Court Notes—Juror for May Term—Local News Notes.

Special Correspondence.

Ogden, April 21.—J. F. Parr, a bookkeeper, who was driven out of Southern California on account of the drought, came in from the west yesterday morning with a carload of hogs, and went on to Spanish Fork, where he has located. While stopping here Mr. Parr purchased 75,000 sections of a local manufacturer.

SECOND DISTRICT COURT.

Yesterday Judge Bishop handed down his decision in the case of Francis Wild, an infant, by Matthew Wild, his guardian ad litem, plaintiff, vs. Union Pacific railroad company, defendant, an action to recover damages for personal injuries resulting from the alleged negligence of the defendant company. The case was tried before a jury and a verdict for $4,500 was found for the plaintiff. The judge holds that the testimony of the defendant was stronger and unsatisfactory, and the statements of witnesses absolutely contradictory. For these and other reasons he orders that a new trial be granted. The case has been tried twice before, and decided each time in favor of plaintiff.

In the case of Harriet Munson vs. Samuel Munson, suit for divorce, default of the defendant was entered.

In the case of the Woodmansee estate vs. H. L. White the court heard further testimony and arguments of counsel, and being submitted was taken under advisement.

Gustave A. Strom, a native of Norway, declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States.

OGDEN NEWS NOTES.

The week session of the Second ecclesiastical ward began last evening and will be continued today. The program yesterday was "The married people today; the young people."

Joseph Perry is erecting a fine business block in the northwest corner of Washington avenue and Twenty-third street, which, when completed, will be occupied by the Co-op Wagon & Machine company.

A warrant was issued yesterday out of the police justice's court for the arrest of William Poe, a barber, doing business on Twenty-fifth street without having taken out a license.

Job Pringree, contracting agent for Ogden Sugar company, has contracted for the planting of about 2,000 acres of beets this season. These will be raised by the farmers of Cache, Boxelder, Morgan, Davis and Weber counties, the bulk of the acreage, of course, being in Weber county.

Mrs. P. C. Kittle, who is affected with paralysis, and occasionally has to use morphine tablets, by mistake took too large a dose Wednesday night. A physician was called at once and all possible promptly administered, saved the lady's life.

SPRINGVILLE.

Young Benjamin Bartlett Drowned in Hobble Creek.

Special per Deseret Telegraph.

Springville, Utah, April 21.—Benjamin Bartlett, son of Wm. and Leah Bartlett, 16-year-old, was found drowned at south end of the bridge in Hobble Creek last evening, about 5 o'clock, by Mr. Childs. It is thought he must have fallen from the road running about one-half mile above where he was found, as his face is bruised considerably. The accident is the entire community is with the family.

KANOSH.

Unearthing a Heinous Crime—Tracking the Unfortunate Wanderer, Gardner.

Special Correspondence.

Kanosh, Millard Co., April 18.—Quite a flutter of anxiety was caused in our little town on Thursday evening last by the arrival in the mail of a local paper containing a private communication from Bishop C. P. Christiansen to the court attorney, asking the assistance of the latter in the investigation of a recent murder by Indians, that three young men of this place had visited the Indian camp, for humorous purposes. As no names were published, only four men in the town were acquainted with the Indians' story, each parental mother's son of them, and many expressed of indignation heard from the young people, who, as no names were given, felt that the innocent were liable to suspicion. Similar "unsavory" information was published in your issue of the 11th.

There may be a demand for further "unsavory" pabulum in some quarters, but not among the readers of the Deseret News, and as the Bishop of Kanosh whilst upon the trail of well-doers is apt to frustrate the ends of the law and justice, he is probably in this case, it is not appreciated here. The people of Kanosh are justly proud of the moral status of the young people here today, and the Bishop and his aids are supported by them in the most satisfactory manner every house in this ward. Hence their determination to inflicts every law, forest out the evil-doers, and place them where they may be seen and shunned. It was only at near sundown this evening that evidence sufficient was obtained to warrant C. P. Christiansen in swearing out a complaint before Justice Hopkins, charging John T. Charlesworth and Joseph Paxton with committing heinous crime upon the persons of two squaws. The first named accused is about 20 years old and the latter 21. They are said to have left here after trying unsuccessfully to bluff the question of their guilt. Mr. Christiansen is the Church agent to feed and protect these Indians when necessary, hence his special duty in the matter.

FRUIT KILLING FROST.

The wind on Sunday last was followed by a frost that did considerable damage to our fruit prospects in peaches and apricots, and it looks like a repetition of frost tonight.

GARDNER STILL WANDERING.

Our unfortunate townsman A. J. W. Gardner, the wandering shepherder, had not been located up to last night, when a telegram was received from the searchers, Paxton and Anderson, from Sadsville, Nev., saying, "We have traced Alma to this place; we think he has gone north."

CEDAR CITY.

Improving Normal School Grounds—School Tax—Crop Outlook.

Special Correspondence.

Cedar City, Iron County, April 18.—Yesterday four large stacks of giant pumice were found piled under some tables in the public square, near the city hall building. Normal Fossil was suspected, and is now investigating the matter.

The State has been to considerable expense planting trees, building fences and beautifying the ground around the branch normal school building, which adds materially to its looks.

Spring work is fairly under into the field and one of the main members attending the school which has reduced the attendance considerably.

SPECIAL SCHOOL TAX.

A special session of the county commissioners was held April 15th in Parowan for the purpose of appointing a tax collector for the county, and to hear the county line between Iron and Beaver counties surveyed.

James Connell of Parowan, a person of considerable experience in fruit raising, was appointed tax collector and County Surveyor Shakespeare was given the contract for surveying the line for from county's proportion of the expense, that each county do equal amount of labor or cost of expense.

SHORT CROP PROSPECTS.

The weather of late has been very dry and windy with some frosts at night. The small grain crop is about all planted, which is not much over half the amount planned in other years, owing to the prospective scarcity of water. The water question, which is very complicated here, is being settled and before long there is liable to be several lawsuits.

The sheep sheepers left town this morning for Iron Spring to commence shearing the sheep belonging to the firm, there being about thirty-five thousand head.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

JUAREZ, MEXICO.

Particulars of the Suicide of Leonard Emil Chesson.

Special Correspondence.

Colonia Juarez, Mexico, April 14.—E. L. Taylor, president of the Juarez Stake, has returned from the railroad survey camp between Pachico and Garcia, where was held an investigation of the recent suicide of Leonard Emil Chesson at that point. The Mexican judge of this district, accompanied by his clerk and four soldiers from Casas Grandes, was joined at the place by President Taylor, and upon arrival at the camp found the body had been buried, after lying where it fell in the cook tent twenty-three hours untouched, according to the law of Mexico.

The young man killed himself April 8th, shooting himself in the forehead with a thirty-two-caliber revolver, which caused instant death. The judge and party arrived on the 10th and spent one day taking testimony, from which it appears that the suicide was about twenty years of age, was a member of Engineer W. S. Waters' survey party, and is supposed to have come from Huntsville, Utah, as a letter came addressed to him the day after his death, from that place; and that he had been sitting about two days previously. The cause of the rash act is unknown. It being on Sunday that the suicide occurred, all the men were in or about the camp at the time, the fatal shot was fired, the cook having just then gone out of the tent. Testimony proved that none of the party was with Chesson at the time, consequently no suspicion of foul play can attach to any one. Chesson came to Mexico, it is believed, when Mr. Hetler came with his son still in Chihuhua. In taking the body for burial at Colonia Juarez, President E. L. Taylor officiated as interpreter.

J. H. MARTINEAU.

WHY HE QUIT.

A professional gentleman, who was accustomed to take his morning glass stepped into a saloon, and going up to the bar called for whiskey. A seedy individual stepped up to him and said, "I say, squire, can't you ask an unfortunate fellow to join you?"

He was accosted by the man's familiarity, and roughly told him, "I am not in the habit of drinking with tramps."

The tramp replied, "You need not be so cranky and high-minded, my friend. I venture to say that I am of just as good a family as you, and have taken as good an education, and before I took to drink was just as respectable as you are. What is more, I always knew how to act the gentleman. Take my word for it, you stick to John Barleycorn and he will bring you to just the same place I am."

Struck with his words, the gentleman set down his glass and turned to look at him. His eyes were bloodshot, his face bloated, his boots unheated, his clothing filthy. He was in short, a drunkard. He said, "Why, I never was drinking that made you like this?"

"Yes, it was, and it will bring you to the same if you stick to it."

Picking up his untouched glass, he poured the contents upon the floor and said, "Then it's time I quit," and left the saloon never to enter it again.—Classmate.

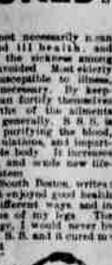
NEVER TOO OLD TO BE CURED

S. S. S. is a Great Blessing to Old People. It Gives Them New Blood and Life.

Age does not necessarily mean feeblemess and ill health, and nearly all of the sickness among older people can be avoided. Most elderly people are very susceptible to illness, but it is wholly unnecessary. By keeping their blood pure they can fortify themselves so as to escape three fourths of the ailments from which they suffer so generally. S. S. S. is the remedy which will keep their systems young, by purifying the blood, thoroughly removing all waste accumulations, and imparting new strength and life to the whole body. It increases the appetite, builds up the entire system, and adds new life-giving blood throughout the entire system.

Mr. J. W. Loving, of Colquitt, Ga., says: "For eighteen years I suffered intense from a fiery eruption on my skin. I tried almost every known remedy, but they failed one by one, and I was told that my age, which is sixty-six, was against me, and that I could never hope to be well again. I finally took S. S. S., and it cleansed my blood thoroughly, and now I am in perfect health."

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD



is the only remedy which can build up and strengthen old people because it is the only one which is guaranteed free from potash, mercury, arsenic and other damaging minerals. It is made from roots and herbs, and has no chemicals whatever in it. S. S. S. cures the worst cases of Scrofula, Cancer, Eczema, Rheumatism, Tetter, Open Sores, Chronic Ulcers, Boils, or any other disease of the blood.

Books on these diseases will be sent free by Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

UTE INDIANS HAVE A RIGHT

May Go Across the Border from Utah to Colorado.

State Law Cannot Abrogate Rights Granted Before the state Was Created, Says Agent Harper.

(Denver News.

E. H. Harper, special Indian agent at Duchesne, Utah, arrived in the city on Wednesday night's Rio Grande train, en route for Washington, where he has been ordered to report.

Mr. Harper has made several ineffectual efforts to obtain a pow-wow with some of the leading spirits in the tribe of White River Utes, relative to their determination to cross the border this summer and hunt in Colorado. The Indians, he says, are in an ugly mood and threaten to force their way across if not allowed to hunt unmolested. The agent verifies the dispatches from Price, Utah, which say that serious trouble may be looked for within a few months, if the authorities refuse to allow the Indians to satisfy their desire to cross the border. He says the White River Utes intend returning to Colorado to stand up for their rights, as much as the Grand River Utes did. This may be July or as early as even sooner. Mr. Harper declares that the White Rivers are particularly delighted at the treatment accorded them by the Uintahs. The latter are said to have imposed upon their brethren over across they came into Utah and refused them the rights that they were first promised.

The dispatch relative to the Indian troubles was generally discussed at army headquarters yesterday, and some of the officers will admit that they fear the necessity of calling out the troops to prevent a raid. It is claimed that there is a spirit of restlessness and revenge lurking in the hearts of the Indians, which is spreading. Agency C. Merriam is well acquainted with the Indian situation and familiar with the rights of the parties in question. While loath to express an opinion upon a matter with which he has as yet nothing to do, Gen. Merriam said:

"As the state game law interferes with treaty rights of the Indians which were in force before the state was passed? Can a state statute prohibit the exercise of rights which belonged to the Indians before the state had become effective? The Indians were given the right by the government to hunt in northern Colorado while Colorado was a territory, can a state now take some dozen from the privilege? The question becomes of some moment and the people should not judge against the tribe without knowing all their claims. The Indians may have some reason to complain. Their grievance may be well based. Long ago they settled in the northwestern part of the state. A few years ago the fertility became a state and a law was passed prohibiting the Utes from pursuing the vocation given them by the government long before. It could not prevent the Indians from the order out any troops without advice from Washington. We have heard nothing definite nor official here as yet, which indicates that plans for the threatened crossing are not near maturity."

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives.
