NEWS OF THE WEST.

Serious Accident to a Family While Out for a Drive.

SAD CASE OF ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Death By Lightning.—Denver Coal Dealers on Their Mettle.—Other Items.

The Santa Fe line intends putting on a line of refrigerator cars between Las Cruces and Chicago, for the benefit of the fruit growers of New Mexico.

The retail coal dealers of Denver have organized an association and will test the constitutionality of the ordinance recently passed putting a license upon their business.

The Blackfoot (Idaho) News states that a company of Utah capitalists will construct a big canal on the west side of Snake river, running from south of Berryman & Rogers's ranch southward.

It is stated that there will be more cattle shipped out of ... this fall than has been the case for a good many years. Range cattle in the valley of the White and Yampa were never in better condition.

On Saturday afternoon, Under Sheriff White was struck by lightning at Silver Cliff, Colo., and instantly expired. His wife in the next room, was badly shocked but will recover. Mr. White was the son of Judge Jas. White, speaker of the Eighth assembly.

The store of Hiram Hampson at Swan Lake, Idaho, which contained the postoffice, has been destroyed by fire. The entire stock, together with the mail, was reduced to ashes. Mrs. Hampson, by almost superhuman efforts, saved the books but nothing more. The loss is about $6,000, with $2,250 insurance. The origin of the fire is not known.

Governor McConnell, of Idaho, has received a letter from a woman at Murray, petitioning in behalf of the women and children of the Coeur d'Alenes that the governor do everything in his power to restore order in that section and protect the innocent ones. The governor has sent word to the militia companies that, unless there be further disturbances, the militia will not be called on.

Says the Rawlins Republican: The assessment roll of Carbon county for the year 1894 is made up, but we have been unable to get the footings of the different items. It is stated, however, that the assessed valuation of the county this year is about $100,000 short of what it was last year. The shortage probably comes from a decrease in the amount of live stock in the county, besides sheep are valued at fifty cents per head less than they have been heretofore.

If the proposed Salt Lake-Los Angeles railroad is built, remarks the Boise Statesman, it may have the effect of stimulating railroad building in the West. There are other roads to be built; other sections stand inviting the construction of new lines, and if a start be made in Utah the movement may spread. Idaho needs roads. There are splendid openings here for roads and the next era of railroad building, no matter where it shall be inaugurated, will witness the construction of needed lines in this state.

Mr. John Hatton and family met with a serious accident while coming to town a few days since, says the Uintah (Wyo.) Herald, published at Evanston. When on the hill near Knight's ranch they met a neighbor and stopped to talk for a moment. One of the horses rubbed the bridle off and the team ran away, turning the wagon over and breaking it up badly. All the occupants, including Mr. and Mrs. Hatton and the two boys, were thrown out and severely injured. Mrs. Hatton has the bones of one hand broken, and the cords of the neck and muscles of the thigh badly injured.

A sad case of attempted suicide is reported from Colorado Springs. About 8 o'clock on Saturday morning, Mrs. Davis, living at East Platte, went to the woodshed in the rear of her house, tied a rope round her neck and swung from a chair. The noise made by kicking the chair from under her, caused her mother to investigate and she called for help. Two neighbors went to the scene. One held her up and the other untied the rope. The woman was badly choked. She had also cut her arms and wrists badly with a razor and the blood streamed from them. Mrs. Davis has been an invalid for some years, had become despondent and decided to end her life.

In Every Line.

The poet Bryant, while editor of the New York Post, insisted that young poets should be ... in the book columns of the paper. Once a ... handed him a thin volume of poems saying that they were worth ... Mr. Bryant looked through the book and then said, "You might say that it is prettily bound and clearly printed."

The editor of whom this story is told also had a soft side for young men who would write poetry.

"Give me your candid judgment of these lines," said the young man of literary aspirations. "Do they convey the idea of poetry at all?"

"Yes, sir," replied the editor, looking them over, "they do. There is something in every line that conveys the idea. Every line," continued the kind hearted man, letting him down as gently as he could, "begins with a capital letter."—Youth's Companion.

The Power of Song.

The power of song is illustrated in a custom on the railroads of northern Florida. Whenever a train crosses the Suwanee river the conductor announces the fact in each car. If any passenger has never heard "Way Down Upon the Swanee River," this particularization of the stream would seem peculiar, and the Suwanee is like a dozen other rivers in the same region, and these are passed without comment from the conductor.—Philadelphia Press.
