MOUNT PLEASANT.

A Serious Runaway—Sad End of a Young Life of Promise.

Special Correspondence.

Mt. Pleasant, August 25, May 26.—Yesterday Leo Burnett met with a sad accident as he was hitching up his team, they became frightened and ran away; his mother was also in the wagon. In attempting to stop them he was knocked down and run over, being badly injured; his mother also received a very bad scratch as she left the team run a long distance before they were stopped. The young man is in a critical condition.

DEATH OF WILLIAM CLARK.

Another sad affair happened yesterday. William Clark, a young man, son of Orvin Clark, who, with his family, was removing to Idaho, when about 15 or 16 miles from town and near Moroni, took suddenly ill and died in the wagon. What adds to the sadness of the occasion was the fact that he was married but a week before, and his young bride is heartbroken. A sad groom has been cast over the community in seeing a young man just starting out in life and without warning to be thus stricken down.

Special per Deseret Telegraph.

Mount Pleasant, May 27.—William Clark of Mt. Pleasant was married on the 14th of May to Miss Rosie Kump, daughter of Zacharia Kump of Chester. They, with a large company of other settlers, started from Mt. Pleasant on the 20th for Idaho and when near Moroni young Clark, who was very sick with bowel complaint, died in the wagon, the company stopped in the hills, took the teams off, and returned to Mt. Pleasant.

VERNAL.

Stake and Mutual Conference—Cool Weather—Wool Sale.

Special Correspondence.

Vernal, May 25.—The Stake conference just ended is universally spoken of as one of the best ever held. All seemed to enjoy themselves and the attendance was so large that meetings had to be held in the meeting house on account of the inadequate seating capacity of the meeting house. Many people express themselves as being anxious to commence the building of a Stake tabernacle. If the work was to be commenced now there would be a general response and the people would contribute liberally for the cause. Work is being pushed on the Tithing office building, the plaster has already been secured, and it is hoped the building will soon be in a habitable condition.

The conference was visited by Elders Rulon S. Wells and Joseph W. McMurrin of the Seventy, and Brothers Hyrum and Campbell of the board of aids of the Y. L. M. I. A.

The weather is still cold and windy, and snow fell on the mountains last night. The streams are barely rolled with high water yet while usually at this season they are at their highest.

FILLMORE.

Good Effect of President Snow's Visit—News Briefs.

Special Correspondence.

Fillmore, Millard Co., May 25.—The visit from the President of the Church was very much appreciated here. His remarks were timely and appropriate, as were also the remarks of the brethren who were associated with him. Many expressions of gratitude were heard today as a result of the visit of the presidential party, and many resolutions have been made to live nearer to God in the future than in the past.

Preparations are being made for the reunion of the pioneers of May 24. It is expected that a large number of our citizens will visit the cemetery and decorate the graves of the loved ones who have passed away.

W. Alma Smith, who has been working for the Horlock Land and Irrigation company, at Snake valley, returned home last Monday. He says that work is being pushed vigorously on that enterprise.

PRICE.

Building Boom—No Drinks on Sunday—Ward Conferences.

Special Correspondence.

Price, Utah, May 25.—This year promises to see more building in Price than any year previous in the history of the town. Among the buildings to be erected is a handsome brick construction in that of the Grand Hotel, a local company, to be of brick, plate glass front, and modern in every way. This will be the finest hotel in Price, to be used for banking and mercantile purposes. Louis Lewandecki, grocery merchant, has on the ground for a two-story brick building. Dan Peck, the hotel man, is to be fitted up for an opera house and probably a public hall. Architect Ware is made ready the plans. A new school building will go skyward. This will be a two-story brick, and will be of such proportions as to allow the growth of the town to go to it for five or five years to come. The school facilities are such that there are two hundred children with a seating capacity of one hundred and forty, and two hundred. The Price Trading company has for some time been contemplating the construction of a brick building 40x60 feet, and this is not to take definite shape are the brick making season has gone by, but to be one of numerous modern dwelling houses and other substantial buildings.

Dancing and drinking were done on the 12th of June. There are no new civil cases, but there or four criminal cases that have come to the surface. Two of these among which is that of Charles Brady and Peter Sheridan, who will answer to the criminal charge of just breaking. Both are being held on charges of criminal assault. Brady has already served one term in the Utah penitentiary for the same offense.

DRY SUNDAY.

City Marshal Anderson is rapidly enforcing the ordinances against gambling and Sunday closing of saloons. Drinks were not obtainable in Price last Sunday and it is believed will not be for many Sundays to come.

Presiding Elder and counselors, John H. Peter and H. C. Martin, and secretary A. W. Horsley, go to Emery county tomorrow where each conference will be held in several towns Sunday and Monday, returning to Price Monday evening.

CASTLE GATE.

Prominent Visitors to K. of P.—Testing a New Heating Apparatus.

Special Correspondence.

Castle Gate, Carbon Co., May 25.—The Knights of Pythias tonight will have the pleasure of having with them some of the Grand Lodge officers. H. C. Wardleigh of Ogden, G. E. R., and others are here to meet in session with the lodge members. Castle Gate has the released honor of being one of the most progressive lodges in the intermountain region. The Castle Hall has been of late under the improvements and is a credit to the energy and enterprise of its members. The upper hall has been recently rented, and a large part has been in the hands of the Brethren families of Mount Pleasant, desirables, who have come here to drive a large amount of work in some pending, etc.

TESTING NEW HEATING APPARATUS.

Paymaster Carpenter of the P. V. Coal Co., with several other good men, came in on No. 2 yesterday for the purpose of examining the operations of the Adamson system of heating. The latter has not been put under one of the boilers in the power house. After making a thorough test of the system they returned on No. 1 last evening to the city.

The Fighting Fifteenth regiment will pass through here on morning, but when they come to the town they had to be held for a short time to allow the boilers to cool. This will give the inhabitants an opportunity of conversing with some of the heroes of Cuba and Manila. The boys will shake hands with the mayor of the company, a little once as black as the ace of spades, but he is proud of was born in the South. He had one of his exploits in Cuba and what he did exploits in the Philippines which they got among the Filipinos.
