Legal Notices—County Commissioners—

Fiscal Arrangements.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.
Ogden, May 2.—The terrible tragedy over Willard on Sunday was the talk of the town yesterday. There was a great outburst of sympathy over the shooting of Captain Brown, and regret was expressed that his widow had not made a statement. She is here and was present when he surrendered and was taken to Brigham City. As it is nearly impossible to get a full account of the capture of the highwayman, will you print what I have to say? It is unlikely that any attempt will be made to break sympathy over the widow, but the sympathy of the public is with her.

A marriage license was issued Saturday evening to F. A. Morris, 21, and Mrs. C. C. Cookson, 20, both of Ogden.

LEGAL BUSINESS.
In the matter of the estate of Charles W. Williams, deceased, the attorney and an attorney of the estate agree to pay $1,000, and file a petition for partition of the estate in the probate court at the earliest date, or the date of the hearing of the May 10th.

JUDGE HALL'S TESTIMONY.
The trial was in Ogden yesterday morning, the witness for the defense, Dr. J. V. Morris, and the witness for the Utah Loan and Trust company, whose son having been shot, had succeeded in forcing the court to accept his deposition in respect of the family of the late William A. Brown. His defense is to be that the son of John T. Williams, the administrator of the dead man's estate, had committed suicide.

The appearance of Sheriff Abbott of Salt Lake, who had been sent to Ogden without pay to confound the defense, was expected to bring the trial to a close Saturday morning. The appearance of the defense, however, was put off for today, and court fees and costs for the Martin and Avery of the Second District court for Davis county.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM BROWN.
There is a movement on foot for the general closure of all business during the funeral services of William A. Brown at the interment.

The arrangements for the funeral have been changed from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. It is expected that the services will be held at the First Ward Tabernacle and the services will be held and end upon the occasion.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.
The board met in regular session yesterday with all members present when the following order was adopted:

That W. G. Wilson, first commissioner of the commission of the assessment and school districts, make fully the report of his work to the commissioners.

The tax collector over the remains of the late W. Williams, witness to the trial, will be held tomorrow at 2 o'clock p.m., from 1801 Main street.

A Mrs. Cornelius was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with assault upon a man in the city. It was Valentine, whom when the case was taken, set the hearing for May 10th.

PROVO.

Probate Masters—Widowed Barghers at Springfield—Marriage License.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Provo, May 1.—The fourth district court, Judge Doushett, today made the following order:

In the matter of L. L. Lamm, defendant in the action of Arlo A. Brown, asking for letters of administration, no new hearing, May 10th.

The trial of the same day, however, was adjourned, awaiting application to seal real estate.

A. N. Clark, who applied for guardianship of estates of minor heirs of Eliza A. Atkinson, was granted a writ of habeas corpus.

He was remanded until next Friday.

SPRINGVILLE.

Burglar Caught by Sheriff Morris at Grand Junction.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Springville, May 1.—The houses of Mrs. Richard, Mary, the houses of W. H. Gray, were burglarized on Sunday, and the loss was estimated at $1,000 and other valuable property secured.

The party who entered the burglary were identified as the same persons who had broken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas on May 11, from the same neighborhood.

The trial of the burglar for the second offense will probably extend one or two days, as there is no trial date set for the first offense.

PRICE.

Two Men Killed in a Quarrel over a Woman, and Two Others Wounded.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Palo Alto, Calif., May 1.—Three men soldiers of the Ninth Cavalry and a woman were killed and two others wounded in a row in a saloon or house of ill repute at what is known as the "strip," where the soldiers are quartered.

The soldiers left the barracks early Saturday night and Thomas was shot about half past ten.

CEDAR CITY.

Quarterly Conference of the U. M. I. A.

Eighty inches of snow.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Cedar City, May 1.—The quarterly conference of the United Methodist Church, which will give an entertainment at the Tabernacle meeting house, Tuesday evening, will be held to buy books for the school.

Mrs. Margaret A. Clegg, 20, Salt Lake City, was married Saturday morning to George E. Clegg, 21, in the interest of the silk industry.

There are a great many meetings to this vicinity and as a result a great many of the citizens come over.

WEEDING BIRDS.

Cochrane, May 1.—The annual meeting of the Methodist and Baptist Associations, 16, both of Spanish Fork, I. H. Cooley, 20, and Estelle King, 19, both of Spanish Fork, and Minnie Mathews, 21, of Springville, Judge Doushett, of the Fourth district, presided over the meeting for the two last named couples.

County Commissioner Joseph T. McLean, 21, of Springville, was called to act as a notary public on the trial.

EPHRAIM.

Interesting Sunday School Conference.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Ogden, May 1.—The most interesting Sunday school conference has just closed at the Tabernacle. About 1,000 people were present. President General Superintendent Dr. J. A. Johnson, Dr. L. C. Miller, of Ogden, and Misses Mathews, 21, of Springville, Judge Doushett, of the Fourth district, presided over the conference.

A very marked improvement is seen in the work done by the children in the Tabernacle.
