NEWS OF THE WEST.

A Nine-Year-Old Newsboy Found Drunk in the Gutter.

EXODUS OF TRAMPS FROM YUMA.

A Sacked Bishop's Mistake.—Arizona's Public School System.—A Murderer Reprieved.

Trinidad, Col., has a residence building mode.

The Soldiers' Home at Boise, Idaho, will be built of Idaho stone.

Park county, Colorado, claims to have the richest gold mine in the state.

Los Animas county, Colorado, farmers are putting up ice thirteen inches in thickness.

Cheyenne is considering the establishment of a steam car line with potentiality as a motive power.

Hingsay, Colo., brings the Minnie coal mine to ship their coal there and say it is equal to the Central Basin coal.

Glenwood Springs disputes priority with Grand Junction in the introduction of telephone service in the Grand valley.

New Mexico's consolidated bank report shows a decrease of 29 per cent in loan resources, $2,078,845; deposits $900,000.

Grand Valley, Colo., farmers have agreed to the purchase of the Brookway coal and signed pledge binding the contract.

Trinidad's Swedishmen's mutual aid society has disbanded and surrendered its charter. Bad times and lack of membership the cause.

Game from the Big Horn mountains is being driven out on the plains by snowslides. Herds of elk invade the town in northern Wyoming.

Saratoga, Wyo., boasts of a five point game with a pedigree out of Wyoming water and sagebrush. It is said to be a marvel of beauty and of perfect speed.

The Hampshire reservoir contract was let to W. E. Judge of Louisville for $2,250, and work will be pushed and preparations are being made for packing on the wall.

Cattle thieves infest the valley around Buffalo, Colo., and cause. They kill the stock and leave the hides not carry off the meat. A reward is offered for their conviction.

The Dyer ranch on Pole creek, north of Cheyenne, Wyo., owned by the wind bird men, William Dyer of Cheyenne, has been sold to Leonard Ingersoll Clemons for $25,000.

Gunnison county, Colo., people have held a meeting in Crested Butte and appointed a committee to prepare a reserve bill and work it through the legislature.

El Paso and Park counties are vigorously opposing the segregation of mining to form the new county of Cripple Creek, Colo.

Mason's total production of gold and silver since 1860, as shown by official reports, amounted to $241,[illegible] in silver and $19,[illegible] in gold.

Boulder county, Colo., miners are now made sweeping statements in the matter of depositing checks with other county county officials. The reduction from from 25 to 50 per cent.

The state treasurer of Colorado has paid out nearly the $51,000 designated to the different counties from the semi-annual distribution of school fund.

Deming, N. M., records the completion of a new pumping machine for filling a 50,000,000 gallon irrigating reservoir. Service Domestic sites at Mesilla land will now be developed into orchards around Deming.

The Grass, Nev., Courier: Carlisle ex very pleasant in some of the mountains of Winey's Springs. A cousin was shot down in the top of a lofty pine one day late week and escaped an thirty-five fish in a single day.

John McNulty, who was to have been hanged at Sacramento, Cal., last Friday, has escaped the gallows, after standing six days on the scaffold. Governor Markham, almost at the last moment, commuted the death sentence to imprisonment for life.

The [illegible] the rainmaker's proposition to the Cheyenne people is to irrigate not less than ten inches of rain each of the years 1893, 1892 and 1891 for a fee of $2500, $1500 and $1000 in each instance per year. No pay unless the rain is furnished to cover an area of eighty by ninety miles.

Laramie county, Wyoming, commissioners paid themselves $1,318.75 for the last six months of 1893. Among the three highest days pay for regular monthly meetings the three county commissioners each of over $[illegible] a day. Now the Cheyenne papers complain of high priced officials.

Well may Arizona be proud of her public school system, says the Flagstaff Democrat. It gives a larger revenue to the child than almost any other state in the Union and the members throughout the Territory are endeavoring to raise and improve the standard of education in many directions.

Peter Barclay, a nonagenarian nine years of age, was picked up drunk and asleep in the gutter in Denver a few nights ago. He says it was the first time he ever drank whisky. The boy is a son of a respectable blacksmith, now out of work, but prefers to sleep in sewerage and wet pipes. The police gathered him in.

The other night a masked robber entered the house of a Major Barnett, in Monterey, California, and ordered the lady of the house and her sister-in-law and children to lie down on the floor and submit to being tied hand and behind them. After a thorough search he was provided in finding only about $2 in the house and with this he left the premises, telling the women that he would return and shoot them, remarking that he had left them the whole house."

At Green River, Wyo., not much a [illegible] came Jim Johnson, [illegible] to drive a large mountain lion which he discovered in the brushes a [illegible] house and for well fed. The lion was soundly whipped and when it [illegible] the owner's pup ran away, carrying the owner's gun. A fight at close range ensued in which Johnson was badly torn and bitten, but he succeeded in killing the lion with his knife.

The high water at Pinecrest, says the Weiser (Idaho) Signal, has done considerable damage in that vicinity. The whole prairie below was covered two to three feet deep in water. The water rushed in such a height as was the Alkaway mine tunnel so that the miners had to remove everything possible to Management. Several men were obliged to move out of their houses into the house of Kingsley and some 500 feet of the Northern Pacific railroad track was washed out so that trains could not pass.

Ninety-five of the most female sent over to Yuma, A. T., left on Friday night for San Francisco, where they say they can get 25 cent day and board. One is a local white, here from Colorado, who sent an Indian to collect the bill. The latter found her (he) on the sidewalk out and hooted him off. The general "[illegible]" attended the Indian, who had come on a mule. In the end he got his money. A light supper, which the Indian said the white "[illegible]" had lay with steam, coal, and iron and clubs. A deputy sheriff appeared, the light ceased before much blood was shed.

Boiling hot water on the plain east of Virginia City, Nev., will be tried next spring, and if a good flow of water is found an effort will be made to reclaim a vast tract of land cultivated. The Enterprise remarks that the soil is adapted to the growth of cereals, tubers and vegetables is indicated by the vast crops of sagebrush in many place. The water lies on the plain in pools, but lies below the surface, and shafts sunk in the mouth of the mile canyon show water gravel strata at that depth, and it is believed that by boring to a depth of 100 to 150 feet a good flow of water may be obtained.

A fisherman who came in from Ralston for the first of the week, reports the Cheyenne, Wyo., Leader Journal states that at least 10,000 cattle are now ranging between Bear and Horse river, east of the bluffs of Bear Hills and Willow creek. They are so tame that they are causing serious annoyance to fishermen in breaking down fishing lines, etc. The storms and snow in the mountains have driven them down in the streams for shelter. The stage from Cheyenne to Cody, Cody, passes through droves of hundreds every day, and at times the driver has been compelled to stop and drive them off the road. Coyotes and timber wolves are making great inroads among the herds of elk, and the latter are so tame the hunters have to approach absolutely in the white house Tetonsmanly.

The Kind of medicine
you need is the old reliable tonic and blood-purifier,
AYER'S
SARSAPARILLA
It can have no substitute.
Cures others,
will cure you

BEWARE OF THE GRIP
Dr. Ecton fears another epidemic, and sounds the alarm.
In lung and chest pains, coughs, colds, bronchitis, and pneumonia, no other external remedy affords prompt protection and quicker cure than
BENSON'S POROUS PLASTER.
Endorsed by over 1,000 Physicians and Chemists. Be sure to get the genuine Benson's. Sold by all druggists. SEABURY & JOHNSON, Chemists, N. Y. City.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Estate of Joseph C. Sayers, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN BY THE undersigned executors of the estate of Joseph C. Sayers, deceased, to the creditors of, and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice, to the said executors, at the office of Messrs. Dickson, Smith & Lewis, in Salt Lake City, Utah, Territory of Utah, being the place for the transaction of the business of the estate in the County of Salt Lake, Utah.

JOHN WICKSHIRE SAYERS,
EDWARD C. SAYERS, Executors.

Dickson, Smith & Lewis, Attorneys for Executors.

MANDAL'S SALE.

PURSUANT TO AN EXECUTION TO me directed by the Hon. Charles Zane, Judge of the Third Judicial District Court of the Territory of Utah, sitting in and for the County of Salt Lake, I will on the 10th day of February, A. D. 1894, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Office of the Sheriff, City and County of Salt Lake, Utah, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for lawful money of the United States, all the right, title and interest of the defendants in and to the following described property, to wit:

[illegible]

Terms of sale, Cash.

JAY H. BRIGHAM,
U. S. Marshal.

By L. L. Arnold, Deputy Marshal.

Dated Salt Lake City, Utah, this 20th day of January, A. D. 1894.

Geo. S. Ross, Attorney for Plaintiff.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT pursuant to an order of the Probate Court of Salt Lake County, Utah Territory, in the matter of the estate of Hector Lee, deceased, I will on the 10th day of February, A. D. 1894, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the office of the undersigned, in Salt Lake City, Utah, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for lawful money of the United States, all the following described real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said order, to wit:

[illegible]

Terms of sale—Five per cent at the time of sale, balance in cash on delivery of deed. Sale to be subject to confirmation by said Probate Court.

Dated at Salt Lake City, Utah, January 15, A. D. 1894.

JAMES E. POWELL,
Administrator of the estate of Henry D. Lee, deceased.

Dickson, Smith & Lewis, Attorneys for the estate.

Dated January 15th, 1894.

LEGAL NOTICE.

In the Probate Court in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

In the Matter of the Estate of John Fox, deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the undersigned, Peter Lawrence, the administrator of the estate of John Fox, deceased, has filed his final account and report of said estate in said County, and that the hearing thereof has been fixed by said Court for Saturday, the 10th day of February, A. D. 1894, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Court Room of said Probate Court, in the City and County Building, in said County, when and where all persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why said account should not be settled and said administrator be discharged from his trust.

Witness, the Hon. Charles S. Zane, Judge of the Third Judicial District Court, and the seal of the Probate Court of said County, this 15th day of January, A. D. 1894.

(SEAL.) HENRY G. MINER, Clerk.

By Geo. H. Lennon, Deputy Clerk.

Richards & Richards, Attorneys for Petitioner.

SUMMONS ON CROSS COMPLAINT.

In the United States Court in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory, County of Salt Lake.

Marion Gee Bailey, Plaintiff, vs.

John E. Dennison, Ann D. Dennison, William Dennison, [illegible] Dennison, [illegible] Dennison, [illegible]