PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - APRIL 11, 1896

Garden City Notes.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Henry has returned from Uintah county. While there he arrested a man by the name of Curry, on the "charge" for selling liquor to Indians. Curry was taken over to await his action in the grand jury in $1,000 bonds, by Justice Vernon of Vernal. Mr. Henry reports very backward season in the Ashley country, where the farmers have just commenced their spring plowing, as the people had somewhat discouraged on account of all their root crops being killed by the frost last fall. The mining industry is expected to prove remunerative in that section in the near future, and a great amount of systematic development work is being done in the Blue Mountains, about thirty miles east of Vernal.

The Asylum Board, which should have met yesterday but postponed its meeting till Wednesday. It is considered that the following gentlemen have been selected to fill the five vacancies in their number: M. H. Hardy, member at-large; Joseph H. Ballard, Provo; stewards, Jno. Bennion and Geo. Bachman; secretary, Jno. Lyons. All of the gentlemen are well qualified for the positions, and the appointments, if made, will give general satisfaction.

At a meeting of the board of education held Tuesday it was decided to permit children under seven years of age to attend school for the ensuing term; but all the schools were crowded that the small children were compelled to remain at home.

Joseph Brown, the timekeeper of the first mines in the Lake district, has returned from a trip to the new mining district, and reports with the prospects for valuable mines being developed there in the near future.

The officers are out looking for James Wm. Cone, who broke into the Young Men's Co-op. in Spanish Fork, Tuesday morning, and stole several suits of wearing apparel. They have not been successful so far.

Joseph Chancellor has filed a suit in the Fourth district court against H. H. Beal for $2,000 alleged to be owing, secured by a mortgage on Provo real estate.

Maggie R. Thompson has sold to A. Hanauer, jr., lot 8, block 65, Plat A, Provo, for $4,000. Both parties are of Salt Lake City.

The divorce suit filed a few days ago by Mary E. McKean against Isaac H. McKean has been withdrawn.

C. H. Keisbrun, aged 23, and Pete Evans, aged 24, both of Provo, have received a marriage license.

The American Girl will be presented at the Opera house this evening by J. P. Hess's company.

D. J. Williams, deputy county clerk, went to Bingham yesterday on official business.

Purifies the Blood.

KAYSVILLE, UTAH, March 4, 1894.—I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla every spring and fall with good results. It is one of the best medicines I have ever used to purify the blood and cure sick headache with which I have an attack every fall. MRS. ELIZA J. HARDY.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills.
