FRAGMENTS.

THERE are several cases of scarlet fever in the Twenty-first ward.

THE late Garfield funeral train for this season was taken off today.

THE Choral society will move in their new quarters in the Union block for rehearsal tonight.

THE City Council meets again tonight to continue its work of revising city ordinances.

THE windstorm of Friday night wrecked the big display of the gas exhibit at Lake Shore. It will immediately be re-erected.

HAND dog or surface walls are practically ruined in the city by the rain that passed by the summit on Friday night last.

THE Century for October monthly magazine for October has arrived and can be obtained at the Utah Book and Stationery company's store.

THE Peerless Roller Mill Company of Warsaw county filed articles of incorporation with the territorial secretary today.

"CHEVREY," According to Book, Prince Nicotiels, Badge, Fancy Herald and all the leading magazines for November at Margetts Bros.

THE "Comrades in Arms" excursion will close up a most enjoyable season, in the Tabernacle. Tickets will be distributed to the members. Names should be early now be enrolled. C. J. Thomas Dodge.

THE county clerk issued the following marriage license today: James Mayne, aged 18, and Rachel M. Wright, aged 20, both of Salt Lake; Walter C. Hoskins, of Ogden, aged 20, and Addie E. Boles, aged 18, of Brigham.

A MEETING of the Democrats of the Fifth ward of Salt Lake City will be held in the meeting house in said ward on Thursday, October 6th, 1892, at 8 o'clock p. m., for organization. Speakers will be present and address the meeting.

TONIGHT the "Liberals" will meet in the various wards of the city and select delegates to attend the precinct conventions to be held on Thursday night next. At these conventions delegates will be chosen to attend the county and Territorial conventions.

IT is reported that the City Council will make another attempt tomorrow night to remove Police Judge Rogers from office, also that his successor will be appointed. Rogers says that while there is life there is hope and that he will hang on to the office and.

THERE was a meeting of about twenty of the members of the Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners yesterday afternoon in the room over the Western Union Telegraph building, on Main street. The speakers were Messrs. Grimes, Dodge and Wilson.

HON. JAS. R. MARTS and wife have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in the death of their infant daughter, Mabel Jones Hulbert, at Chicago, Illinois, where she was interred yesterday morning at 10o. The sad news was received yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the family residence, at No. 60 east First South street.

CHIEF CLERK D. S. SPENCER, of the Union Pacific, and wife, have returned from their recent trip to the Centennial State whither they went for a brief season of rest and recreation. They enjoyed themselves exceedingly, and while they say Colorado is a beautiful State they concede that in many respects it does not approach Utah, the brightest gem of western commonwealths.

A SUNDAY minor named Andrew Hagman met with a serious accident at the Anderson lodging house on Plum alley last night. He was cleaning the weapon when by some means discharged it was discharged, the ball entering the outlet to his left thigh and lodging in the outlet. The wound dressed. The patient will be confined to his bed for a couple of weeks under the most favorable circumstances.

ON Saturday night about 8 o'clock, George Whitehead, a passenger on the Rapid Transit street car on second South street had a narrow escape from serious injury. He had occasion to alight from the car while it was in motion and he fell to the ground the car was stopped promptly but before Mr. Whitehead had reached the ground after stepping from the platform the current was turned on and the car started suddenly and he was dragged forward dragging it a considerable distance.

MR. R. J. FILCE, while building a mound at the Tabernacle on Sunday last evening, was a loser to the extent of a hammer and whip, which were taken from his bagy while he was in the tower. From the same place a pocket book was recently taken from the owner's pants while he was sleeping. This sneak thievery is getting to be quite common, whether the police are in "that pasture" or not.

THE Students' Society of the Latter-day Saints' College held its regular session at the College building Friday evening. After preliminary exercises the following programme was rendered. Experimental lecture on Air, by John T. Woolfitt, one of the faculty of the College; song, Flower, Footer, Woolfitt, Cears and Midgley; Chairman Maycock, a few remarks of the time, interspersed with humorous selections; song. The chairman announced that on account of Conference there would be no session next Friday.

AT the meeting of revision of ordinances by the City Committee on Saturday night there was considerable time lost in the discussion of the removal beyond the city limits of all powder magazines. Pulford moved that the work be done as quickly as possible. The motion finally prevailed. This will cause repining in the hearts of many timid people. Salt Lake City Park was another cause for a long debate. It has been suggested that a commission of citizens be created to take the park. It will probably be done though it is said the Mayor is opposed to the idea.

"OLEOMARGARINE Gold Cure for Inebriates" are the words embazoned in large letters on a huge sign board over the front porch of Corinne Harris' residence. Where school by a respectable lady, "Blue ribbon Women" with the Keeley Institute, Mr. Harris replied to the affirmative and declared that his residence would be the most confirmed class of drunkards in five days. Mr. Harris is the manager of the new company and Dr. C. W. Harvey, M. D., is attending physician. Articles of incorporation will be filed in a few days.

THE appointments by the Mayor of several police officers whom he dismissed without a hearing have generally occasioned a confession that he acted in haste. It has been claimed for him by his admirers that he never takes a decision upon until he has made a thorough investigation and ascertained just where the right, if any, belongs. "Blue ribbon men," and a "Liberal" office-holder bet creating, "the public on one judge, Mr. Lawson, seemed to be of the opinion that omens was like an ass very that he would break before he would back. Generally that is a bearing of the Mayor too. The Mayor has just discovered that the discharged officers would use all of their efforts and influence against the Liberal party at the coming election unless they were given another pull at the city treasury. It is to be likely they would have been able to do much injury, but they could make a great noise and blunder. Besides the "Liberal" party needs every vote it can get."

ANOTHER MISSIONARY DEAD.

Elder Haag, of Payson, Passes Away in Cafka, Turkey.

The following brief but expressive private telegram was received today from Elder Hans C. Maeser, of this city, now on a mission in Cafka, Turkey: Office Asiatic Haag is dead." The deceased resided at Payson, Utah County. He left home for a mission to Turkey on the 6th of February last. He was the brother of Professor Haag, teacher of foreign languages at the Latter-day Saints College, this city. The latter received a letter from him a few days ago. At the time of the writing he was in the best of health and there was much speculation as to the cause of his unexpected end and demise. He leaves a wife and two children with whom the saints will mourn. Elder Haag was an able man and his death will be a severe blow to the community in which he lived.

IN POLITICAL CIRCLES.

What Local Parties and Partisans are Doing.

TWO well known Democratic "spellbinders" went up to Morgan on Friday evening to hold a meeting. Observing at their destination they were met at the depot of the chairman of the local organization, who informed them that the hall had been engaged for a dance and the dancers were anticipating. So the pilgrims had to content themselves with holding a kind of session in the hotel dining room and answering questions, which were somewhat amusing.

Beaver city boasts a Young Ladies' Cleveland and Stevenson club. They wear badges and look quite captivating.

The red roses worn in the coat lapel by several gentlemen on the street, is the nothing Democratic badge for this campaign. The pale pink and cream-colored one is the Republican emblem, while the Liberals have adopted the white—the symbol of purity! How strictly appropriate!

* * *

The political situation is warming up in a decided manner, but has not yet reached its fullness.

* * *

Hon. Frank J. Cannon, Republican candidate for Delegate to Congress, is making a thorough canvass of the Territory, which he proposes to continue till election day. It is a noteworthy fact in this connection that in Ogden, Mr. Cannon's home, there are no Republican badges to be obtained for any consideration, the supply having been exhausted.

The Democratic headquarters in this city are in the rear of the Walker House office; those of the Republicans are in the Wasatch block, while the "Liberals" hold forth over Alff's store on the west side of Main street.

There seems to be some misunderstanding as to the campaign badge this week. The News will adhere to the Harrison tie in the typical grandfather style, being more or less bedecked with white, rolling brim and somewhat stacked to order; the Chronicle has a nearly white or steel gray, and more "dressy" and modern in its general appearance than the other. The Populists and Liberals are so far undesignated in the matter of head wear.

* * *

About a dozen times a day we are asked "Who is to be the candidate?" having reference of course to the outcome of the Provo convention's work. No one knows, at least to such inquiries we have looked out. There are three names apparently more conspicuous than any others—Hon. John T. Caine, Judge Henderson and J. L. Rawlins, the former being a large number of a million and capable dark horse picked out since by.

* * *

Judge Powers, Fred J. Kiesel and C. E. Allen are a trio out of which the "Liberal" nomination for Delegate to Congress is most likely to come.

County Clerk Allen's little set-to with Mr. Blair on Saturday evening was unfortunate which he failed to emerge a winner. If an applicant is willing to take the necessary oath, how much further has the registrar's right to go? is the question.

* * *

The Tucarores have gone into the headquarters business, having opened out over Hogle's saloon. As they are Liberals and nothing else in local politics, we fail to see why they do not save expense by going in with their confreres up the street.

* * *

The delegates to the Provo convention from here will go over the Union Pacific railway, returning half an hour after the gathering adjourns.

AS TO UTAH CROPS.

The Editor of the "American Agriculturist" Asks Questions Regarding Them.

The editor of the American Agriculturist has written to Governor Thomas for answers to the subjoined queries:

First—The number of acres devoted to each of the principal crops in Utah, the yield per acre, the total product of each crop, the average farm value per unit of (measure, pound, bushel, etc.), and the aggregate value of each of these crops, for the whole Territory. Last year's average yield and value to be only for comparison.

Second—A very brief general summary of the crops of this year and last.

Third—The general outlook for agricultural interests in Utah.

The necessary information covering these questions will be promptly forwarded.

Utah Milling Company.

Articles of incorporation of the Utah Milling company were filed with the county clerk this afternoon. The object of the company is the manufacture of flour and other mill commodities, to buy and sell grain, and take products of mills at either wholesale or retail. The place of general business is Salt Lake City. The capital stock is $200,000, divided into 200 shares of $10 each. The incorporators and stockholders are Silvester H. Newhouse, Herbert H. Newhouse and Addie L. Newhouse, each sixty shares; C. J. Clifford and Alice Clifford, ten shares each.

AMONG THE WRONGDOERS.

A Lady Unnecessarily Arrested for Alleged Trespass.

RAID ON THE TAMALE MEN.

A Boy Car Tourist Who Was Compelled to Ride Much Farther than He Wished.

The Police court opened at 10:15 this morning and in three-quarters of an hour the docket was cleared, and the court adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon. The cases heard were as follows:

AN UNWARRANTED ARREST.

Mrs. Sarah Pierson, a neatly dressed and big-like looking woman with a small baby in her arms, was arraigned on a charge of trespass. She pleaded not guilty. The complaining witness was William Hurd, who testified that the defendant and her husband had been in arrears of his for more than two years, but one week ago they vacated his premises for other lodgings.

The alleged offence consisted in Mrs. Pierson returning to gather vegetables from the premises. She said herself and husband were entitled to a portion of the crop. It appears that the arrest was premature and entirely unnecessary. The defendant was discharged.

PEACE DISTURBANCE.

The case of G. S. Jones and George Chase, charged with disturbing the peace, was continued until this afternoon.

A DESPERATE FEMALE.

Beulah Johnson, the notorious female terror, was again arrested by the police last night for drunkenness. She stated to the court that she was unconscious of the charge and was allowed her liberty this afternoon on putting up a deposit of $5 so.

THE DRUNK LIST.

The following persons were arraigned for drunkenness: James Thomas, an upholsterer recently from the Sandwich Islands, pleaded guilty. He said it was the first offence of the kind he had ever committed. He was discharged.

George Rimmy and A. Domb, soldiers, also escaped unpunished, as did Nils Eliskson and Andrew Madsen. These men were fined $5 were John Ell, August L. Holdner, Hugh Mackie, John Jones, Dominic Carmondie, J. S. Connor and James Allbright.

The police are after the tamale men. A number of them have been arrested the last few days but they have all been allowed to go on the payment of a license of $5, a prevention they failed to comply with until taken into custody.

LEFT $20.

Louis Baier left $20 to appear and answer to the charge of drunkenness and resisting an officer.

LOCKED IN A BOX CAR.

A. Howard was arrested for stealing a ride on the Rio Grande Western. He explained that he got aboard the train at Grand Junction and paid the brakeman fifty cents to ride to Helper. Before he reached this point the car door was locked and he was brought to this city against his will. The case was dismissed.

A CLEVER CROOK.

George Connelly, the "real live burglar" captured by the police some time ago, was brought into court this morning to be arraigned for jail breaking. Some discussion followed as to whether the accused was really the culprit. Connelly denied it and declared that he was innocent. He was confronted with a photograph from the "Rogue's Gallery" which the police declare is his. This the lad denied in positive language. If he is a corrector, it is certain that a young criminal bearing a strong resemblance to himself is at large. The arrangement was derived and an officer was sent to Denver to a photograph gallery to secure a likeness of him. Connelly is a clever youth with a bad record.

UNTRIED CASES.

William Smith, a young teamster, was arraigned this morning for having his team untied. He left $2 with the desk sergeant, after which he took his departure.

T. G. Smith, a blacksmith, was taken into custody for drunkenness this morning, as was also an individual named Charles Wright. They are both in jail mediating on their wrong doing.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.

An Alleged Fugitive from Justice from Colorado Captured by Deputy Sheriff Larson, Today.

Just at 12 o'clock today, Deputy Sheriff Leon Larson arrested a clever alleged Colorado criminal on Second South street, named George Wilson. The prisoner is said to have a number of aliases. He is wanted in Grand Junction to answer to the charge of burglary where it is said he broke into a restaurant and jewelry store about three weeks ago and carried off a considerable amount of money and valuable jewelry. Among these was a gold watch which it is said he presented to his sweetheart. The timepiece was discovered in her possession and when questioned by quickness she confessed that she knew in regard to the matter. The officers commenced a sharp look-out for the fugitive, he was trailed to the city where he has been shadowed by Sheriff Burt and his men for some time. Yesterday Sheriff Ines, of Mesa County, Colorado arrived here in quest of the fugitive and his arrest followed today.

It is expected that extradition papers will arrive here this evening. In that event Sheriff Ines will leave for Grand Junction with the prisoner tonight on the 9:30 train. He is now in the county jail.

Amusement Notes.

The opening engagement of "The Knight" takes place at the Theatre tonight, and the demand for seats indicates that it will be greeted by a crowd of house. The drama holds the stage for three successive evenings.

"SECRET OF DUBLIN"

is the attraction announced for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

COLUMBUS DAY.

Governor Thomas Issues a Proclamation Recommending Its Observance.

Governor Thomas issued the following proclamation:

In compliance with the act of Congress the President has issued his proclamation recommending the Friday, October 21, 1892, the one hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the "New World" by Christopher Columbus, as observed by the people of the United States as a public holiday.

The World's Congress auxiliary has also recommended that the public schools be made the center of the celebration.

Now, therefore, I, Arthur L. Thomas, Governor of the Territory of Utah, do earnestly recommend to the people to appropriately observe the day, and that in the public schools the enlightened conduct of our free institutions, such exercises be had as will serve to impress on the minds of the young a just appreciation of the occasion which the day recalls, and of the wonderful progress which has signalized American life and history during the two centuries now drawing to a close.

A GUN FEAT.

County Registrar Allen and J. R. Taylor the Principals.—The Latter Arrested and Released on Bonds.

Somewhat of a sensation was caused this forenoon by the arrest of John R. Taylor, the well known real estate and natural gas man, on a charge of assault with intent to kill. The complaining witness was Dr. Joel F. Allen, "Liberal" candidate for registrar for Salt Lake county. It appears that there has been "real blood" between the defendant and complainant for a long time. Late on Saturday afternoon the latter came to the E. C. M. I. drug store, on Main street. Some reference to their old difficulty seems to have been opened up and Taylor drew a revolver from his hip pocket and it is said threatened to shoot Allen. He claims now that he was compelled to do so in order to defend himself as he says Allen was the aggressor. There were several gentlemen in the drug store at the time and they surrounded the disturbance and disarmed Taylor. The disgraceful affair was a lively one, and the police were attracted to the place but made no arrests.

Taylor was taken into custody by Deputy Sheriff Larson and relieved into the presence of Commissioner Pratt, where he was released on giving bonds of $500.

Probate Court.

The following orders were made by Probate Court Judge Hatch today:

Estate and guardianship of Brigham Tyler, deceased. Order made fixing Friday, October 14th, to hear return of sale of real estate.

Estate of Henry Bawden, deceased. Decree of due and legal notice to creditors made, and order setting Thursday, October 27th, to hear final account and petition for distribution.

"Herald" Changes.

The rumor that has been afloat for some time, to the effect that there would be some important changes made on the Herald now at last been confirmed. The announcement is made in the Salt Lake Tribune that Colonel Cree will retire in favor of Colonel Hyde. Charles W. Penrose, former editor of the DESERET NEWS will be associated with Colonel Hyde. Business Manager H. G. Whitney will be succeeded by George E. Blair. It is said that the reportorial staff will also undergo a reorganizing.

ARTICLES of incorporation of the Spring Creek Irrigation company have been filed with the county clerk. The object of the company is to own, control and manage the water of Spring creek, in Salt Lake county, and to use the same for agricultural and mechanical purposes. The capital stock is $10,000 divided into 100 shares of the par value of $100 each. The officers are: Joseph Bowe, president; Joseph Bowe is president and J. H. Brinton secretary and treasurer. Articles of incorporation of the Bingham & Cedar Valley company have also been filed. The object of the company is to carry on a general mercantile and manufacturing business. The capital stock is $10,000 divided into 100 shares of the par value of $100 each. The officers are: Thomas Bell, president; Walter P. Jennings, vice-president, and Joseph E. Caine secretary, treasurer and manager.

SALOONKEEPERS did a flourishing business yesterday (Sunday). In many instances front doors, side doors and back doors were found open, and in some cases men passed in and out. Policemen walked their beats as they are wont to do but made no arrests. Some of them say they had no order to do so. In a single hour one officer is said to have counted sixty-odd men in one saloon. "Why?" is said a prominent "Liberal" commenting on the disgraceful and illegal business this morning. "Is it worse sale of affairs never raised under the home administration of John M. Young, when it was conceded that Sunday was the busiest day on the city." Chief Paul admits that the Sunday home law is being regularly violated, but it is said he will make no arrests until after election.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

ELECTIONS IN FLORIDA.

Candidates in the Field—Republicans and Populists.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 3.—By the general election law passed in 1889, the State and county elections in Florida were separated from the national and congressional elections. This is the first year in which the separation clause of the new statute is operative. On Tuesday Florida elects a governor, secretary of state, one justice of the supreme court, attorney general, comptroller, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of agriculture. All the counties choose members of the lower house of the legislature and sixteen out of thirty-two senatorial districts choose State senators. All counties choose county officers. There are two full state tickets in the field, those of the Democrats and of the People's party. The former is headed by H. W. Mitchell, for governor; the latter, by Alonzo W. Rosser. The Prohibitionists have a candidate for governor, N. J. Hawley, but the party is not likely to poll over 500 votes in the entire state. The Republicans have no ticket in existence this year, either of national officers, congressmen, State or county officers. The reason is the alleged "Australian" ballot reform law passed by the Democratic legislature. An agreement is said to be entered into by which the Republican voters will be allowed to vote the People's party candidates, but as a general thing the Republicans are not qualified for election by registering and paying poll taxes.

THE FAMOUS DR. BRIGGS CASE.

The Trial Commenced This Morning Before the New York Presbytery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The famous case of Rev. Charles A. Briggs, of the Union Theological seminary, the charges of heresy against whom have been agitating the Presbyterian church a year and a half, came up this morning at the regular meeting of the New York Presbytery. The general assembly at the meeting at Portland, Oregon, last May, issued to accept the Presbytery's dismissal of the charges against Briggs, and ordered the Presbytery to proceed with the trial. Ex-President Hayes and other prominent members of the churches of Rev. G. W. F. Birch, J. J. Lampe, R. F. Campbe, and Edwin J. J. McCook and J. J. Stevenson.

E. S. DANN DYING.

A Bank Wrecker Pretendered by Sickness From Pleading in Court.

BUFFALO, Oct. 3.—Edward S. Dann the wrecker of the National Savings Bank, is lying at the point of death and has been unconscious for forty hours. He was to have gone into court this morning and plead guilty, but on account of his condition the court granted a postponement for one week. There are various rumors as to the cause of his illness, among which it is said he took poison for the purpose of suicide. The doctor refuses to say what the nature of the illness is. It is believed that he will not recover.

It is now learned that he is suffering from opium poisoning. He is still unconscious.

Peck's Case.

ALBANY, Oct. 3.—The court of sessions this afternoon overruled the motion of Labor Commissioner Peck that the indictment against him for barring public documents be quashed. Peck then demurred to the indictment on the ground that more than one crime was charged therein and that it was illegally found. The case was then adjourned until Thursday morning.

A Curious Story.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A cablegram is circulated to the effect that Great Britain, Germany and Italy, jealous of the advantage the Americans are about from to enjoy by the fall San Domingo have conspired to overthrow it. The action of Great Britain and Italy is not defined in the story, but it is said that Germany had offered Ulysses Heureux, the President of San Domingo, an annual bribe for life of $50,000 if he would declare the treaty suspended. The document goes further and has already submitted that these countries had made a demand on San Domingo in which they claim that under the clause of favorer treaties they were entitled to the most favored nation treatment.

The Reinstated Fight.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 3.—It is given out that the National Federation of Iron and Steel Workers have come to resignation that the fight at Homestead is one to death, and from now on all the energies will be bent toward making the fight successful. To this end all men who have been reinstated to support the strikers. Four men under arrest on the charge of treason have been released on bail. One more is arrested, but it is believed the remaining thirty-eight have fled.
