WESTERN NEWS ITEMS.

Items of Interest from the Lowlands (Gleaned by Telegraph).

[SPECIAL TO THE DESERET EVENING NEWS.]

Opened Your Theatre for Business—Numerous Fatal accidents at Fourth Ariz., Fri.

The wife of Major Lemuel Lakes, of Spring City, died a few days ago.

At Nevada, Mo., on Friday and Saturday, Judge Graves held in Bond a man charged with forging a Bond on the Judge of Boone County, Mo.

The 102 and 104 cases brought against Hilton for violation of the Edmunds law, West Cache Bend, Sec. Arizona, Ah Hon, who was convicted of opium and burglary, has begun his term in the Yuma penitentiary.

The Republic (Colo.) Weekly says: Mr. Mellen, who was shot in the head by a Mexican, Friday night, while he was in the act of robbing the Mexican, died Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The Mexican was arrested and taken to Denver.

Mrs. C. H. Dewell, who is a member of Gen. Harry Bell's Salvation Army, was arrested in Denver, Friday, for the murder of her husband, Charles Dewell, at Fort Collins, Colo., Nov. 1. The Coroner's inquest found that Dewell was murdered by his wife.

The Rocky Mountain Mining Journal says: Mr. Mellen, who was shot in the head by a Mexican, Friday night, while he was in the act of robbing the Mexican, died Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The Mexican was arrested and taken to Denver.

Overall is nearly completed. Unknown, who was found yesterday in the Central Valley Mines, was arrested on the charge of robbing Mexicans. He was brought to Denver and placed in the county jail. The Mexicans are now in the city, and will be kept there until the trial of the prisoner.—Colorado Springs.

Pueblo (Colo.) Nov. 23.—A fire which occurred yesterday in the general store of Mr. Mellen, in the Central Valley Mines, was discovered by the Mexicans, who were in the store at the time, and they ran out and called for help. The Mexicans were arrested and taken to Denver.

Sunset (Colo.) Mine. The Sunset mine is shipping one hundred tons daily to the smelter at Denver. A Chicago firm has secured a lease of the property, and probably little more will be placed in operation, but the lease will be taken up by the Central Mining Company, now at work, and Mr. Lowe, who is the manager, and Mr. Tyler, the foreman, will give employment to all who desire work.

Mr. Hill, a miner, living near Cripple Creek, Colo., was found in a drunken condition, and was arrested. He was brought to the county jail, and while there he became violent and was placed in a cell by himself. He was found dead in his cell the morning of Nov. 19, and his death was caused by a fall from the bed.

Mr. C. H. Dewell, who is a member of Gen. Harry Bell's Salvation Army, was arrested in Denver, Friday, for the murder of his wife