BUY YOUR COAL NOW.

Advice That May Be Very Good to Follow—First Forty Shipment of Anthracite Today.

There is considerable speculation among dealers of coal in the local markets as to what will be the policy of D. O. Clark, the new Union Pacific coal and railroad superintendent who recently succeeded G. W. McGeatin in that position. They hardly know whether it will be one favorable to them or whether it will lean strongly towards the consumer.

That being the case his arrival here which it is hoped will be in the near future is anxiously awaited. Mr. Clark is not a stranger here by any means having been identified with the Union Pacific coal interests during the administration of Anthony Ghelli. At that time he was regarded as friendly to the people of Utah and Lock is so he seems to believe he has undergone any change in that respect.

Inquiry today brought out the information that there is very little coal being stored yet in the yards of either the Rio Grande or the Union Pacific for next winter's consumption. The last named sole dealer of importance is reported that it would be a wise envisioning for the people to lay in their supply now where they can afford to do so because of the possibilities of shortage when it is most needed. It is estimated that from 120,000 to 130,000 tons of coal (all kinds) will be needed to supply the season's trade.

The first forty shipment of anthracite came in this morning from Crested Butte, Colorado. There were six carloads in the consignment. Others will follow until enough has been laid in to last through the winter. In this connection the statement can be made with information to back it that there are no anthracite coal fields in Utah, or rather none have been discovered. Many experts, however, are of the opinion that beds of it will yet be found in the lower levels. The Utah trade is entirely supplied by the Crested Butte mines. At present it is selling at a special figure—$6.25 per ton—50 cents less than the regular rate. All dealers sell this at the same price. It is estimated that from 5,000 to 6,000 tons will supply the local trade this year.

SUNDAY OUTING ACCIDENT.

Several Persons Seriously Injured in a City Creek Canyon Runaway and Tip Over.

City Creek canyon was the scene of a very serious runaway and tip-over accident yesterday. The mishap occurred shortly before noon and the victims were Edward H. Morris, who was driving a double-seated top surrey, John E. Thomas and wife and Mrs. D. N. Morris, a sister of Mrs. Thomas.

The horses started to run away and Morris pulled at the reins with all his strength at his command and would probably have succeeded in preventing an accident but for the fact that Thomas also grabbed the lines and passed the animal round with such suddenness that it was on to some the vehicle to come into collision with a large boulder, completely overturning it and precipitating its occupants into the rocky bed near the south end of town corner No. 1.

The accident was witnessed by Mr. Perkins of the Eighteenth ward and that gentleman hastened to the police station where he notified the officers and in a very brief space of time Captain Dickson, Sergeant Ford and officer Gillespie were headed for the scene of the accident preceded in a hacky by Dr. Doty and an ambulance. They found that the victims had been very badly hurt, Mrs. Thomas was in a critical condition and was bleeding profusely from several scalp wounds. Her injuries were immediately attended to, after which she was removed home on a stretcher in the patrol wagon. Mr. Thomas was also very seriously hurt, receiving numerous cuts and bruises and a dislocated arm. Mr. and Mrs. Morris were similarly though not quite so severely injured. Altogether it was a very serious affair and the victims have much to be thankful for as under the circumstances it could have been much worse than it was.

Excursion Prizes.

Pedestrians passing along the east side of East Temple street invariably stop and mentally wonder what the heterogeneous assortment of merchandise artistically displayed in three of the large windows of Z. C. M. I. means. But a large card hung over the display informs one that these are the prizes to be given to the successful commutants at the Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. A. excursion to be held at Saltair Beach Friday, July 12th. There is hardly a marketable house in Salt Lake City, either large or small, that has not contributed a souvenir of value towards making this excursion a gala day in the annals of Saltair.

Military Election.

Saturday evening Co. I, National Guard of Utah, elected for captain, M. H. Graham; first lieutenant, E. F. Cowley; second lieutenant, J. F. Field.

There were three candidates for captaincy, Graham, Cowley and Field. Graham received sixteen of the twenty-three votes cast. Four candidates were in the field for first lieutenant, Cowley, Field, J. J. Johnson and J. W. Baker. Cowley received fifteen votes, Field, Johnson and Baker were candidates for second lieutenancy. Field received twelve of the twenty-three votes.

The Fourth at Parowan.

PAROWAN, Iron Co., Utah, July 4th, 1895.

Editor Deseret News:

Perhaps the most elaborate celebration of the Fourth of July ever held here was held today. The usual cannonading at break of day, holding of flags at sunrise, with music from our excellent brass, or rather silver, band under the leadership of Frank Barton.

At 9:30 a. m. a procession including young ladies representing every state and territory in the Union, clothed in white, with shields upon their arms graded with the stars and stripes, also wearing crowns upon their heads. In the procession were parties appropriately dressed and carrying suitable banners representing nearly every nation. After marching through several streets the procession went to the meeting house which, after they were seated, filled every corner of the house including temperance. After the opening exercises Miss Mae Montgal, of the Presbyterian church, read very finely the Declaration of Independence, after which Orator of the Day Joseph F. Metringer, a graduate of the B. Y. academy at Provo, also lately a graduate of the law school of the University of Michigan, delivered a most able and eloquent historical oration, showing up the labors and great wisdom of the fathers and saviors of our country, and urging the present generation to be ready to follow their example if necessary, etc. The parties representing the different nations sang songs, showing up the glory of each land, after which they all joined together and sang "The Song of All Nations," the tenor of which was: "We love yet these different lands, America is now our home, and will be forever" and as they sang the last verse they dropped or threw down the banners they had been bearing and each one picked up a flag, in stars and stripes, and waved them on high till the end of the song. It was a splendid effect and went off nicely. Miss Ella Page, representing the Goddess of Liberty, made a neat speech. Miss Gertrude Wilson, representing Uncle Sam, sang the Star Spangled Banner in good style.

The day has been a most enjoyable one and a warm spirit of patriotism marked the whole proceedings. Our choir, who are always on hand, did a full share to make the day a complete success. Donald A. Metringer acted as marshal of the day and did good service.

Committee on arrangements: L. D. Walker, chairman; Ella Rasmussen, Alma Gertrude Wilson, Ida Durham, Enoch Rasmussen, Mayor Wm. Holyoak. IVEN.

Rambler

Cutler takes the novice with hardly an exertion.

Teacher, well, Frank has been doing something since he got onto a good wheel. Did you see him on June 19? Break the world's quarter mile record! And how he did make things whizz on the Fourth, when he took the mounter and ten-yards mile, nearly breaking the time record, and that too against a wind fresh enough to blow a mount of your turbines. And how Weiss did ride in the one mile scratch event. Why, his competition did not seem to be in it for a moment; and then came Smith, First and Metzger, taking seconds and thirds, till you could not help but cry out, "'Tis a Rambler's day."

Why don't you ride a good wheel? Cutler and see them.
