

Barment will plunge the country into horrors of which the government has little dreamed and declares the government must be blind to imagine that such a step can succeed.

"Like a poor chess player," says the Reich, "the government fails to see that this move can only lead to a checkmate."

BAD CONDITION AT BAILOSTOK.

Warsaw, June 15.—The latest messages received here from Bialystok say the sackings of Jewish houses and shops accompanied by conflicts in the streets between the mobs and the troops, continued until late last night.

Many Jews, Poles and Russians, civilians and soldiers, were killed or wounded. The suburb of Boly was totally burned and eight streets at Bialystok were completely sacked.

The rioting is said to have extended to Lupa station on the St. Petersburg railroad and to Storozev station of the southwestern railroad. At both places the Jewish houses were looted and Jews were murdered or beaten.

A mob devastated the Jewish shops in the town of Chernyavsk, the first station out of Bialystok on the line of Grodno.

In Warsaw two police sergeants were shot and killed and other policemen were wounded by Terrorists and a policeman who pursued the assassin was shot and killed by a passing woman.

ANTI-JEWISH OUTBREAKS.

St. Petersburg, June 15, 4:10 p. m.—Unconfirmed rumors are in circulation to the effect that anti-Jewish outbreaks have occurred at Rost-Litovsk and Vilna.

It is also reported that a Catholic priest has been torn to pieces at Bialystok but this is officially denied.

KISHINEV IN A PANIC.

Odessa, June 15.—The Jews at Kishinev are in a state of panic in view of reports that a Jewish massacre is threatened. They hastily closed and barricaded all their houses and stores at noon today and the town is now patrolled by cavalry, while pickets of infantry are stationed at strategic points.

Messages from Yellazhetgrad and Kremenets report anti-Jewish excesses are also apprehended there.

RIOTING UNABATED.

St. Petersburg, June 15, (2:35 p. m.)—M. Vinaver, a Constitutional Democratic member of the lower house of parliament, has received the following dispatch from Bialystok dated 2:45 this morning:

"The rioting proceeded throughout the day with unabated fury and is still continuing with no signs of cessation. It is impossible to send particulars of the horrors."

ON "HOME WAR FOOTING."

Odessa, June 15.—Instructions have been issued to the effect that all the infantry regiments and army reserve men in the southern and southwestern provinces are to be temporarily placed on a "home war footing" in view of the possibility of the peasants rising against the nobles. The Cossacks are to be mobilized into flying brigades.

It is stated that similar instructions have been issued to the provincial commanders-in-chief in central and northern Russia.

CENSOR CONTROLS NEWS.

St. Petersburg, June 15, 4:20 p. m.—The direct telegrams from Bialystok to the newspapers here today contain no fresh information. No doubt the censor controls the telegraph. Dispatches sent by the Associated Press remain unanswered.

The Bourne Gazette prints a special dispatch from Grodno declaring that the governor of that city has expressed himself to the effect that there is no hope of stopping the butchery of Jews at Bialystok for two or three days. He is quoted as saying that mobs are invading the trains passing through Bialystok and are dragging out and killing passengers. The Jews who escaped from Bialystok are wandering, starving in the fields or woods.

MURDERING CONTINUES.

Berlin, June 15, 5:10 p. m.—A dispatch to the Tagblatt from Bialystok, dated Saturday, 2:40 p. m., says:

"Plundering and murdering continues. The garrison here and from several neighboring places is in possession of the city, which is on fire. Further fighting is frightful. A few Jews through high payments, have been allowed to escape."

FIRING CONTINUES.

Grodno, Russia, June 15.—According to messages received here late today the firing continues at Bialystok.

The governor of Grodno and the local rabbi left here this afternoon for Bialystok with provisions for the destitute.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S CUP.

Six Yachts Start in Dover-Heligoland Race.

Dover, Eng., June 15.—Six yachts started this morning in the annual Dover-Heligoland race for Emperor William's cup. With a fair easterly breeze blowing, the boats got off in the following order: The American built yawl Navahoe, owned by George W. Watjen of Bremen; the British cutter Ailsa, owned by Mrs. A. H. Lewis-Hill of Southampton; the British-built schooner yacht Clara, owned by Max von Guilleaume of Cologne; the British schooner yacht Sunshine, owned by Arthur H. Solomon of Glasgow; the German yawl Armand, owned by C. A. von Brocken and G. Schachtel; the yawl Betty, owned by Ian Hamilton Benn of Cowes.

The Navahoe allows the Ailsa 45 minutes, the Clara 2 hours 15 minutes, the Armand 2 hours 45 minutes, the Sunshine 5 hours 15 minutes, and the Betty 2 hours 45 minutes.

FAIRBANKS TO ATTEND IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

Boise, Idaho, June 15.—Vice President Fairbanks has notified Charles G. Wynn that he will attend the national irrigation congress to be held at Boise Sept. 2.

LANDLADY ROBBED.

Seattle, Wash., June 15.—Mrs. Mary A. Reardon, who says she conducted a lodging house in San Francisco prior to the big fire, was knocked in the head in a room in a lodging house last night and robbed of a belt of money containing $150. A second belt of money containing $150 was found under a washstand, where the woman had thrown it.

Mrs. Reardon says she was taken to the room by a strange man who said he was a friend of Mrs. Reardon's dead husband. Reardon was recently killed in a railroad accident in San Francisco. The woman arrived here yesterday and brought the money with her to buy a lodging house. She says she has more money in the German Savings bank of San Francisco.

CHINAMEN THREATEN.

Mongolians Want to Kill Chin Chin Because of a Raid.

Former Mayor Chin Quan Chan of Chinatown is in trouble again and today appeared before County Attorney Christensen and asked for complaints against Yip Sing Nom Hing and Chang, several Chinese gamblers whom Chin charged with threatening to take his life. From the facts stated that the attorney by Chin and Mrs. King it appears that the detectives made a raid on the Chin gambling houses last night about 3 o'clock and closed them up. The gamblers blame Chin for the affair.

"Chin took a walk last night around the block and when he returned to his home Yip Sing called to him and said 'I get something to say to you. Yip Sing Hing also told Chin that he would lose his life while the three Chinamen in the affair said to him 'You don't get out of town I take you life.'"

In view of the fact that these are the same Chinamen who threatened against the Chinamen who were killed several years ago in Plum Alley, Chin is very much alarmed and wants the charges against him placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff for service. The charge against the person of Chin. This will probably be bound over to keep the peace.
