LOCAL BRIEFS.

It was stated by County Attorney Parsons today that Peter J. Grant would be arraigned on the charge of unlawful cohabitation before Judge Zeppenfeld tomorrow or Saturday.

Superintendent Oscar Van Cott has called a meeting of the county school teachers for 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the Assembly Hall, Salt Lake City, at which time will be the first meeting of the season a full attendance of those interested is desired.

After four weeks' trial the Rev. Mr. Washburn decides that he does not care to make his home in this city, and will leave the pastorate of the Plymouth church, where he will succeed the pastor of the Tabernacle Congregational church of this city. This makes vacant again the pulpit of the Phillips Congregational church, and it is thought the place will be supplied by Rev. Mr. Gladden.

Rev. Joel S. Smith has been appointed pastor of the 5th M. E. church. He is a member of the Northwest Iowa conference and has been filling pulpits in the leading cities of Iowa for the past ten years. He came west to spend the summer and has been supplying the pulpit at Ellensburg, Wash., where he tendered a farewell sermon last Sunday and will preach two sermons during the day.

At 12:10 today L. M. Hinckley, a delivery boy for the California Fruit company, had a narrow escape from being run over by a Salt Lake City street car. As the young man was driving recently under the top transom of a door in the Dooly block, he was kicking exhibition by the use of which he seldom was outside of a Wild West show. The boy did not see the car coming, for had seen himself from the chaffer and the front part of the wagon was demolished.

The county jail now possesses a fine cabinet organ, which will in future be used at the regular Sunday services. It was used for the first time last Sunday by Mrs. Hutchings of the Rescue Home. Judge Thomas entertained the females the morning before with "Nearer My Father's Home" and "There's a Land that is Fairer than This," and the prisoners, with the exception of one or two, who care for music as detection, were moved to tears.

The attorney general at Washington has advised United States District Attorney C. A. Whitmore, of Utah, that he is not the old Utah statutes. As the question of the right of Utah to be a part of Market street, where the Federal building is to be located, is now, for the 3d, Whitmore has commenced all the elements connected with the transfer of the property to the government, it is thought the Government will be willing to accept a good title to the property. Only the transfer made to the city by Lewis Cohn is in question, many years ago.

The New Hide Boiling and F. Roberts Lily the first rather in the tennis championship on the Salt Lake City lawn yesterday afternoon, the game being called off at 6 o'clock, which will be the starting game. In yesterday's tournament, Miss Lily Roberts, who is now here from Ann Arbor, Mich., where she is a student, defeated Miss Hinckley, 6-1, 6-1, and Miss Ethel Roberts defeated Miss Hinckley, 6-1, and 6-4. A match between Miss Hinckley and W. C. Cornelius, J. F. Sharp and C. A. Ellis, was called off on the score card at Fifth street, the first game being 6-1 in favor of the Hinckley team.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Spencer informed yesterday from a trip to the Thousand Islands in the St. Lawrence River, where they spent the greater part of the time, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Dixon, Mrs. Dr. R. Lamoreaux, Mr. Spencer, Mr. Dixon and wife in the place of Mr. Spencer. Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Dixon are the sisters of Mr. Spencer. Mr. Spencer visited Toronto and will be the guest of Mr. Dixon during the next two weeks. Mr. Spencer visited Toronto and spoke the conversion of the N. Y. L. L.
