RESPONSIVE TO THE CALL,

And All the Necessary Funds in Salt Lake's Hands at Present Writing.

SAMPLE BLOCK THE CITY CONTRIBUTES.

Salt Lake City, Jan. 25, 1895.

Notice is hereby given that contracts for the erection in this city of a monument to the memory of Brigham Young and his pioneers will be awarded, and until further notice, or otherwise and through the columns of the Deseret News, it is expected that sums to be contributed or funds for this worthy purpose will be sent, taken or left with or to the undersigned, and that such funds with the donors of the contributions, will be so entered as hereinafter contained in Henry M. Wood's summary of the Salt Lake Young Men's Association, Salt Lake City, and are not and shall not be properly accountable to the donors of the contributions.

It is earnestly hope that the people will respond promptly and generously to this call so that the monument may be completed, unveiled and dedicated in the jubilee year of the Church, on the 24th of April next.

Wilford Woodruff,
Lorenzo Snow,
Anthony W. Ivins,
Committee.
