information was given out that the case would be continued until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

Golden Wedding.

OGDEN, Utah, Dec. 31, 1895.—December 31, 1895, was a day long to be remembered by the people of Hooper. This day the Belnap family gathered for the purpose of commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Gilbert and Adaline Belnap. They assembled in the amusement hall about two hundred strong, the hall being tastefully decorated for the occasion. Indeed it was an inspiring sight to witness father, mother, sister and brother, together with the numerous offspring, meet in happy reunion. Some had come from distant states, others which handle they had not met for many years. Numerous were the congratulations bestowed upon the aged and devoted couple.

Gilbert Belnap was born December 22, 1821, in Upper Canada; Adaline Knight Belnap was born in York, May 4, 1826. Both are strong and hearty and with a promise of many years of life and happiness awaiting them.

At 1 p. m. the assemblage was called to order by G. R. Belnap, their eldest son, who had been selected master of ceremonies. Prayer was offered by Bishop Uhlife, followed by a short address of welcome by Gilbert and Adaline Belnap, who invoked God's blessings upon their posterity. The Hooper cornet band rendered a selection, after which tables that would hold about one hundred and fifty at one sitting were spread with a most delicious dinner. The daughters of the bride and bridegroom had charge of the same.

Around these tables sat five generations, the eldest of which was Martha Knight, the widow of Elder Vinson Knight, well known in early Church history, who is now in her 91st year.

At the close of the banquet Joseph Belnap, the secretary for the occasion, read the genealogical report. According to this there had been born to Adaline Belnap nine (9) sons and four (4) daughters; and to Henrietta Belnap, his second wife whom Gilbert Belnap married in 1852 was born three sons and one daughter. There were 17 living, 122 grandchildren and 3 great-grand-children; total, 147; of these there were 2 children and 22 grandchildren dead, the number now living being 123. All the latter were at this gathering but six small grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The above showing makes it possible this honored Pioneer to report on his return to the spirit world a hundred kids and more.

Songs, recitations and instrumental music were then proceeded with, intermingled with them was a biographical sketch rendered by Hyrum Belnap. This contained not only some very touching passages and items of history but pointed out the landing on Plymouth Rock of three brothers bearing the name of Belnap in the early part of the seventeenth century. From them sprang, no doubt, the learned Dr. Belnap of Massachusetts, General Belnap, the father of W. W. Belnap, secretary of war during President Grant's administration, and many others whose number counts "like the sand upon the sea shore." Daniel Belnap, the father of Gilbert Belnap, who fought in the war of 1812. Particular reference was made to the fact that Gilbert Belnap was one of the pioneer pioneers who came to these rocky regions in 1850. When Ogden city was incorporated he was chosen its first marshal. Later on he was elected sheriff of Weber county four successive years. In 1870-71 he was elected a member of Ogden city and Weber county legislature. In this county he has served one term as selectman and five (5) years as assessor and collector. He was one of the leaders of the little band that settled our town. Ecclesiastically the sketch pointed his passing through those heart-rending scenes of Nauvoo; crossing the plains in ox teams; his being a missionary to the Salmon River mission when the people were robbed by the Indians; and his joining Jedediah Smith and company who kept Johnson's army on the mountain top in the winter of 1857-8. In 1869 he was presiding Elder and afterwards bishop of Hooper ward, which position he held until 1888, when he was released because of ill health.

Gilbert and Adaline Belnap were the recipients of many testimonials of love and esteem from relatives and friends in the shape of beautiful and costly presents.

In the evening the soul inspiring strains of music made the ruling hour happy in a dance. The whole closed with prayer by Edwin Parker.

AN UNDESERVED SOBRIQUET.

A Mr. Peterson, whose family lives in Salt Lake City, has been living for some time a farm on Provo bench and has been living there alone. Some time ago a Chinaman in destitute circumstances came to Peterson and asked to be allowed to stay with him until he could find work somewhere. Peterson granted the request and the Chinaman has been left alone on the farm several times when Peterson has been called away, as Peterson believes he was honest and would look after the place. Last week Peterson went to Salt Lake and on his return on Monday he found his protege gone. This did not particularly disturb him, but Tuesday he discovered that about seventy bushels of winter apples had been taken away from a haystack where they had been placed for protection from the frost. He now thinks that the Chinaman and some white thief have loaded the apples in a wagon and taken them to Salt Lake City or Park City—most probably the latter place, as the Chinaman wanted to go there. The Chinaman is about 22 years of age and "good looking for a Chinaman," and speaks fairly good English. An old brown spotted cow, with calf, is also missing from Peterson's house and is supposed to have been taken by the Chinaman. The matter has been placed in the hands of the officers and it is to be hoped the guilty parties will be found. Peterson is a poor man and outside and feels discouraged over the loss of the fruit as it represented the available proceeds of his summer's toil.

Notes.

Henry E. Dixey will appear in the Opera house on the evening of the 6th in The Lottery of Love.

New Years Day passed off quietly, the A. O. U. W. ball in the Opera house was well attended by Salt Lake and Provo people, and was a very pleasant affair.

John S. Rolfe, formerly on the Dispatch, has accepted a position with the Enquirer, and will reserve Mr. Clowes, of the editorial department, while the gentleman assumes similar duties in the coming Legislature.

Rosbard & Saxey have dissolved partnership in the grocery business. Mr. Saxey will continue at the old stand; Mr. Rosbard, Provo's veteran grocery man, will assume the management of a grocery business in the store next door to the post office, which will be known as the D. Y. A. Grocery Co.

A few days ago four or five little boys, ranging in age from 12 to 15 years, were given permission to remain in the city jail for smoking. As the jail, at night, is often filled with tramps, who apply for lodging, it was thought best to let the boys go home to sleep, which was done, and early morning the little fellows appeared promptly to be locked up for the day.

LITERARY NOTES.

There is but one collection of the portraits of Lincoln that pretends to be complete, and that is the collection made by the publishers of McClure's Magazine. The entire series of portraits will appear during the current year. With the February number twenty of them will have been printed. These portraits cover a period of about twenty years, are from originals taken in a great many different towns and cities under a great many different conditions, and are so varied, and present Lincoln under so many different aspects, that the result of the whole collection is to make Lincoln vivid and real.—New York, 30 Lafayette Place.

We are told that it would have taken a freight train consisting of 12 cars to carry the first edition of the Christmas number of Munsey's Magazine. The casual observer doesn't realize what an enormous number of books 500,000 copies means, and yet this (December) edition was exhausted in ten days, and demands for more had to be unsatisfied, for the simple reason that there were no more magazines left and it was mechanically impossible to print more. The January edition, now on the press, promises a store of interesting matter for the readers, and that fact for it is taking the magazine of the publishers.—561 Fifth Avenue, New York.
