MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS.

AMONG THE STOCK BROKERS

They Had Little to Do on 'Change This Forenoon.

TRADING WAS VERY LIGHT.

Little Demand for High Class Stocks—Grand Central Slightly Stronger—The Quotations and Sales.

Trading on the floor of the stock exchange this forenoon did not amount to a great deal in the aggregate. The total selling value of the stock transferred was only $7,814.00.

The investment stocks did not participate very freely; brokers having few orders for this kind to fill. It was indeed, a quiet day in the pit and some of the brokers helped liven up things by indulging in a little "scalping" among themselves.

Con. Mercur showed no indications of improvement; notwithstanding the fact that all stock transferred now carries the 3 cents dividend, it has persisted in going downward. Grand Central exhibited a little more strength than usual this morning, and it was purchased at $5.12½ and $5.10. Little Bell was again in demand, while May Day continued active at about yesterday's quotations. A block of 2,000 shares of Martha Washington stock was dropped at 2⅞ cents.

On the open board Little Bell participated again at $3; Naildriver and Montana-Tonopah also registered among the sellers. One broker had an order for Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone, but was unable to fill it.

The quotations and sales posted were, as follows:

PLEASED WITH TONOPAH.

Frank H. Lathrop Tells of a New Nevada Strike.

Frank H. Lathrop, James T. Fulton and the rest of the Salt Lake contingent now in Tonopah, have written to friends here in tones which indicate that they are not disappointed with the bonanza camp and they express themselves that the chances for making a "cleanup" are exceedingly bright; and which their many friends at home hope will be fully realized.

Mr. Lathrop stated in his communication that a new strike was made a few days ago in the Tonopah mine and adds, "that it only assayed $2,600 to the ton."

Beautiful Foulards—an array of spring and summer fabrics never seen in Salt Lake in such varieties. Sweeping reductions. Come early.

OPENING UP NEW DISTRICTS

Interest Being Taken in Southern Nevada Camps.

ALONG SAN PEDRO RAILROAD

Several Outfits Sent Out From Salt Lake to Prospect a Region of Great Possibilities.

The announcement made recently that all doubt had vanished about the early completion of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake railway has aroused new interest in that vast mineralized region lying in the extreme southern portion of Nevada. Already prospectors are scouring the mountains in search of new bonanzas. Several outfits have been sent out from this city and others are being prepared to go forth to the new Eldorado, which has suddenly become an attractive field for investigation. Stretching from Ploche and following the line of the proposed route over into California is an undeveloped country of great possibilities in a mining way. This fact has been realized for years; but it has never been given serious consideration for the reason of its isolation from transportation lines. Some of the districts are known to contain vast bodies of low grade ores, which, without railroad facilities, cannot be made to pay.

But the completion of the San Pedro line will make this region accessable and the next few years will no doubt witness a wonderful transformation and the building up of a good many prosperous mining camps.

One of the first districts to be benefited by the new railroad will be Searchlight, which has developed into quite a prosperous camp, having a population of over 600 people. The district is situated just this side of the California state line and not far from Manrel, the terminus of a Santa Fe branch line of railway in San Bernardino county.

In picturing a comparison between the two camps—Searchlight and Tonopah—a Los Angeles paper said recently:

"So far as the state of Nevada goes, attention is pretty fairly divided between Tonopah, in the central portion of the state, and Searchlight, in the southern portion of it. There is, however, one great difference between the two camps. While the ore of Tonopah carries some proportion of gold, it is essentially a silver camp, while Searchlight is a gold one, the ore, taking the camp all through, showing higher averages in gold values than have been allotted to most mining camps yet discovertd. And moreover, the ore bodies are not streaky; the lodes are, as a rule, of good width with values from wall to wall."

THE DEXTER'S MILL.

Managing Director Lee Will Depart For Camp.

Managing Director E. O. Lee expects to depart for the Dexter mine at Tuscarora, Nevada, during the next few hours.

Before returning he will see that the mill is started up again. The plant will be ready to go by the time he reaches camp.

COLUMBUS CON. ORE.

Three Shipments Have Reached the Local Markets.

The Columbus Consolidated has three lots of ore on today's market. They were turned out of the Pioneer sampler at Sandy yesterday afternoon.

The Pioneer plant is now in operation and although not all of the heavy machinery is quite in place, enough has been installed to take care of the Alta producers, who have been making deliveries of ore during the past few days.

ANOTHER CONTRACT LET.

Bingham - Centennial Directors Are Pushing Work.

At a meeting of the directors of the Bingham-Centennial Mining company, held yesterday, a contract was let to drive the main tunnel 100 feet further into the mountain.

The tunnel has been completed to the distance of 330 feet in which is disclosed some very fine milling ore, also a good showing of high grade ore.

Manager Jacobson said today that the mine would be shipping in the near future.

The driving of the tunnel the additional 100 feet, the manager says, will tap another important chute. Work is to be prosecuted vigorously.

WEATHER AT ALTA.

Albion Air Compresors to Start Again Shortly.

William Hatfield, manager of the Albion mine at Alta, will depart for camp within the next few days. He was in receipt of a telephone message from Alta this forenoon in which the man on the other end of the wire informed him that the weather is almost perfect in the Alpine peaks of the Wasatch, and that the snow has commenced melting rapidly, but it is still very deep and in some places about the property it is as much as 16 feet.

A sufficient flow of water is in the streams to supply the power plant and it will be placed in commission again in a few days.

With the big air compressors in operation rapid progress will be made with the exploration of the mine, which in all probability wil come forward at the end of the year with a good record of shipments.

ELY GETTING ACTIVE.

Outlook for Nevada Camp is Exceedingly Bright.

Three teams loaded with machinery for the Fortuna Grande Copper company operating the mines at Pilot Knob the most prominent of which is the Old Glory, where the Giroux shaft is situated, will arrive from Toano today, says the White Pine News.

The machinery consists of a new 60-horse power boiler, a large hoisting engine, a large pump with a 7-inch discharge, 200 feet of seven inch pipe and several hundred feet of four-inch steam pipe, all of which will be placed in operation on the Giroux shaft as rapidly as the smelter machinery upon the property can be removed and replaced by the new.

When everything shall have been placed in running order, the shaft, which has now reached the 350-foot level, will be continued to the 600-foot mark before the work of developing and blocking out the immense bodies of copper-sulphide ore opened up in the drifts on the 300-level, will be attempted.

With this property in full operation by the first of May and the resumption of work by the White Pine Copper Co. on the Ruth group at about the same time, to be followed by extensive developments of the New York & Nevada Copper company on their Copper Flat holdings, that portion of the district will witness greater developments and more actual productive work than it has ever known before. And with the McKinley company operating on this end of the belt, and the possible resumption of work on the Chainman, the entire camp presents a brighter outlook for the coming summer than it has ever seen before.

Joe Dailey Officers Elected.

At the annual election participated in yesterday by the shareholders of the Joe Dailey Mining Co., the following directors were re-elected: J. M. Higley, G. C. Elmer, William S. Horne, Albert Preece, A. D. Woolley and Roy Elmer. At a meeting of the directors they were organized with Mr. Higley as president; Mr. Elmer as vice president; G .G. Elmer as treasurer, and A. D. Woolley, secretary. The company has arranged for the use of the old Undine tunnel with which to continue the exploration of its territory.

On the Comstock.

The old Comstock lode in Nevada is not so dead as some people imagine. Twenty-three mines are in operation there at the present time.

DOWN IN LONDON AND NEW YORK

Everything in the Market Made Slight Losses.

EFFORT TO EXTEND THEM.

Encountered Strong Opposition Causing a Rally—Confident Buying of R. R. Stocks Received a Check.

New York, April 24.—American stocks in the London market led the way in a declining tendency to which there was a decided response in the opening dealings here. Not only the international stocks, but the whole list receded a fraction on considerable trading. Some effort was made to extend the decline, but the movement encountered opposition and the market rallied. Manhattan's rise to 142 helped the market, but the depression of the southern group, notably Illinois Central, checked any confident purchases of the railroad stocks. Illinois Central, Toledo, St. Louis & Western and Sloss-Sheffield declined 1¾@2. Prices were inclined to droop from the inactivity of the market, but the movement was slight. St. Louis-Southwestern declined ½, General Electric 1, and Lake Erie & Western a point. The market hardened a shade before noon.

Bonds were irregular.

Traders did not attempt to push the rise much further after the market had recovered to about yesterday's close. Prices yielded slightly from the 10 o'clock level. Smelting was lifted a point, Pullman 4½ and International Power 1¼.
