OBITUARY.

AGNES STEELE PARK.

Agnes Steele Park departed this life at her residence, No. 114 Third street, Salt Lake City, on Friday morning at 6 o'clock. She had been ailing more or less for some time, but death was unexpected so soon or so suddenly. She had taken a newspaper and gone into an adjoining room to read; her granddaughter, Aggie Kenner, who was with her at the time, followed her and found her lying on the floor, making some remark about her being a peculiar position to read in and receiving no reply, she went to her grandmother and spoke to her, but receiving no reply or a motion, took her in her arms. After fainting, heard the words "Oh, Aggie!" the vital spark departed. The information was at once communicated to the neighbors and the husband; he was immediately sent for and was overwhelmed with sorrow, prostrated with grief, a happy married life of more than half a century having caused their lives to grow into each other and become so firmly united that the separation was almost beyond endurance. All the sustaining influence that the unalloyed sympathy of a host of friends, their kind ministerings and their earnest prayers can produce has been with the afflicted husband throughout.

Sister Park was born at Kilbourne, Scotland, on April 5, 1827. In her early girlhood she first heard the Gospel, and at the expense of many friendships and general calumny she accepted it and was baptized into the Church. In her sixteenth year she was married to Brother Hamilton G. Park, and in a few years she emigrated to Zion, the vicissitudes of travel in those days and the necessity of fortifying as they progressed causing them to occupy two years in the trip. They arrived here in 1852 and have lived here ever since. Ten children have been born to them, of whom four only are living—Isabel G., wife of S. A. Kenner; Annie A., wife of J. H. Midgley; Arthur H., and Mamie Ida, wife of Joseph Thomas. Besides these they have had 24 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services took place at the residence today, commencing at 2 p.m., being conducted by Bishop Empey, of the Thirteenth ward, whose first counselor Brother Park is. They were of the most impressive and consolatory character, after which the interment took place in the family grounds in the city cemetery, a large concourse of sorrowing friends being in the funeral train.

Sister Park was widely known and universally respected wherever known. As a wife and mother she was most exemplary, as a neighbor and friend none was more highly esteemed, and she died as she had ever lived—true to the faith of the Gospel and assured of a re-unionism with the just and eternal salvation.

You are a tobacco user?

Whether you give any thought to the matter or not, it is a fact that a user of tobacco is a slave to the habit.

This world moves, science progresses, and it is not reasonable that a cure should be discovered for the habit-forming habit? There is one—and one—No-To-Bac—and it is absolutely guaranteed.

Thousands have been cured, and millions will, if they only know how much good it will do for them. Is your condition any worse than Doctor Robey's? He was cured long ago, and writes under late date as follows:

THIRTY YOUNG HEAVEN ROW,
SIOUX, ILL., September 22d, 1895.

Gentlemen: I write you a note in praise of No-To-Bac which I took nearly three years ago. I had been using tobacco nearly 30 years. The habit had grown on me to such an extent that I required a pound every ten days. It so affected my nervous system that I could not sleep, had no appetite and was used up generally. On the 19th of January 1892 I commenced the use of No-To-Bac and quitt it entirely the first month. No-To-Bac slightly increased my desire for tobacco, and I have not tasted the vile weed since. I can now be positive in saying that when I used tobacco, and I would like to say to every one who uses tobacco, "take No-To-Bac and be yourself again." Very respectfully yours,

S. D. ROBEY, M. D.

Are you a sufferer from disease that you long to cure, and in the time-tried language of No-To-Bac is sold by the one druggist under absolute guarantee of cure. Start now and continue for six months.
