Ellen Gould; Saral and Edward Walk, O'Leary had made 124 miles.

The question is asked, Why is the Si.25 per acre, required on pre-empting these railroad lands, to be paid ting these railroad companies if they do not own the soli? Here is the answer. The lands in question were given to them by the Government, but subject to certain conditions. One of which was that at the end of three years after the entire completion of their roads, all the land which they were allowed to sell up to that time, should be thrown open to pre-emption at $1.25 per acre, the panies had three years in which to Hannah, Affee, Emma, Hannah, make the best sale they could, at such prices as they could ensure, but when that time expired, although they still held their claim on the fands, the Gosenment, for the benefit of the thoughand landless people seeking for somesteds, retained sufficient control to specify

These lands, then, that have been purchased since July 15, 1872, may be considered as still open to pre-amption. These who are in possession of them should therefore take steps to secure their title. How can this be done? At present each of them, just as though they were unoccupied public lands.
