DRAWING TO A CLOSE.

The International Convention of Christian Endeavorers.

THE PAY OF "CONSECRATION."

Rev. Hilling's Witty Allusions to the Financial Questions of the Present Time.

BOSTON, July 15.—Tonight the fourteenth international convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. came of the most successful meetings in the history of the society, will close.

The service today are to have a deeper religious feeling than any held since the first day of the convention, probably due to the subsiding of the excitement of the opening days and the instructive character of the exercises. "Consecration" was the principal subject of the day.

The attendance all morning at the meetings was as large as any day the last week. Addresses of President George A. Gates, D. D., and President Lyman D. Warfield, L. L. D., Easton, Pa., and Williston, were the features of the morning. The former spoke of the "consecration of educated life," and was followed by his great audience with close attention. President Warfield's address was on the "attraction of the ministry to educated men."

At last Endeavor the address by Robert E. Speer, of New York, on "missionary service," proved a great drawing card. Speer's great work in missionary fields has made a lasting impression among Christian endeavorers.

The morning meetings in both tents were conducted under the general title, "Leadership of the World for Christ."

At tent Williston and Mechanics' hall, encouraging reports concerning religious life in colleges were made, and in both tents and hall, the roll of honor, upon which were inscribed the names of unions where members have been able to give liberally to the cause, was simultaneously unrolled.

Rev. W. C. Hilling, New York, conducted a Bible exercise in Mechanics' hall; Rev. A. C. Peck, Denver, in Williston; Rev. Ira Landreth, Newton, in Endeavor.

The presentation of a banner to a local union for the best work in promoting systematic and proportionate giving was made at the Mechanic's building and tent Williston.

Rev. J. W. H. Stockenburg, Cambridge, Mass., delivered in the Mechanics' building an address on "Christian personality" that deserved special mention, and the same should be said of the addresses by Rev. A. P. Mills, D.D., of Springfield, Ills., and Rev. Wm. C. Poddistoe, of South Framingham, Mass. The praise and song services at the big meeting a week ago have been since the opening of the convention, full of snap, energy and earnestness. The aggregate attendance was about 25,000.

The regular noon evangelistical services attracted crowds.

REV. HILLING'S ADDRESS.

Rev. W. C. Hilling of New York said: Men have been crying "hard times." Here is the financial creed of the Christian Endeavor, which would, I believe, tend to relieve this distress among the broad winners of the great nation.

We believe a Christian living and giving are joined in holy union which man may divorce, that indulgence is not essential evidence of regeneration; that sorrow is the life of the gift; that consecrated gifts have a spiritual power and value, that the noblest use of wealth is to lay it at the feet of the Saviour.

We believe in a gold standard for those who have gold, and a silver standard for those who cannot do better, and a double standard for all. We believe in a ratio of 16 to 1 as the rate of increase of contributing to the church over that of last year.

The speaker then predicted for the church a great increase in the growth of the society, the church and all Christian work, both foreign and domestic. He concluded:

"I see such a wise economy of force and fund that no society is in the way of another, that the present waste of men and means is stopped, that the enemies now rivals will be allies. I see our present insularity changed by vast spiritual upheavals and the divided forces of thought and organization purified by a thousand lithuoses that make our hitherto isolated activities and archipelagos of denominationalism blending continental Christianity."

The section mentioned has had no rain for nineteen days. Correspondents report that the yield will not exceed six bushels in Parle and Swift counties and will be not little better in the same county. It is very dry in Chicago, Pipestone, Anoka counties, the Minnesota potato belt, and the yield of potatoes will be very small unless rain comes in the next three days.

Williams to Sweden.

BERLIN, July 15.—Political affairs will be in a quiescent state for the next six months, now that the Bundesrath and the Prussian Diet have adjourned after an almost barren session. In the meanwhile the emperor is having a good time in Sweden, where King Oscar and his family treat great pains to signalize their friendship for the German Emperor.

There was an impressive scene on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern on Tuesday last, when King Oscar bade farewell to Emperor William. The yacht was illuminated by a large number of fairy electric lamps. The monarchs, after conversing cordially, walked to the gangway, with King Oscar leaning upon Emperor William's shoulder. There was an affectionate leave-taking.

The Hohenzollern next week cruises along the coast of Norland, as far as Skeerwerd, and from thence an excursion to Lodal-sif will be made.

Pacific Cable Project.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 15.—Australian papers received by the Miowera announce that the premier of Victoria has asked the agent general of that colony to follow with regard to the Pacific cable scheme:

Impress upon the imperial government the extreme necessity of the Pacific cable project and urge an early meeting of the joint committee of representatives of the imperial government, Canada and the Australian colonies to arrange a definite plan subject to the approval of the governments interested, as stated by Sir Sandford Fleming in his letter of January last to the Canadian minister of trade and commerce. Secure all possible information as to construction and laying of the cable and endeavor to secure the cooperation of the majority concerned.

In reply to this the premier received a cablegram from Agent General Gillies stating that none of the other agents general had received instruction in response with him in urging the importance of the cable. The South Australian government alone has taken a stand on the question, and its attitude was seemingly hostile to the cable project.

The objection is joined that the estimates on the cable are very incomplete and unsatisfactory, and that a cable laying only British soil is a somewhat Quixotic proposition not likely to prove acceptable to the commercial world.

California Pioneer Dead.

PERDOM, Cal., July 15.—Cornelius Yager, one of the most noted of California's pioneers, died here last night. He was born in Kentucky in 1811 and was connected with some of the most prominent families in the state. Wealth all that he leaves behind he was one of the heirs of an estate in the county, valued at $3,000,000. The bulk of this was left by some of his relatives and now lies in the bank of Hamburg awaiting settlement.

Sealers' Ill Luck.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Ill luck continues to follow the sealers this year according to stories told by incoming sailors. The Karma Lomee which is cruising off the coast of Japan recently lost three boats in a storm, two of which were picked up by the Diamond and the other by the Dexters. The boats crew picked up by the Theresa had a terrible experience, as one of the men, best sleeper William Lloyd, was devoured by a shark. In addition to encountering bad weather the sealers are making poor catches.

Valuable Paintings Destroyed.

BALTIMORE, July 15.—A valuable collection of paintings and bronzes belonging to William Humphrey Knowles's was destroyed in the burning of his handsome house in the county of Baltimore. Mr. Knowles says his art treasures were the collections of memberry this family for the last three hundred years and included famous paintings, rare tapestries, mosaics and curiosities from all parts of the world. It was impossible for him to place a valuation upon them, but the collection had been roughly estimated to be worth $80,000. The house was insured but the art collection was not.

LOST IN THE FLAMES.

Reports from the Districts Visited by Forest Fires.

THOMPSONVILLE, Michigan, July 15.—Reports from the various districts in which the forest fires have been raging the past week, indicate that while the flames are spreading they are not so serious as they were. If rain comes today, of which there is every prospect, the danger will have passed. A careful estimate of the losses to settlers and lumbermen aggregate about $200,000. The people of Wallin, who are completely burned out, are in need of clothing. They have lost homes, clothing, everything except their lives, and are dependent upon charity for food and clothes. They are being provided for, but as the fire sufferers number over one hundred the village is sorely taxed. Most of them will go back to Wallin with the lumber company, which intends to rebuild its plant. As far as is known, not a life has been lost, though scores are suffering from serious burns incurred in fighting the flames. Live stock has suffered much and extensive damage has been done to standing timber, but much of this will be saved by immediate cutting.

Salt Lake Merchants Protest.

OMAHA, July 15.—Union Pacific receivers are receiving some emphatic protests from Salt Lake merchants on the new rates to Idaho and Montana from the Missouri river which the Union Pacific will put into effect Tuesday. The Salt Lake jobbers complain that the new rates will freeze them out of Idaho and Utah Territory and will let in the Omaha and Chicago jobbers. The jobbers say that the rate made to Salt Lake is also made to Ogden and other towns in Utah, and that merchants there can purchase direct from the Omaha jobber. To Idaho points on dry goods the rate is $525, and to Salt Lake $215. This shuts them out of Idaho to a great extent.

The jobbers have called the company's attention to this, and they are forming an organization and protesting against the rates. They claim it will make an annual difference to the Salt Lake jobbing trade of $1,000,000, and that it will ruin their business.

The O. R. & N. has come to the front with a new schedule of rates for the benefit of the eastern Oregon jobbers. The reductions are from eastern Oregon to Portland, and are sweeping in character.

Attention in England.

NEW YORK, July 15.—A dispatch to the Herald from London says:

The defeat of Sir William Harcourt is very likely to be followed by that of three other leading members of the Rosebery cabinet, Herbert Asquith, Campbell Bannerman and John Morley hold their seats by small majorities, and all the present indications are that close contests will be uniformly carried by the unionists. It is the English custom, when a party leader is beaten for some obscure supporter who has a safe seat to offer it to the defeated one. But this is always a loss of prestige to the leader who is repudiated by his own constituency.

The labor candidates at Saturday's elections, having no hope of their own success, cast the liberals three seats. In return, it is likely that Keir Hardie, the labor champion in the House, will be defeated by the abstention of the active hostility of the Irish voters in his constituency.

In Ireland the situation is deplorable. Of course there was the Redmond split to begin with and now Timothy Healy has fatally divided the McCarthyite party. The really patriotic Irish leaders today are hopeless. Sexton, the ablest of them, certainly will retire in disgust. Redmond, seeing in Healy's recent attack on his own association, is likely to capture two seats in Cork next Wednesday.

Will Sell the Horses.

NEW YORK, July 15. — At the Sheepshead Bay race track at 2 o'clock today, Auctioneer Easton will begin the disposal of the greatest racing stable on the American turf—Gideon and Daly's. Among the eighteen head catalogued for sale are a few that have not yet faced the flag, but the bulk of these are performers of the very highest class.

THE MORA AWARD.

Alleged Diplomatic Scandal Connected With the Claim.

FOSTER'S CONNECTION WITH IT.

A Supposed Scheme for the Transfer of Cuba to the United States.

NEW YORK, July 15.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: Spain's payment of the Mora claim, indicated by cable, will at last defeat the intrigues of American and foreign claim sharps. For years a coterie of diplomats at Washington and Madrid have sought to make the settlement of this historic award conditional on the acknowledgment of counter claims by the United States. The story of all this plotting to mulct the government of millions brings to light a serious diplomatic scandal and shows how the Mora claim has secretly been made to figure as an important incident in a scheme for securing the transfer of Cuba to the United States. Nathaniel Paige, the well known international lawyer, who for years has represented the Mora family, furnishes documents and letters which seem to throw a flood of light on the obstructions attempted to prevent the payment of the Mora award. Mr. Paige specifically charges ex-Secretary of State and ex-Minister to Spain John W. Foster with opposing the award. Mr. Foster has denied the charge and Mr. Paige now comes forward with papers which reclaims substantiate the charge. Mr. Paige, however, charges that several Spanish ministers to this country, as well as attaches of the French legation, obstructed the Mora interests and tried to induce him to prove claims they held and hold up the Mora claims.

Mr. Mora is living on west Sixty-third street, New York City, with his daughter.

Tailors Cause Strikes.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Delegates of the Brotherhood of Tailors from 400 shops, one from each shop, met last night in Walhalla hall to report the sentiments of their fellow workers regarding the proposed general strike. All the delegates reported that their employers had determined to resist the new agreement, and that the workers were in favor of striking. The meeting endorsed the strike and voted unanimously to place the full management of it in the hands of Meyer Schoenfeld, and the executive committee of the brotherhood.

For Murdering His Father.

NEW YORK, July 15. — William Starr Henry, who is accused of having murdered his father, Charles W. Henry, in Brooklyn, June 15th, will be arraigned in the Myrtle avenue police court before Justice Hagerty today. The police say they will present much more convincing evidence against Henry today than they did before the coroner's jury, which found that the old miser came to his death at the hands of some person or persons unknown to the jury.

District Attorney Ridgeway will conduct the prosecution and Foster L. Backus will appear for the accused son.

"FOLLY AND TREASON."

Resolutions Adopted by the Irish National Federation.

NEW YORK, July 15.—The New York council of the Irish National Federation of America met last evening in Cooper Union. Jeremiah B. Murphy presided. Resolutions were adopted, denouncing as idiotic folly, as covert treason, any suggestion of deserting the men who were fighting Ireland's foes. The meeting repudiated any yielding to faction whereby it will work in the future the same evil of division that it has in the past.

Job for the Swiss President.

NEW YORK, July 15.—A special to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: A correspondent in Rio de Janeiro telegraphs that the president of the Swiss republic will act as arbitrator between France and Brazil in the dispute question of the boundary limits of the territory of Amapo. Dr. Blanco will go to Geneva, Switzerland, on the part of Brazil.

Against the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern Railway Company.

ASBURY PARK, July 15.—The program prepared for this afternoon by the L. A. W. committee was an attractive one. Some of the best men of the L. A. W. remained to compete for prizes.

Extension of Time Granted.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 15.—The Interstate commerce commission today granted an extension of time within which the railroads may comply their cars with safety grab irons and car ladders on the ends and sides of cars, from July 1 until December 1, 1895. The time for complying with the act requiring the use of couplers of standard height on all cars has been extended until February 15, 1896.

Fatal Dose of Medicine.

WICHITA, Kas., July 15.—Near Clear Water, this county, Daniel Smith, a nineteen-year-old boy, died from an overdose of medicine. Being in ill health, his father got a patent medicine to regulate him. The boy had an aversion to medicine and was induced to take his father promised to give him a cent for every dose he would take. The boy went to where the medicine was and in his innocence took ten teaspoonfuls of it in order to get a dime. He died before medical attendance could be had.

Robels Visit Cleveland.

PITTSBURG, July 15.—A stranger registered at the St. James under the fictitious name of H. Forepaugh, Alabama, was in Santiago, Cuba, two weeks ago before the Spanish government got in force the rule requiring all foreigners on the island to carry passports. Mr. Forepaugh seems to be well acquainted with the movements of the insurgents. He stated that on the vessel by which he sailed from Cuba were thirty-three Cuban planters bound for Washington to interfere with the cabinet and the President lest the Cuban insurgents be recognized as belligerents by the United States. Some of the planters, Mr. Forepaugh says, went to Barnard's flag to see the President.

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS.

Official Actions with Persons Accused of Various Offenses.

Hiram L. Nelson, of this city, believes one is going to receive the return of his bicycle and also secure the conviction of the person who stole it on the 27th of June last. Mr. Nelson's wheel disappeared at that date, and he heard nothing of it until Saturday when it was discovered in the possession of a man named Henry Owen, on the road between Brigham City and Logan. Complaint was made against Mr. Owen, and he will be brought down to the city for a preliminary hearing before C. S. Critchlow, justice of peace. The fact remains that if this city, and if the accused did not commit the unlawful act, he will have opportunity to explain the transfer of the machine to him, and thus discover the guilty party.

J. H. Shineway is languishing in the penitentiary, having been registered there today on a commitment from U. S. Commissioner Pratt. Shineway is the man arrested at midnight on Friday evening, for attempting to take Elizabeth A. Hill's purse out of her pocket. He failed to find $50 bail required of him on a charge of attempting to commit grand larceny, and therefore will have time to ponder on some of the disadvantages which attend the pickpocket's career.

John Foulard, jailed on Saturday on the charge of embezzling some gold dust and Montana currency from Henry Ballring, was having his hearing before U. S. Commissioner Sonn on the afternoon.

Wm. Dilendorf, accused of obtaining goods under false pretenses, will have an inning in Judge Bennett's court at 10 a. m. tomorrow, when the prosecution will endeavor to prove guilt of the offense alleged.

Wm. Mullough is to come up before U. S. Commissioner Sonnet and a jury of six at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The defendant is accused of disturbing the peace of Perry E. Aiken, by coming at him with a shovel, calling him vile names, and threatening to kill him.

The Home Insurance Co.'s Deal.

The directors of the Home Fire Insurance company have just closed an arrangement with the Hartford Insurance company which cannot fail to be of decided advantage to the Home stockholders and holders of their insurance policies. The arrangement is the reinsuring by the Hartford of all the policies of the local company which have been taken in a short time, since the opening of the insurance war (on February) the contract further provides that the Hartford shall have a share of the future business of the Home company while rates are demoralized. By this it will be seen that the Home is to continue actively in business, all talk of a retirement is entirely unfounded.

President Heber J. Grant, of the Home company, states that the deal was in all ways satisfactory to the directors, as they were paid a good profit by the Hartford for the reinsurance of the Home's business, and the Home directors felt, the partnership arrangement which they had made for a month company like the Hartford to stand behind them, would be a good business move, appointed alike by the stockholders of the Home and the insuring public.

The Hartford was established in 1810. It has over eight million assets, a surplus over all liabilities of two and a half millions, and paid out in fire losses in 1894 about three and a half million dollars.

TRAVELERS' NOTES.

Indian Troubles No Interference With Yellowstone Tourists.

PREPARING FOR PIONEER DAY.

The Excursions to the Lake Resorts—Pleasures and Attractions for the Twenty-fourth.

The pedagogues who came in from the Denver convention, and who are desirous of going to the Yellowstone National Park but were deterred from purchasing tickets thereto in Colorado, owing to the reported Indian troubles at Jackson's Hole basin, have been reassured in this city that there is no danger of their scalps being subject to the red man's requisition, hence a goodly number have arranged here to proceed to the park at once. The story of Indian difficulties was greatly magnified, but this was not understood at the time of the first dispatches, hence the nervousness. Now, however, it is known that the trouble is practically all. In order to be on safe ground, however, the Union Pacific office has a telegraphed to learn the actual situation in the park where tourists would go to view the most interesting scenes, and last night received the following:

"No Indian trouble in the Yellowstone park. The trouble spoken of is in the Jackson's Hole country, 150 miles from where park tourists go. Parties going to the park via Idaho Falls and Beaver Canyon would not go within 75 miles of Jackson's Hole county on the route. Mr. Bassett says there is nothing in the Indian scare."

This statement is in accord with news from other sources, that there is practically no trouble. The park tourists, therefore, are feeling composed.

The week starting this week has excursions as follows: Nineteenth ward Tuesday, the 16th, Twenty-first ward Wednesday, 17th, and the Young Herald's band of West Jordan Thursday, the 18th.

The notable excursion of the week to Saltair is on Wednesday next, the 17th, the Relief Society outing.

The Salt Lake City railway carriers expected to accommodate an excursion on Thursday next. The Sixth ward Primary association will take that route for a day at Liberty Park.

The Twenty-fourth comes in next week with low rates on all the railways, in and out of the city. The Sanpitch stage goes to Ephraim, while railway is the special subject of excursions from north and south, as well as those from the city who desire a few delightful hours at the grandest and most commodious pavilion at any bathing resort in the world.

The visiting school teachers will disband in number after today, but during the week small parties will continue to arrive. Over 700 have been brought in by the D. & R. G. already. There were four sections of the R. G. W. teachers' train yesterday.

Beck's Hot Springs arrangements for a gala day on the Twenty-fourth are being carried out on an extensive scale. Of course the bicycle races are the great attraction, while crack riders from Colorado and California will make a test of the mettle of local bicyclers.

SHELBY JONES IN TROUBLE.

A Young Salt Laker Arrested in Butte on a Charge of Forgery.

E. Shelby Jones, says a special dispatch to the San Francisco Chronicle under date of the 12th inst., a young man twenty years of age, the son of wealthy and highly respected parents living in Salt Lake City, was arrested in Butte today on the charge of forgery. Jones has been cutting a wide swath in Butte lately, and yesterday forged the names of a well known firm to an order on a livery stable for a carriage, with which he went out driving with a dissolute woman. Today several similar forged orders turned up and his arrest followed.

THE CITY'S GUESTS.

Teachers From All Parts of the Country Being Well Entertained.

VISIT THE SALT LAKE SCHOOLS.

Many Go Out to Saltair and Garfield—Highly Pleased With What They Were Shown.

The members of the board of education, city teachers and citizens in general were exceedingly busy today in extending courtesies to the hundreds of pedagogues who are now visiting Salt Lake as a fitting aftermath to the great educational convention which they attended at Denver last week.

A very large number of the visitors, of course, shifted about and took care of themselves, but not a few accepted the invitation announced from the Tabernacle pulpit yesterday by President Dealy of the board of education and gathered at the board rooms in the joint city and county building at 9 o'clock this morning. They were greatly delighted and surprised at the size, beauty and massiveness of the structure. From it they went to the Opera, Lowell, Wasatch and other school buildings and would have visited most of the others but for the fact that there was not sufficient time.

The teachers who visited the schools were divided into two parties each accompanied by members of the board and persons in the service of the board as instructors. The whole of the forenoon was spent in this manner and the afternoon was given up to visiting Saltair and Garfield. The visitors were profuse in their thanks and expressions of surprise. They said they did not expect to see so many interesting and beautiful sights; so many fine school buildings and evidences of educational advancement. As one brilliant little lady said, "Why this is as good as anything we have in the East." "And" quickly supplemented another of the visitors, "much better than we have in many parts."

One street car train load of the visitors, who took a run out to the Warm Springs, was temporarily taken in hand by Dr. Kingsbury and other members of the Utah University faculty and visited that building and also the laboratory and lecture building on Second North street. It is estimated that there have been from twelve to fifteen hundred sojourners in Second North street. It is estimated that there have been from twelve to fifteen hundred sojourners in the city during the last few days. Tonight will witness the departure of a great many of them, some will go to the coast, others to Yellowstone Park, still others will make a direct wheel about here for home.

THE UTAH COMMISSION.

Five More County Registrars to Name, Among Them One for Salt Lake.

The Utah Commission will not meet again until Friday next. The time for the meeting is set for 9 o'clock a.m. and on that day it is expected that registrars and deputies will be supplied the remaining counties that have not been passed upon. These counties are Salt Lake, Summit, Utah, Weber and Juab.

Chairman Lorimer said today that there was no reason to doubt that a registrar for Salt Lake county would be appointed on that day. The deputies will in all probability be named at the same time.

CAPTURED A TENDERFOOT.

The Lock Game Sharpers Find Another Easy Victim Whom They Fleece.

A man who would not disclose his name called at the police station last evening and stated that he had been robbed of about $20. He said that his misfortune was caused by making a bet with two men who claimed to be teachers from the East and who wanted to see the sights. He met them near the Temple and consented to show them around and give them any information he could.

After viewing the Temple, Tabernacle and Assembly Hall, he accompanied them toward the stone tower on the hill within they said they wished to see. On the way up they "found" a lock which they each "unlocked." Then one of the strangers offered to bet the other that he could not unlock it but so he had brought to the office was made to the innocent guide who immediately bet and passed up his money. On this trial the lock refused to turn.

Detective Shoots took the matter in hand but has not been able to capture the sharpers as yet.
