The latest new adventure in journalism is the issuance of a "Monday Morning Sermon." Its name implies its mission and comment is unnecessary further than to say that from the space it gives to the Sunday's sermon it appears to be judging by its beneficiaries value.

Tomorrow, Tuesday evening, June 21st, Dr. Carl G. Maier will lecture on the subject of "Ancient Rome" in the Assembly Hall, Salt Lake City, under the auspices of the Art Society. Tickets, 50 cents, may be obtained at Dr. Maier's residence, 1 Exchange Place, or at the door.

The temperance lecture delivered by Mr. Spence in the Assembly Hall last night was highly interesting and instructive throughout, and was listened to by a considerable and intelligent audience with rapt attention. Mr. Spence's subject had for was well adapted to the occasion and to the place where he was.

A magnificent water color painting, fresh from the brush of Artist Gudge, of Chicago, is now on exhibition in the "Kate Wells" studio in the Auerbach block, at Main street. It is one of Mr. Gudge's best productions, and has cost the lady to be appreciated. It is called the "Columbia," and represents the discovery of America, as understood by her first, as he sailed to the new world.

The numerous friends of Mrs. Elizabeth Wonnacott Noden, wife of W. S. Noden, of the Deseret Newspaper Publishing Company, will be pained to learn of her death, which said event occurred at the family residence, 175 Second Street, this forenoon. The deceased was taken sick some days yesterday. The cause of her sudden demise was heart disease. The funeral services will be held at the family residence on Wednesday next at 2 p. m.

The Fish Springs Mining Company has filed its articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The capital stock of the company is to be fifty tears, with its principal place of business in Salt Lake City, but transfer and agency offices may be located elsewhere in the United States. The officers are John W. Moneghan, president; Oscar A. Mosier, vice-president; John H. Hindmarsh, secretary and treasurer, who, together with William M. Bradley, form the board of directors.

Evidently A Mistake.

We are handed a letter from H. C. Sorrell, New York, addressed to the "County Clerk, Manti, Utah." It relates to bonds proposed to be issued by the county, and as sure as official Mr. John Reid makes reply that Sanpete County has not issued and does not propose to issue bonds. A blank enclosed for filling has been filled under oath by Mr. A. Hepples, County Clerk of Sevier County, which goes to show that the sender of the letter made a mistake and that there has been a mistake all around—the letter should have been addressed "County Clerk, Richfield," and the filled blank should go to New York.

Latest Court News.

Peter Tavey brought suit in the Third District Court this afternoon against Peter Clays, Daisy V. Clays, and the Kentucky Liquor Company, a corporation, to recover $300 on a promissory note, with interest at the rate of 1½ per month from April, 1891, unpaid.

This afternoon, with the clerk of the Third District court Attorney W. C. Reilly (Reilly & Rose) filed papers in a statement of motion on a new trial in the ejectment case of Mr. H. J. Gregory, administrator of the estate of George Gregory, deceased, vs. Arthur Stone. The court is asked to set aside the verdict of plaintiff at the late recent trial of the case in Judge Zane's court, on the ground of newly-discovered evidence material to the plaintiff, as shown by the affidavits of Mr. Hyrum Paxton, Thomas Chessley, Charles H. Shoemaker, David Jones and Robert D. Swift. These witnesses, he says, he was unable to produce at the trial. He also declares that the testimony then adduced was not sufficient to justify or sustain the verdict.

The Issue of Goods.

"There is nothing," said a gallanteer, "upon which there is a more general difference of opinion than in regard to the equitableness of the liability of men and womenfolks. You would say, probably without any hesitation, that the issue of goods is a matter of equity, and that both sides share than that of their brethren, but this is a very great error.

"Take, for example, the employees of this concern and we count out the girls even in the treasury, and in an almost simple manner, we will show conclusively that a very large proportion of the issue of goods is immediately upside the hands of the men, from that which a woman knows is offered. They are all men and the family which they support is a family of men. Women are not in the business of supporting families. Women are not in the business of supporting families. They are not in the business of supporting families. They are not in the business of supporting families. They
