DESERET EVENING NEWS.

THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1893.

FRAGMENTS.

In the Probate court this morning the only thing done was the making of one independent order.

JUDGE ZANE closed himself this morning in chambers with the writing of important opinions.

PROBATE JUDGE BLACK was a rather sick man yesterday, but today he is around as active as ever.

THE TWENTY-ONE quorum of Elders will meet in the Nineteenth ward meeting house tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock.

MRS. JOHN MCLAUGHLIN, who was found guilty of disturbing the peace, in Commissioner Frick's court, has been fined 10 and costs.

JAMES BRATTON, charged with assault and battery, will be tried in Commissioner Frick's court tomorrow. The facts of the case were reported in yesterday's NEWS.

THE officers of the Primary association of Salt Lake Stake will hold a meeting on Friday, June 30th, at 2 p. m., at 147 E. South Temple. E. C. Clawson, President.

THE new U. S. marshal for Utah, Mr. Nat M. Brigham, will begin his duties in solid earnest on Saturday morning, and the outgoing marshal (Mr. Frank A. Dickson) will tender his farewell about the same time.

A PETITION is in course of circulation for the pardon of John Kaul, a German, who was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary by Judge Moses on December 21, 1891, for assault. The prisoner is an aged man and was a Union soldier.

THERE was a lively runaway on East Temple street this morning shortly after 8 o'clock, near Second South street. The driver was seated in a single horse buggy and was thrown out but was not severely hurt. The vehicle was overturned and considerably damaged.

THE Colmes-Jennings Paving company is more than displeased over the fact that the representatives of the city have compelled it to send coal for its grouting. The materials necessary for the work are residuum oil three parts, coal tar one hundred parts and asphaltum twenty parts. Mr. Colmes says the native product is fully as good if not better but his company has yielded to the pressure against it.

THE semi-annual celebration of the Lincoln Literary No. 1217, L. L. & A. will be held next Monday evening at the Lyceum hall. Quite an extensive program has been arranged which promises to be an important event in the history of the Literary, showing the great amount of progress it has accomplished as a literary society since its organization, May 23d, 1892.

ARE now there is trouble between the California contingent of newsmen who had speedy entrance at the recent race meeting and the officers of the Driving Park association. The latter, it is claimed, are behind in their accounts with the California newsmen to the amount of about $200. "No funds" is the necessary reply to be the cause of the difficulty.

PROBABLY the neatest educational publication ever issued in this Territory is the souvenir number of the CADDIE, edited by the students of the Utah University. It is in magazine form and contains about sixty pages of interesting matter on educational topics. It also contains brief biographical sketches and half-tone photographs of the thirteen professors of the institution. All things considered it is a very creditable production.

BRIGHAMS H. L. GRAY, of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, sends the following to the NEWS: Temple Lodge No. 15, will, on next Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, install their officers for the ensuing term. All persons interested in the workings of the order are cordially invited to be present to witness the ceremonies. The place of meeting is the old I. O. O. F. hall, Union block, Main street.

"THE city sewage must find its way into and down the river from this on until the gravity system is complete," said a councilman today. "As much as I deplore this I realize the fact that the city is practically financially strapped and cannot afford to invest money in any temporary affair which would only handle one-third of the sewage as contemplated in Moran's engine and boiler purchase resolution."

THE concert and festival given last evening in the Twenty-first ward meeting house attracted a large crowd and those who were fortunate in attending were highly entertained by the splendid program that was presented. The interior of the building was artistically decorated and the numerous incandescent lights added greatly to its beauty. The after feast of strawberries and cream was very enjoyable. Old and young relished it alike.

Last Two Daughters.

On June 22nd Mrs. Mary Bingham, wife of Charles Bingham, died at Provo, aged 37 years. Two days later Miss Louretia Holden died, aged 24 years. The latter attended the funeral of the former. They were the daughters of the late Henry Holden of Provo. The blow comes very heavy upon the widow, they being her only daughters. She has one son left.

Gored by a Cow.

Mrs. Laura Driggs Clark was very badly gored by an infuriated cow at Pleasant Grove the other day. Mrs. Clark was passing through the lot with her two young children in her arms, when the brute ran at them without being observed by the unfortunate woman. It knocked her down with its horns, giving an ugly gash in her thigh. Men near by ran to her assistance and fortunately rescued her from what appeared an untimely death. Mrs. Clark is suffering from the wound, but by careful attention it is believed will recover. The cow was angry at having lost her calf, and broke from her fastening.

THE CIRCUS LAST NIGHT.

Scarcity of Money Did Not Lessen the Crowds—Six Thousand People Attend.

The prevailing hard times and scarcity of money did not lessen the attendance at Cook & Whitby's circus last night as many supposed would be the case. The great canvas auditorium was packed from end to end. Every seat was occupied and every inch of vacant ground was hastily taken possession of. Hundreds of people were turned away during the evening. Altogether the show is an excellent one, though it is not attended by the mammoth menagerie that accompanied the Sells Bros.' circus on its last visit to Salt Lake. Some of the aerial performances were as good as any ever seen in this section.

The chariot race by Hughes and wife was a most thrilling affair and held the audience spellbound during its progress. The music was exceptionally good. This feature materially added to the pleasure of the audience. The show was highly appreciated by the large audience, and calls forth words of praise from all sides.

The 2 o'clock performance will be given tonight. Tomorrow the circus will exhibit at Provo, and as the people at the Garden city richly enjoy a show of this kind they will no doubt be on hand in great force.
