ALL WILL BE THERE.

What is the Outlook for the Forty-Four Bills.

AND THE FOUR TERRITORIES.

In the State Table that is Being Compiled by John H. Wilson—Some Results.

Today the largest place in Utah is the office of John H. Wilson, who is compiling the data on which to judge the fate of the forty-four bills passed by the last Legislature of the State of Utah, relative to Little Rock, Arkansas. It was a beautiful piece of a tropical paradise—but one—oh Cuban wine, eighteen miles long and one inch wide. All the same time Mr. Wilson received a number of notes in response to his communications to the various state governors, which will close tomorrow night. Some of these have been received, and are given herewith.

OKLAHOMA.

Governor Wm. C. Renfrow's reply is given in the following, dated Guthrie, Oklahoma:

Sir—The governor directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th inst., and in reply you may inform him that we intend to be represented at the meeting of the twelve wise men.

Very truly yours,
[illegible],
Private Secretary.

STATE OF WASHINGTON.

The executive department letter from Olympia, Washington, reads as follows:

Dear Sir—In compliance with your request of the 25th inst., I forward by express my opinion of Washington.

Very respectfully,
H. C. McDonald,
Private Secretary.

IDAHO.

Governor McConnell writes from Boise:

Dear Sir—I have your letter of the 25th inst. Idaho adopted the metric system of weights and measures in this city, which will doubtless comply with your request.

Very sincerely yours,
M. J. McConnell.

OHIO.

The letter from Columbus, O., reads:

Dear Sir—Governor McKinley directs me to say in reply to yours of the 25th inst. he will endeavor to send you some wind from Ohio for the purpose you mention.

Very respectfully,
Jas. Boyle,
Private Secretary.

ARKANSAS.

The state commissioner, bureau of labor, manufacture and statistics, writes from Little Rock, Ark.:

Dear Sir—Your letter (Mr. Davis, to Governor Clark) requesting a piece of hard wood, etc., has been referred to the bureau for reply. We send you today by mail a very handsome piece of hard oak (or is it log, which we hope will answer your purpose. In the name of the governor,

Very respectfully,
W. G. Vincenheller,
Commissioner.

VIRGINIA.

This letter from Richmond, Va., is from a builder and carpenter in that city:

Dear Sir—At the request of Governor C. L. Terrell I note what is for one piece of native oak (hope it will do the purpose that you wanted to use it for.

Very respectfully,
Jas. Tucker.

CALIFORNIA.

The responses from the Golden Gate state are two from Sacramento, one by Governor Budd's executive secretary:

Dear Sir—Yours of April 25th to hand, and have entered your request for a "wheel barrow of the best hard wood" sent you to the state commission, J. J. Crawford, San Francisco, California, and no doubt you will receive the desired information in due time.

Sincerely yours,
J. M. Fouser,
Executive Secretary.

And one from the governor's private secretary:

Dear Sir—Yours to hand and the same has been referred to A. J. Crawford, state commissioner, San Francisco, California, with the request to comply with same.

Yours truly,
J. L. Logan,
Private Secretary.

The third is dated at San Francisco, where the state commissioner's office is located:

Dear Sir—With this you will receive a piece of native hard wood, California, for the purpose you desire. This is sent by request of his excellency, James Budd, governor of California, in answer to your letter of March 25.

Trusting it may get you what you want, we remain respectfully yours,

Respectfully,
Henry E. Brown,
Commissioner of Horticulture, State Board of Horticulture, San Francisco, Cal.

KENTUCKY.

From Frankfort, Ky., Governor Brown writes:

Dear Sir—Your letter of the 25th inst. to hand. We have no such material as a piece of hard wood in this state, but we will endeavor to send you some other material that will answer your purpose. Let us know if it does not meet your wishes.

Very respectfully,
John Lindsey,
Private Secretary.

NEW JERSEY.

The Governor of New Jersey responded by commissioner to the state congress, who responds as follows:

Dear Sir—Your favor of the 25th inst. addressed to Governor Werts, requesting a piece of hard wood, etc., has been referred to the undersigned, and I have to state that we have no such material. The Governor begs you to excuse him, and wishes you success in your undertaking.

Very respectfully,
A. S. Gould,
Secretary.

MICHIGAN.

Governor Alger writes: Mr. Wilson's request to Mr. Alger was referred to Adjutant Gen. Shaw, which further reads:

Dear Sir—Your favor of the 25th inst. to the Governor of Michigan is received. A piece of hard wood is not in demand here, so that we have no material very well, which we have will answer for the purpose intended.

Yours very,
Benjamin Shaw, Adjutant General.

Thus far there are 38 in all, more than half of those asked to contribute or to the states and territories have not been received answers, and it is expected that all will be heard from within a short time.

THE LATE DR. GROVER'S WILL.

It Has Been Filed for Probate—The Chief Bequest.

In the probate court, late yesterday afternoon, the will of the late Dr. Grover, of this city, was placed on file. The executors named therein are Franklin S. Richards and James L. Little, to whom petition is set forth that the property of the deceased consists of a part of lot 3, block 15, plat A, of the Salt Lake City survey, part of lot 3, block 10, plat A, $20,000; Clear Water farm, Emery county, Utah, valued at $700, and personal property, consisting of stocks, notes, etc., of the probable value of $30,000.

The principal legatee of the will is not to inherit.

I hereby give and bequeath to St. Mark's Hospital five hundred dollars.

I give and devise all my real property wherever situated to my partners Franklin S. Richards and James L. Little, as trustees, their successors and assigns, and authorize and direct them to sell and dispose of the same wherever in their judgment it can be done most advantageously, and as soon as practicable, and to divide the proceeds of the sale of said property to the purchase of a hospital site in Salt Lake City or vicinity, always to be known as the "Dr. Grover Lutheran Helena Hospital." The title to said hospital to be vested in a board of trustees of a corporation to be organized as my death shall the carrying out of my intention and desire to make the same a permanent and complete institution for all future time, and it shall always be under the direction and management of the person who succeeds the Presiding Bishopric of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Franklin S. Richards shall be one of the trustees or directors of said hospital and Dr. Joseph S. Richards shall act as one of the trustees or directors of said hospital and he shall be the medical director at the same, as long as he lives. It is my wish that all of my relatives shall be interested this money and the entire proceeds thereof used for the entertainment, and to amuse and personal gratification of said hospital.

"I give, bequeath and devise all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, after payment of my debts, funeral expenses, expenses of my last sickness, executor's fees and expenses of administration of my estate, which shall be paid out of my personal property, to my brother and sister, namely: John Grover, of Dayville, Columbia county, New York; Mary Cook, of Binghamton, Broome county, New York, and Sarah Bragg, of South Evanston, Cook county, Illinois, to equal shares.

"But the legacy (Dockett's) and all persons who are not named in the will, no matter what the reason may be."

Here's the Verdict.

The condemnation suit of the Great Salt Lake & Hot Springs Railway company vs. Wilde & Sons company mentioned by Judge Merritt in our late yesterday afternoon with a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for the land upon payment to the defendants of $401.25, divided as follows: Value of the land actually taken, $135.75; damages along the track to be paid for by plaintiffs, $75; damage to residue of land, $177.50.

Cycling.

The Salt Lake Cycling company has filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk, with a capital stock of $15,000, divided into 1,500 shares of the par value of $10 each. Oscar Grotzell is president and treasurer and Charles A. Eaton vice-president and secretary.

He's in the Asylum.

Mrs. M. E. Bourgard, wife of Lodovico Bourgard, an inmate of the asylum at Provo, has applied for letters of guardianship. Bourgard was a soldier in the Federal army and as such is entitled to a pension, which fact necessitates taking for this application. May 11 was set as the date for hearing.

Will Emerge from the "Pen."

The following prisoners will be discharged from the penitentiary during the month of May:

May 8th—James Sylvester, sent up from the Third district court on February 19, 1891, eighteen months for burglary; William Oakey, sent up from the First district court on March 30, 1894, sixty days for fornication; John McKellar, sent up from the First district court on October 18, 1894, eight months for assault.

May 10th—Frank Stewart, sent up from the Third district court on December 20, 1892, five years for burglary.

May 8th—E. Grant Hudson, sent up from the Third district court on September 21, 1894, nine months for assault.

May 11th—Charles Allen, sent up from the Third district court on September 21, 1894, nine months for assault.

May 12th—Nelse Hunt, sent up from the Third district court on September 20, 1894, one month for assault.

May 12th—W. S. Rea, sent up from the Third district court on September 21, 1894, nine months for assault.

May 14th—C. F. Carter, sent up from the Third district court two years for burglary.

May 14th—Charles Miller, sent up from the Third district court on February 21, 1893, three years for burglary.

The Polygamy Slice Up.

In the Third district court the eight men who were convicted by Chief of Police Paul, selling under order issued by Judge Cannon, in August, last, have now been acquitted by the jury. Mr. Rich, attorney for the defendants, in open court, yesterday, moved for a dismissal of the cases, which was granted by the court. The defendants were Thomas Hodgson, Thomas Hodgson, Jr., Thomas Hodgson, third, Thomas Hodgson, fourth, Thomas Hodgson, fifth, Thomas Hodgson, sixth, Thomas Hodgson, seventh, and A. C. Pratt.

Suicide.

Governor Alexander received from Mr. Wilson's request to Mr. Alger, a letter from Adjutant Gen. Shaw, which further reads:

Dear Sir—Your favor of inquiry of 25th inst. to the Governor of Michigan is received. A piece of hard wood is not in demand here, so that we have no material very well which we have will answer for the purpose intended.

Yours very,
Benjamin Shaw, Adjutant General.

Thus far there are 38 in all, more than half of those asked to contribute or to

THE PURCHASE OF THE TEMPLE LOT.

Its Has Been Filed for Probate—The Chief Bequest.

In the probate court, late yesterday afternoon, the will of the late Dr. Grover, of this city, was placed on file. The executors named therein are Franklin S. Richards and James L. Little, to whom petition is set forth that the property of the deceased consists of a part of lot 3, block 15, plat A, of the Salt Lake City survey, part of lot 3, block 10, plat A, $20,000; Clear Water farm, Emery county, Utah, valued at $700, and personal property, consisting of stocks, notes, etc., of the probable value of $30,000.

The principal legatee of the will is not to inherit.

I hereby give and bequeath to St. Mark's Hospital five hundred dollars.

I give and devise all my real property wherever situated to my partners Franklin S. Richards and James L. Little, as trustees, their successors and assigns, and authorize and direct them to sell and dispose of the same wherever in their judgment it can be done most advantageously, and as soon as practicable, and to divide the proceeds of the sale of said property to the purchase of a hospital site in Salt Lake City or vicinity, always to be known as the "Dr. Grover Lutheran Helena Hospital." The title to said hospital to be vested in a board of trustees of a corporation to be organized at my death for the carrying out of my intention and desire to make the same a permanent and complete institution for all future time, and it shall always be under the direction and management of the person who succeeds the Presiding Bishopric of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Franklin S. Richards shall be one of the trustees or directors of said hospital and Dr. Joseph S. Richards shall act as one of the trustees or directors of said hospital and he shall be the medical director at the same, as long as he lives. It is my wish that all of my relatives shall be interested this money and the entire proceeds thereof used for the entertainment, and to amuse and personal gratification of said hospital.

"I give, bequeath and devise all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, after payment of my debts, funeral expenses, expenses of my last sickness, executor's fees and expenses of administration of my estate, which shall be paid out of my personal property, to my brother and sister, namely: John Grover, of Dayville, Columbia county, New York; Mary Cook, of Binghamton, Broome county, New York, and Sarah Bragg, of South Evanston, Cook county, Illinois, to equal shares.

"But the legacy (Dockett's) and all persons who are not named in the will, no matter what the reason may be."

Here's the Verdict.

The condemnation suit of the Great Salt Lake & Hot Springs Railway company vs. Wilde & Sons company mentioned by Judge Merritt in our late yesterday afternoon with a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for the land upon payment to the defendants of $401.25, divided as follows: Value of the land actually taken, $135.75; damages along the track to be paid for by plaintiffs, $75; damage to residue of land, $177.50.

Cycling.

The Salt Lake Cycling company has filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk, with a capital stock of $15,000, divided into 1,500 shares of the par value of $10 each. Oscar Grotzell is president and treasurer and Charles A. Eaton vice-president and secretary.

He's in the Asylum.

Mrs. M. E. Bourgard, wife of Lodovico Bourgard, an inmate of the asylum at Provo, has applied for letters of guardianship. Bourgard was a soldier in the Federal army and as such is entitled to a pension, which fact necessitates taking for this application. May 11 was set as the date for hearing.

Will Emerge from the "Pen."

The following prisoners will be discharged from the penitentiary during the month of May:

May 8th—James Sylvester, sent up from the Third district court on February 19, 1891, eighteen months for burglary; William Oakey, sent up from the First district court on March 30, 1894, sixty days for fornication; John McKellar, sent up from the First district court on October 18, 1894, eight months for assault.

May 10th—Frank Stewart, sent up from the Third district court on December 20, 1892, five years for burglary.

May 8th—E. Grant Hudson, sent up from the Third district court on September 21, 1894, nine months for assault.

May 11th—Charles Allen, sent up from the Third district court on September 21, 1894, nine months for assault.

May 12th—Nelse Hunt, sent up from the Third district court on September 20, 1894, one month for assault.

May 12th—W. S. Rea, sent up from the Third district court on September 21, 1894, nine months for assault.

May 14th—C. F. Carter, sent up from the Third district court two years for burglary.

May 14th—Charles Miller, sent up from the Third district court on February 21, 1893, three years for burglary.

The Polygamy Slice Up.

In the Third district court the eight men who were convicted by Chief of Police Paul, selling under order issued by Judge Cannon, in August, last, have now been acquitted by the jury. Mr. Rich, attorney for the defendants, in open court, yesterday, moved for a dismissal of the cases, which was granted by the court. The defendants were Thomas Hodgson, Thomas Hodgson, Jr., Thomas Hodgson, third, Thomas Hodgson, fourth, Thomas Hodgson, fifth, Thomas Hodgson, sixth, Thomas Hodgson, seventh, and A. C. Pratt.

Suicide.

Governor Alexander received from Mr. Wilson's request to Mr. Alger, a letter from Adjutant Gen. Shaw, which further reads:

Dear Sir—Your favor of inquiry of 25th inst. to the Governor of Michigan is received. A piece of hard wood is not in demand here, so that we have no material very well which we have will answer for the purpose intended.

Yours very,
Benjamin Shaw, Adjutant General.

Thus far there are 38 in all, more than half of those asked to contribute or to

THE LATE DR. GROVER'S WILL.

It