A RECEPTION DAY.

Prisoners Called to Plead Before Judge Durich.

THE CHARGES WERE VERY VARIED.

An Unfortunate Step Which Leads a Trusted Employe to the Pen.

The following defendants were arraigned in Judge Durich's division of the 3rd district court this morning:

A CASE FOR FIRE.

Thomas H. Webb, arraigned yesterday on a charge of embezzlement, was now called upon and plead guilty. He acknowledgeds to his own accordance that he had made no entries of $1,000 which he took for the benefit of the Pacific Express company, for which company he was agent, and which he converted to his own use. Attorney Farley for Williams asked the court to accept a plea of guilty. He said the defendant had been a trusted employe of this city for five years, during which time he had had charge of considerable money belonging to the company with which he had been intrusted by the agent of the Express company, who was previously agent of the company, but who had left the employ of the company, and who would testify that the defendant had always borne a good character. These were some circumstances, perhaps, which go to show that he might not have intended to steal the money when he took it. He had been trusted for years and had worked for the company with fidelity, and he was a great sufferer from a very sensitive disposition. He was a great sufferer, and it was known that he had committed this offense. His salary was only $75 per month. A little less than two years ago Webb found himself in trouble and confided the situation to his employer, who was having trouble with his health, and the prisoner of the time commenced using and after a somewhat extended. Getting behind he was tempted to do what he did, hoping to replace the money at various times to help out the company. He was very anxious to do what he could to make good the money, and hoping vainly to be able to do so, he was induced to take the money at various times to help himself out of difficulty and had been trusted by the company.

General Superintendent of Express for Great Southwest of the Pacific Express Co., was present to testify to the good work for the defendant, and endorsed what Mr. Williams had said, being in favor of a light sentence.

Judge Durich, when appealed to, said he wished the Court was vindicate the accused with a Christmas spirit.

County Attorney Williams stated that he had done all in his power to help the prosecution. He honestly assisted his crime and put the offense in Pinkerton's hands.

The defendant had nothing to add to his defense, and the court passed the lightest sentence allowed—one year in the penitentiary.

Wong Wilford, fifty Indo-Chinese and two little daughters were present on the former evidently felt in consider's disgrace most keenly. Traveling before Webb left for the penitentiary was a most affecting one.

ALLEGED SUICIDAL.

Jesse Griffin arraigned with Barlow Ingersoll for Mary Cross hospital on the night of December 25th, 1894. He plead not guilty.

C. L. Miller was next arraigned and plead a plea of guilty to breaking into the residence of Jas. Kelly on December 25th. Sentence was set for Monday next.

A YOUTH FOR PRISON.

J. W. Farris, G. A. Hedrick, Thos. Brown, Chas. Allen, Jas. Egan and E. Jos. Gr. Mendenhall, the last four named, were next called upon to plead to a charge of entering the city jail by breaking down the door and removing a prisoner of the color within the room. The two boys in question plead guilty.

All of your plead not guilty except Brown, who has taken to shooting to enter his plea.

The defendants Allen, Brown, Egan and Hedrick were further charged with burglarizing the store of Jacob Dabel, on 1st West Second South street, on December 27, 1894. All plead not guilty.

DISCHARGED ON COOL HOW.

As soon as the above batch of indictments had been arraigned Mrs. Holloway and Charles Valentine were called to plead to an indictment. Defendants had not planned how the statutory time to plead—till Saturday. However, the charge against Mrs. Holloway was dismissed later by the prosecution.

Stepped in a Hole.

MERRITT IS KEPT BUSY.

Verdict in the Case of Weeks vs The Dalton Gold Mining Co.

The Same Case Will Come Action by a Laundry Co. Against W. H. Beardsley, Esq.

Chief Justice Merritt has got through a varied program of business today, among the matters which were called up being the following:

SUIT ON TWO NOTES.

In the case of J. H. Weeks vs Co. Dalton Gold Mining company, filed yesterday, the jury this morning brought in a verdict for the plaintiff—on the first cause of action for $400.75, and on the second for the same amount. A jury of twelve men was empanelled to assess damages, on motion for a new trial.

MISCELLANEOUS.

In the matter of the estate of Omar A. Amy, deceased, a jury called was also granted to the executor on motion for a new trial.

Joseph Hampton vs the Utah National Bank. Judgment for the plaintiff.

Kohn, Abel & Co. vs D. Alexander et al, default and. Execution to a fine before written was issued. Thirty days' stay granted to the and serve all exceptions on motion, or a new trial.

F. Auerbach et al vs the Westside Saloon Co., defendants. Motion to give to delivery bond and leave attachment overruled.

Commercial National Bank vs M. H. Beardsley; defendant allowed 20 days additional time to plead.

LAUNDRY VS DEBTS.

The trial of the case of the Utah Steam Laundry Co. vs Mills H. Beardsley was then proceeded with before a jury. It comes here on appeal from a Commissioner Moyer's court, where judgment was rendered for the plaintiff for $150 and costs, claimed to be due on balance of account for laundry work done for the Continental hotel, of which the defendant was formerly proprietor. As a defense it is set up that an agreement was come to that the laundry company would accept the pay in cash each month, that they had failed to do so, and therefore could not claim interest.

Zane & Schroder for the plaintiff; Attorney Ogden Hiles for the defendant.

The case is in progress this afternoon.

Charge of Adultery.

The trial of John Orr on a charge of adultery with an elderly married woman named Christina Hyldbo, of Grantsville, is proceeding before Judge Durich and a jury this afternoon.

Discharged.

The case of Philip Jacobs, who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of petit larceny, charged with having taken some feathers from H. M. Tanner, was this morning dismissed and the defendant discharged.

A MINER'S DAMAGE SUIT.

He Claims $10,015 From the Bullion Beck & Champion Mining Company.

In the Third district court this afternoon W. S. Kennedy brought suit against the Bullion Beck & Champion Mining Co., praying judgment in the sum of $10,015 for injuries sustained by him while following his employment as a miner in the Alum mine at Eureka, Juab county, on December 13, 1894.

Plaintiff alleges that he was engaged on the 1000-foot level extending on 1127 the claims of the mine, when a rock, weighing about twenty-five pounds, fell a distance of fourteen feet striking him on his neck below the right shoulder, and crushing him to the ground. He was also internally injured, it is claimed that the defendants were negligent and careless in having failed to place the rock above the point where plaintiff was working, and to properly locate the mine at that point. Damages are claimed in the complaint and interrogatories.

John Parsons and D. N. Straup are Kennedy's attorneys.

Suit to Quiet Title.

Spencer Clawson this afternoon, in the Third district court, brought a suit to quiet title against George Y. Wallace and the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company. The property in question is situated in the city of Salt Lake, and is known as lot "A" of block 70, plat "A," of Brigham Young's subdivision of lots.

Barber Shop Burglarized.

Burglars entered the White House barber shop some time during last night and helped themselves to articles as are said by the material artist, among which were five razors and two pair of slippers, besides tooth, hair oil, etc. The burglars effected an entrance through the rear door, and are supposed to have been frightened away by the approaching night watch, as there were many other things left that were as valuable as those taken. The locality of the office makes it mystery.

Land Office.

The following filings were made in the local land office under date of February 20:

Andrew Tegeler, of Glenwood, Sanpete county, homestead at the north end of the southwest quarter of section 15, and the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 16, township 18 south, range 1 west.

U. A. McAllister, for Union Pacific Railway company, selection of 10 quarter sections, or 2,560 acres, of land in Salt Lake City land district.

Probate Court.

There was no business of public interest transacted in the probate court today.

The Supreme Court.

Saturday's session of the Territorial Supreme Court will be an important one. Two auxiliary against opinions may be handed down in the morning and the Toledo appeal is set down for argument.

AMUSEMENTS.

MEN AND WOMEN stand to an engagement at the Theater left night to an immense audience, the attendance for the second time being limited behind the scenes to make room for people eight to pay half price to see a whole price show. The attractions the company nightly makes for Salt Lake from its top and goes to Pittsburg, playing Eden enroute. We say farewell to them all with regretment, and hope the time is not far distant when Miss Kennedy, Miss Estey, Mr. Fawtey, Mr. Destine and Mr. King will drift back this way again. Miss Cayo, of course, is a foregone one, having made up her mind to retire for good and all. Mr. Fawtey and Mr. Destine, married by the recent trend, think that there is a big matrimonial harbor in the company's wake, are already engaging with each other concerning the conference date. It is to be hoped something definite may be agreed on looking to the appearance here of the company, for should be the last Pittsburg, the fun and some thing else will be over.

A TEMPERANCE TOUCH will be seen on the 19th, then in Salt Lake tonight. It will be very dense fun, and will be a great time. A Texas cheer party have played to big business in Logan.

The New Grand Co. at the Grand open attraction night in Ben Franklin. It is a holiday fair, the turning and a smiling country of the home will no doubt be better.

The Hayes Dancing experimental Party, Ed's Party, Inter a dance literally packed in the Eighteenth ward hall last night. The charming entertainer never were better, and Mr. Webb, Mr. Kemp, Mr. Wonderwell, Mr. Clawson, Mr. Knowlton, Mr. Young and Little Cy were all congratulated on giving the smoothest performance yet rendered. The second part was a very entertaining bill of vaudevillaire in which the Harmony Club and Miss Hancock's school of culture pupils were the principal features. The other numbers by some very clever children were all encored.

Under False Pretenses.

J. A. McCrosie, the keeper of an employment agency on First South street, who was arrested last night upon complaint of Henry Jameson on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, was taken out this afternoon in the police court, the prosecuting witnesses being on the witness stand.

Frame Building Burned.

The two story frame building belonging to Andrew Jensen and situated at No. 1011 Washington street, was destroyed by fire today. The alarm was sent in from the corner of Second West and Ninth south streets, and the firemen were quickly at the scene of the conflagration, but the building was practically destroyed before the fire was extinguished.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - FEB. 19, 1895.

Junction City News.

The funeral services over the remains of Ralph T. Walsh, the lamented son of J. Walsh, who sustained fatal injuries by falling down stairs at the Z. C. M. I., were held at the Fifth ward meeting house yesterday afternoon, conducted by Bishop Stewart. Comforting remarks were made by Jesse Joseph Hamilton, H. Bullock, C. F. Middleton, C. C. Richards, J. Stevens and Elder Piggen. The morning home was filled to overflowing. The city council attended in a body, the father of the deceased being a member.

The board of trustees of the Territorial Reform school met yesterday; the business transacted was of no particular importance. Inmates Joseph Siegel and Geo. Dryanis were pardoned out of school, and Charles Porter was discharged on account of having reached his majority. Ray Westwood was sent back to the district court, his conduct being unmentionable to the school.

The subject of Father Cuthbert's lecture tonight will be "The Immortality of the human soul," or the A. O. U. W. lack.

E. J. Hermes, dry goods merchant, sells out his establishment today to E. S. Billings. The stock is estimated at $25,000. It is expected the business will remain unchanged, as no doubt satisfactory arrangements can be made to that end.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - FEB. 21, 1895.

First District Court Business.

This morning in the First district, a jury was empanelled in the case of the people vs Hiram Nelson. Assistant U. S. Attorney Tarbine appeared for the people and J. W. N. Winder for defendant. The defendant is indicted for obtaining money under false pretenses in the following manner: On the 7th of October, 1894, in Spring City, Sanpete county, he is charged with presenting an affidavit to the S. W. Brigham company's officials, to the effect that three wheat stacks that a certain had been burned by sparks from the railroad company, and that thereupon the railroad company paid him $225. The prosecution claim that the fire was presented by the acts of the defendant which he was certainly guilty of his hand surrounding the wheat stacks and setting.

The grand jury reported four indictments under the laws of the Territory and that they had ignored the case of the United States against Hans J. Jorgenson and Anna M. Jorgenson.

In the case of W. A. Gammit vs Fletcher & Nurses, plaintiffs, motion for continuance on the ground of being materially absent in have his witnesses in attendance was denied and the action was dismissed without prejudice to plaintiff. A similar action by plaintiff against to Dalton was filed the afternoon. Plaintiff sues for $7,500 damages resulting from injuries suffered by a fall while shelling the property of defendants. All the parties are from Sanpete county.

In the case of J. G. Sigler, administrator, vs Thomas Gudrich et al, judgment for $1,337.50 and costs, and $50 attorney's fee.

Notes.

H. J. Howard, aged 21, and Victoria Inez, aged 22, both of Lehi, were married yesterday by Judge Durich.

Morris Dayton and Conlon, the Salt Lake "shell game" men, were in Provo yesterday for the purpose of completing or putting a pipe organ in the Tabernacle. It is understood that satisfactory arrangements were made, and that a Kimpton organ will be placed in the building at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Dennis have been called to mourn the loss of their 19-year-old daughter, Ora, who died yesterday morning after a two weeks' illness from pneumonia. The funeral services were held this afternoon in the M. E. church.

The case of the People vs James McAuley, of Springville, charged with selling liquor to minors, which will be heard by District Judge Dunkley, will be contested on the ground that the justice has no jurisdiction. Defendant's attorneys, Messrs. Warner and Haight, hold that the city alone has the power to regulate the liquor business.
