DIRECT LEGISLATION BY THE PEOPLE.

May Propose Laws or Veto Laws Not Passed by Two-Thirds Vote.

WILL DECIDE IN 1900.

Proposed to Amend Constitution by Giving to People the Right Called "Initiative and Referendum."

The final disposition of the matter contained in the substitute for House Joint Resolution No. 5, by Mr. Smith, will not be known till after the next general election, in the fall of 1900. The measure proposes to give to the people the right to initiate any legislation or to vote any law that did not pass the Legislature by a two-thirds majority, passed both houses of the last Legislature, and now awaits the vote of the people, at the next general election, to determine whether or not they desire to have the power which the contemplated amendment proposes to give them. The measure is given below in full. It is entitled, "A resolution proposing amendments to sections 1 and 22 of article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Utah, relating to direct legislation by the people."

Be it resolved and enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah, two-thirds of all the members elected to each house thereof concurring thereto:

Section 1. That section 1 of article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Utah, be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislative power of the State shall be vested:

1. In a Senate and House of Representatives which shall be designated the Legislature of the State of Utah.

2. In the people of the State of Utah, as hereinafter stated:

The legal voters or such fractional part thereof, of the State of Utah as may be provided by law, under such conditions and in such manner and within such time as may be provided by law, may initiate any desired legislation and cause the same to be submitted to a vote of the people of said legal subdivision for approval or rejection, or may require any law or ordinance passed by the lawmaking body of said legal subdivision to be submitted to the voters thereof before such law or ordinance shall take effect.

Sec. 2. Also that section 22, of article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Utah be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 22. The enacting clause of every law shall be, "He it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah," except such laws as may be passed by the people of the State of Utah. No bill or joint resolution shall be passed, except with the assent of the majority of all the members elected to each house of the Legislature, and after it has been read three times. The vote upon the final passage of all bills shall be by yeas and nays, and no law shall be revised or amended by reference to its title only; but the law to be revised, or section as amended, shall be re-enacted and published at length.

Sec. 3. The secretary of State is hereby ordered to cause this proposition to be published in at least one newspaper in every county of the State where a newspaper is published, for two months immediately preceding the next general election.

Sec. 4. This proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this State at the next general election for their approval or rejection. The official ballot used at said election shall have printed thereon, "for the amendment to sections 1 and 22, article 6, of the Constitution, etc.," and "against the amendment to sections 1 and 22, article 6 of the Constitution, etc.," and such designation of title as may be provided for by law. Said ballots shall be received and said vote shall be taken, counted, canvassed, and returns thereof be made in the same manner and to all reports as is provided by law in case of the election of State officers.

A MOCK TRIAL.

The Defendant Wins in Action Brought Against Him.

Last evening the mock branch of preadec trial occurred at the Templeton lecture hall. Eva Hudson was plaintiff and Roy Midgley defendant. Miss Hudson sued for $10,000 as the value of her wounded affections. The attorneys for the plaintiff were Joseph Maycock, Alexander Fowler and B. W. Cross; Mr. Cross being absent, for the defendant, Geo. A. Smith, L. R. Horton and Roscoe Hardley. G. H. Hackney acted as judge, John Henderson bailiff and W. E. Maddison, clerk of court.

The crowd of spectators was the largest ever seen at the building, 1,125 the ushers of the bailiff put a temporary embargo on the numbers to be admitted. "Hear Ye." The jury having previously been impanelled, nothing was left but the examination of witnesses. Attorney Maycock charged that the allegations on the "other side" were supported by the testimony of the plaintiff only. Attorney Smith waived his right to speak, because, said he, counsel for plaintiff had made an argument for defendant.

All the evidence being in the jury retired to render a verdict. While they were out the audience were entertained by two selections on the piano by Mrs. C. E. Stewart, and a recitation by Mrs. Stewart. The jury decided in favor of the defendant and tendered him leave to marry as soon as convenient.

KIPLING WAS FRIGHTENED.

A great deal has been said about Mr. Kipling's eccentricities and his reluctance to mingle with people, even his admirers. Those who know him well tell me this is due entirely to diffidence; that he is as hearty as a country boy and is never himself in the presence of strangers. Two weeks ago a prominent author by name of New York, who is the lion hunt of literary people, invited him to a dinner, and he went with his wife, expecting to be treated like the ordinary guests. When he arrived, however, to his horror and amazement, he found the dinner was without company of his own peers, that had been set to honor, and that he was expected to occupy a conspicuous position before the audience while the entertainment was going on. He embarrassed decline to do so, and with an abruptness which his hostess and the other guests considered very rude, bolted from the house and went home. Of course, his behavior caused a sensation, but his intimate friends say he was simply frightened, strangely, because, remember it was of the reputation of genius.—Chicago Record.

DAIRY AND FOOD SANITARY LAWS.

Three Measures Thereon Were Passed by Late Legislature.

PURE FOOD TO DAIRY CATTLE

Provisions Against Tuberculosis and Other Diseases of Animals—Dairy and Food Commissioners.

Three sanitary laws intended to encourage the purity and freedom from disease germs of the dairy products of the State were passed by the late legislature. They were all drawn by Mr. Smith, and were known as House bills Nos. 61, 62, and 63. The first is entitled, "An act to prevent persons selling or purchasing milk, butter or cheese, from feeding cattle having tuberculous or other contagious or infectious diseases, and is as follows:

Section 1. No person selling, exchanging, furnishing or delivering milk or dairy products shall have in his possession, or any place where such cows are kept, any cattle having tuberculous or other infectious or contagious disease.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the dairy and food commissioner of this State, if he finds that any such cattle are kept in violation of the provisions of this act, to cause all such cattle having any such contagious or infectious disease, to be killed.

Sec. 3. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect upon approval.

The second bears the title "An act to prevent the feeding of unwholesome food to dairy cattle, and providing a penalty therefor," and reads:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah:

Section 1. No dairyman or other person selling milk, butter or cheese, shall feed dairy cattle, or keep on his premises for the purpose of feeding the same, any swill, brewers' mash, vinegar mash, distillery spents or other food which is in any way injurious to milk, or whose unwholesome or unhealthy nature.

Sec. 2. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect upon approval.

The third has the title, "An act to amend section 2447, chapter 7, title 61, Revised Statutes of Utah, 1898, relating to the duties of the dairy and food commissioner," and reads:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah:

Section 1. That section 2447, chapter 7, title 61, Revised Statutes of Utah, 1898, be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2447. It shall be the duty of the commissioner and he is hereby invested with the powers to enforce all laws that now exist or that may hereafter be enacted in this State regarding the production, manufacture, or sale of dairy and creamery products or the adulteration of any article of food or drink or any drug, and regarding the use of skimmed or adulterated milk and the feeding of unwholesome food to cattle and the keeping of cattle having infectious or contagious diseases, and said commissioner is empowered, and he or his deputy inspect any article of milk, butter, cheese, meat, vegetables, lard, syrup, coffee, tea or any other article of food or drink made or offered for sale within this State which he may suspect or have reason to believe to be impure, unhealthy, adulterated or counterfeit. And said commissioner shall personally or by his deputy, when complaint is made of the violation of any law relating to the feeding or keeping of cattle for the purpose of feeding, any wholesome food for cattle, or the keeping of cattle affected with any infectious or contagious disease, immediately investigate said charge and shall at once prosecute any person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or association, for any violation of the laws of this State which it is the duty of said commissioner to enforce.

DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Meeting Will be Held in This City on April 6th and 7th.

The following letter of interest to dairymen, has been received with request for publication:

Logan, March 21, 1899.

To the Dairymen of Utah:

It has been decided to hold the next meeting of the Utah Dairymen's association in Salt Lake on the 6th and 7th of April, thus taking advantage of the conference which will then be held. The program are not yet decided, but sufficient speakers have promised to be present to make a very interesting session, a session that could not fail to profit those who attend. The object of the meeting is to discuss matters, to give and impart information on issues relating to dairy work, on the farm and in the factories. This we may be better prepared to pursue our work and attain greater enjoyment and greater profit therefrom.

It has been thought that it would be a good idea, if at this time, had an exhibit of dairy products, butter and cheese. To this end subscriptions for premiums, prizes and awards have been secured from the committee, but will be given a separate class.

Those who wish to exhibit butter or cheese should write or call to the secretary of the association, who will be glad to receive entries and give information and instructions. Entries will be received from the committee, but will be given a separate class.

Those who wish to exhibit butter or cheese should write or call to the secretary of the association, who will be glad to receive entries and give information and instructions. Entries will be received from the committee, but will be given a separate class.

Secretary Utah Dairymen's Ass'n.

CAPTURED LETTERS.

Written for Aguinaldo Fell into Hands of American Forces.

Washington, March 23.—The capture of Colonel Lopez, the Filipino Secretary of Labor, by the United States forces has resulted in the confiscation of considerable mail addressed to the Filipino leader, and it becomes a matter of interest to Aguinaldo and other leaders and brings to some Filipinos here from the Philippines official mails, which have reached Hong Kong, and have forwarded some of this mail to Adjutant General Corbin.

The letters addressed to Aguinaldo's alleged secretary of the treasury, and to a reply to a request for money, are in the hands of Major Sanders, chief of staff at Lingayen, Luzon, to whom the originals had intrusted the duty of "converting" the merchants, and he had successfully exchanged for them, "great values a lot of boxes, also bottles, to a Chinese company. Have asked for 100 more, the good to arrive. Regarding the money, the only security we have that only $1,500 had come into his hands and that amount he had paid to the troops, who were clamoring for money. The letter is written in very fair Spanish.

Apparently Aguinaldo's treasury officials are running short of money, for the understanding of the leader is made up of a sheet of paper, which he evidently took out of a vessel book, and it was tied about with a fragment of Manila hemp. A translation of the letter follows:

"No. 15. This government is in receipt of deposits No. 1 from the treasury department under your worthy control, relating to the immediate covering into the treasury of the proceeds of the sale of the copper in the mount Sibuc of the Compania Calcadora (tobacco company), and I can do no more than to inform you that the local government which was ordered to take the proceeds of said sale has paid into the provincial treasury $1,500, which sum is already distributed among the soldiers of the provincial battalion, and that, under date of the 6th instant, I informed you that the provincial treasury had no funds, by reason of said battalion. I begged your department to send funds. I again beg you to take the proper steps to prevent the complaints of the soldiers, that keep you for many years. Signed at Lingayen, January 18, 1899.

QUIRINO ELAZAR,
Secretary of the Treasury of the Island.

Another captured letter received by the postoffice department was sent from the provincial government at Antipolo. Addressed to Aguinaldo's secretary of the interior, in which he apologized for not being present at Malolos at the proclamation of the constitution, assigning as a reason that the telegram commanding his presence, though dated January 21st, only reached him January 23rd, two days too late. To atone for his promise he says he ordered all the local municipal presidents to get up demonstrations and cry "Long live Filipino Independence and down with annexation." This is signed by Gov. Jose Bilorna, governor of Antipolo.

Some interrupted letters to Aguinaldo himself have also come into the possession of the postoffice department.
