THE CHRISTMAS NEWS

FOR 1901.

A UTAH-COLORADO EDITION.

The Christmas edition of the "News" this year will be printed on Saturday, December 21, 1901. It will contain an exhaustive review of the year's developments in business, mining, commerce, real estate, building, and all other branches of business, and will form the most elaborate compilation of the resources and attractions of Utah which has ever been issued.

Our sister state, Colorado, and its industries and attractions will be well represented in the issue, many beautiful views of Denver and Colorado scenery being given.

A big part of the edition will be circulated in Denver, and Colorado's principal cities.

Especially attractive articles will be prepared by a corps of selected writers, and leading men of the community will contribute timely articles on current topics.

As the holiday number will be issued several days ahead of Christmas, it will form an invaluable advertising medium to local dealers for the Christmas trade.

The general advertiser could find no better means for reaching the people of the great west. The "News" will be a circulation of at least 20,000 copies for the Christmas issue.

Special rates will be accorded advertisers who wish their notices printed in the Semi-Weekly News as well, giving them a total circulation of nearly 45,000 copies.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The remains of the wife of J. T. Noble, a prominent man in western real estate circles, were cremated today in California.

The adjusters have fixed the loss of the Davis Shoe company in the recent fire at $237,100. The stock was insured for $250,000, policies being held in eighteen companies.

Thomas O'Callahan, an old resident of the city, died at the Holy Cross hospital yesterday afternoon of general debility aggravated by excessive drink. He was a veteran of the civil war.

A. P. Kendall of 917 Second street, is at the St. Mark's hospital suffering from a broken wrist and ankle. He received the injuries at the South Glena mine, at Bingham yesterday.

Rev. Millard Walker, pastor of St. Paul's parish in this city, has resigned his position, the resignation to take effect January 1, 1902. He says he was obliged to do it on account of his failing health. Just where he is going from here has not yet been decided.

General Secretary John T. Axton of the Y. M. C. A., ends his ministrations in this city Dec. 12th next, the eighth anniversary of his service. He expects to go to Washington where a government position awaits him. A banquet is proposed for Mr. Axton on the evening of December 12th.

F. W. Hills writes from New York that he expects a conference with Geo. Foster Peabody early next month on the matter of a new building for the Y. M. C. A., will be settled. Mr. Peabody has already built two fine buildings for Y. M. C. A. and is believed that he will give $50,000 to erect a fine structure in New York.

The Elks are preparing for their memorial service or "Lodge of Sorrow" to be held at the New Grand Theater on Sunday, Dec. 16, at 8 o'clock. They will deliver the eulogy and hold a musical discourse. Some of the most talented local soloists will also appear. The officers at Fort Douglas and their wives will attend.

Miss Padlock of New York addressed the St. Mark's guild yesterday afternoon on the subject of the girl's friendly society. She said the organization was started by Mary E. Townsend, twenty-seven years ago, with a few members. Now it is said, the strongest society for girls in the world, numbering 300,000 members. Miss Padlock said the society is a great help to the young women of the world.

Lawrence B. Riggs, son of Dr. O. H. Riggs, died of consumption last evening at 44 North Second street. He was a young man having been in this city in 1878. For the last few years he has been attending a medical college in Cincinnati, where his father is practicing medicine. He would have graduated in three months and was so anxious to complete his course that he remained at school long after he

ALL NOW READY FOR BIG SHOW

Preparations for Coming Convention of Live Stock Ass'n.

PROGRAM IS COMPLETED.

Some of the Work Which Will be Accomplished in Chicago Next Month.

Charles F. Martin, secretary of the National Live Stock association, in a letter from Chicago has the following to say about the forthcoming event at which a number of leading Western cattlemen will be present:

Preparations for the coming convention of the National Live Stock association and the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago next month, are about completed and it is certain that all records in live stock events are to be badly shattered by the dual event. It was feared that the big Stock Show might overshadow the National convention, but that fear has been completely dispelled by the great interest shown in the work of the convention.

The program is about completed, and the highest authorities in the live stock world will take part. Secretary Wilson, of the department of agriculture, will be positively present and will make an address upon the value of live stock to the farmer. Chief Statistician Powers, of the census office, will be present to tell the stockmen for the first time the net result of the census on live stock, which was taken last year under the auspices of the National Live Stock association.

The land question will come up, and it is likely that some decisive action will be taken regarding the public lands. Just what that action will be, is not foreshadowed at this time, but the stockmen feel that they are big enough to deal with it, and the attention of congress will doubtless be called to the subject in some manner.

The proposition to ask congress to pass a law that will prevent the people of this country from being imposed upon by wool manufacturers will be the subject of the most important question ever brought before the association, and simply means that the people pay more for a wool garment in the future they will know that they are buying wool, not shoddy and extension, as at present. Of course, the wool manufacturers will fight the proposition, but the stockmen and the people generally will be solid for it.

The question of irrigation as it relates to the public lands of the west will be discussed by the stockmen in this country, men who have made almost a life study of the question. The drought of the past season and its effects, the cattle situation in the arid states, the forest reserves, the question of grazing, the question of water rights, the question of the department will give pointers about poisonous plants on the range.

Dr. Salmon, chief of the bureau of animal industry, will inspect live stock and the agricultural colleges and experiment stations of a number of the states will be represented in the discussions.

And from this distinguished crowd of experts and officials, there will be the leading stockmen of the country, who will discuss the various proposals of a practical standpoint, and the net result will be the outlining of the policy for this great industry for another year.

With the exception of the first day, the convention will occupy but half of the day and the other half will be devoted to the great livestock show at the fair grounds, where the greatest gathering of live stock for exchange has ever before known in the world and it is doubtful if such a show will be seen again in years.

The monster new buildings, covering an area of 100 acres, will be the finest ever seen in this country, and in addition a large part of the pens in the yards will be utilized in showing the stock which will come from all parts of the world, Canada and England. One of the greatest features will be the slaughter of certain fat stock exhibited and a competition on the carcass will be held on foot. This was a big feature last year and stockmen learned some things about making meat that they never knew before. Last year the prize tender on the hoof did not even take place, and it is estimated that the value of the live stock that will be on exhibition will be close to $3,000,000.

Upon arrival in Chicago, delegates to the National Convention are urged to go to the headquarters in the Great Northern hotel immediately and register their names with the secretary. All persons holding round-trip tickets to the convention will be provided with badges and coupon books entitling them to all the courtesies being extended by the local committee on reception and arrangements. During the convention the registration books will be open at Studebaker's theater.

The headquarters of the association at the Great Northern are very convenient. The delegates to all the depots, street railways, elevated railways, and the principal hotels of the downtown district are close by. The special rates made by the railroad companies are in some instances for the National Live Stock convention and in others for the International Live Stock exposition, so delegates should inquire for both.

The ticket agency for the execution of return tickets in all points within the jurisdiction of the Western Passenger association will be located at room 419 Madison hotel, corner Jackson Boulevard and Dearborn streets, Chicago. The office hours will be from 8.00 a. m. to 10 p. m. week days, and from 9.00 a. m. to 6 p. m. on Saturdays. All persons holding round-trip tickets must have them executed at this office or they will not be accepted by the conductor.

VENERABLE LADY DIES.

Mrs. Martha Kimball Yields to the Ravages of Many Years.

Mrs. Martha Kimball, a widow of the Prophet Joseph Smith, died in Hooper yesterday at the age of 97 years. She was a native of New York state and was born March 17, 1805. Her first husband was Vinton Knight, whom she married in 1828. They both espoused the Mormon faith and went with the church through Illinois. Mr. Knight died on July 31, 1842, at Nauvoo after which she became the wife of the Prophet Joseph Smith. She crossed the plains in 1850 and settled in Ogden,

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I can recommend it with the most confidence. It is a good medicine for all coughs and colds and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine, I felt better and the cough and cold disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH E. BARNES, Thirty-seventh St., Des Moines, Va. For sale by all Druggists.
