FAMILY ROW. Aged Woman Brought to Police Station in Drunken Condition.

Police Officer William Hilton and Patrol Driver Marcena Cannon were called out to quell a disturbance caused by domestic infelicity at 449 West First North street yesterday afternoon, and only succeeded after arresting Mrs. Helen McOmie, a Scotch woman 62 years of age. The old woman is in the city bastile on the charge of drunkenness and disturbing the Neighbors of McOmie's telephoned to the police station that the old woman and her daughter were both drunk and fighting like wildcats. The officers made a record-breaking run to the scene of family strife and found that the facts had not been overdrawn. Mother and daughter had been en gaged in a hand to hand conflict in hich the old woman got the worst The daughter blazed away at her with a cup which took effect just above the mother's eye. She also had a cut in her head from which blood flowed in a small stream.

Officer Hilton took the old woman to hall in the wagon but left the daughter on account of the children. Mrs. McOmie was a shocking sight when she arrived at the police station. Her hair was matted with blood and her clothing was half torn from her body. She cried and begged the offleers to let her go back home. ing too drunk to navigate with safety. was locked up in the womans ward.

IN COURT THIS AFTERNOON.

When the old lady was brought up into the court room this afternoon her daughter was there and tried to speak to her, but Mrs. McOmie greeted her with the "marble heart" and would not deign to even look at her. She was charged with drunkenness and pleaded that all she had was one glass of beer. A plea of not guilty was entered for her and Officer Hilton relate the circumstances of her arrest and testified that she was drunk. After promising never to drink again and to try to live in peace and bar-mony she was discharged. During the proceedings the daughter spoke up and spoke of the goodness of her mother. She also said she "never indulged" but that whisky was the cause of yesterday's trouble.

TWO SMALL FIRES. Mine, Smelter and Supply Company

Has Another Close Call.

At 3 o'clock this morning it looked like the Mine, Smelter and Supply company would be visited by another fire with a loss of several thousand dollars, but fortunately the loss consisted only of a box filled with shavings and the window of a door broken by firemen in gaining entrance to the

The company's new quarters are on First South and Broadway streets, and at the time mentioned a police officer going to the station happened to glance over at the building and discovered a blaze on the second floor. He imme-diately gave the alarm and a moment later someone turned in a box alarm. Although the firemen were all wrapped in slumber sound, they made a quick jump for the apparatus and in a fev seconds were at the scene of fire. A door was broken in and the fire laddies rushed up stairs. Then someone threw a cup of water on the blaze and extinguished it. The only damage done besides the breaking of the window and door was done to the floor, and that can be repaired for a small amount.

RESIDENCE FIRE.

The family of E. H. Needham of 421 south Second East street, received a scare last night about 7 o'clock when they discovered what they supposed to be the house on fire. A large fire was built in the kitchen stove and a chair with some clothes on it was placed near the fire. In the absence of the family the fire was forgotten nd when they returned, the house was illed with smoke, and the chair was ablaze, Thinking the place was in danger of burning down, an alarm was sent in, and the apparatus from No. 1 made a quick run to the scene, only to find that the blaze was out.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.

This afternoon a complaint was filed ngainst one Peter Madden, not brother and no relation to "Billy" Madden charging him with robbery. It is alleged that on the 2sth of this month

Temporary Alimony.

For the second time the issues in the pase of Kate Guthell, administratrix of the estate of Moroni William, de-ceased, vs J. T. Gilmer et al, are being heard before a court. The case was tried in October, 1899, before Judge Hiles, who granted the defendants a on-suit, and the case was appealed to the Supreme court, and the decision of Judge Hiles was affirmed. Then a new case was commenced, and it is now beng heard by a jury in Judge Morse's court. The suit is brought to recover $5,500 balance due on the sale of the Peabody mine at Bingham. Mr. Wil ams entered into an agreement with T. Gilmer, representing the firm of Gilmer, Salisbury & Co., to sell the mine for $16,000, and received $10,500 of he sale price and now sues for the

PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Jones have located at the Kenyon for the winter.

C. D. French of the revenue service at Butte is a guest at the Kenyon. "After one has been on the islands some time, he is in a position to appreciate the blessings of living in a civillzed country," remarked Major George F. Downey to a friend recently. "Why, when I entered my father's house of my return home, after four years in the Philippines, I thought it the most beautiful place I ever was in. Houses are severely plain on the islands. They have there, it is true, mahogany floors and mahogany walls, but these are plain, and of interior finish and decoras known in America, the Filipinos have no idea. When asked about drinking on the islands, the major replied, "The water over there is full of microbes, some Indifferent, some bad, and the majority very, very bad. The only safe thing to do is to boll water before drinking it, as this destroys the microbes. The men used to be very careless about this, and suffered for their neglect, but they have learned to be more circum spect, and the officers, too, have comto be more stringent in looking after the drinking water supply. But it is hard often to wait for bolled water, for 160.81. It is very hot on the islands, and men are in a perspiration all the time. Many find it advantageous to keep a litt whisky by them to mix with unboiled water, and lime water is also used. Carelessness is likely to result in sentery, and there is a certain kind of disease which means sure death unless the patient is at once removed to another climate," Willam Burke has returned from business trip into Idaho. He found th weather very much as it has been here -very cold, but there is much less snow on the mountains than there usually is at this time of year. He said it looks very dubious for the water supply in Idaho the coming season.

WILL STRIKE TOMORROW. Inside Electrical Workers Will Go Out in the Morning.

The inside wiring men of the electrical workers of this city have decided today to go out on a strike tomorrow, demanding $3.50 per day instead of $3. This was after the contractors had no-tified the men that they, the contractor's, proposed to set the wages of their men, instead of allowing the men to do it themselves. It is expected that over 125 men will strike, and some of them claim that their action may result in a general strike of all electrical workers in sympathy.
