MOTHER AND BABE BURIED.

Funeral of Mrs. Neils Bergsjo, Victim Of Drowning Accident.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., July 12.—H. T. Kubis and E. C. Nelson have filed suit against the Salt Lake Brewing company et al. to recover $175, claimed due them on account of the latter's failure to carry out a contract entered into with them for the purchase of the Oak saloon.

The funeral of Mrs. Niels Bergsjo, who was drowned in Logan river Sunday and her 20-months-old babe, which died on Tuesday from the effects of injuries received at the time of the accident, was held in the Fourth ward hall Wednesday afternoon, a large number of friends being in attendance. Bishop T. X. Smith presided at the services. Remarks were made by H. J. Nielsen, President Isaac Smith, Andreas Petersen, John Anderson and Bishop Smith.

C. W. Hansen, son of N. M. Hansen, and Miss Jennie Eliason, daughter of Andrew Eliason, two of Logan's most popular young people, were married in the Logan temple today. A reception will be tendered the young people by their legion of friends at the Eliason home in the Fourth ward this evening.

The location of the new federal building is now agitating Logan business men, the Center street people will work hard for a site on their street a block west of Thatcher's bank, while the merchants on First North will work for its location on the corner west of the postoffice.

Judge Rolapp is booked for an address before the Sunday school workers of Cache stake at the B. Y. college Sunday next.

Annie B. Phillips and her daughter Anna are home from a two years' sojourn in Germany, where Miss Anna has been taking a special course in music.

The stake presidency have assigned members of the high council to visit the various wards of the stake as missionaries, Sunday, July 15.

Prof. J. H. Paul and Judge W. H. King of Salt Lake were Logan visitors yesterday.

Reports from all parts of Cache county indicate that prospects for a large beet crop never looked more promising. Indications are that the yield will be larger than ever before.

WEDDING PERMITS.

The following people were granted permits to wed Wednesday:

Norman Stoddard, 22, and Jessie Hill, 24, both of Baker City, Or.

Alfred Hansen, 22, of Logan, and Nancy Glenn, 18, of La Grande, Or.

Charles R. Wheeler, 25, and Ada Bright, 25, both of Lewiston.

Joseph Taysom, 22, and Chloe Jane Allred, 18, both of Afton, Wyo.

C. W. Hansen, 28, Jennie C. Eliason, 23, Logan.

Thomas Clegg, 60, and Ann Eliza Edwards, 33, both of Logan.

H. W. Young, 26, of Ora, Ida., and Lucy J. Thomas, 24, of Shelly, Ida.

Louis Anderson 25, and Julia Anderson, 25, both of Richmond.

Isaac Read, Jr., 24, and Florence Roskelley, 21, both of Smithfield.

Joseph M. Jensen, 20, and Millie Obray, 18, both of Milliville.

GRANTSVILLE.

WILL HONOR PIONEER DAY.

Prospective Weddings—Primary Festival—Committee for the 24th.

Special Correspondence.

Grantsville, Tooele Co., July 10.—Miss Lois Wrathall and her sister, Eva, have just returned from a prolonged pleasure trip to California.

The first crop of lucern is in the stack, and the farmers anticipate a big harvest of grain.

The Grantsville baseball team got a severe drubbing from the Tooele boys last Friday, the game standing 11 to 30.

PIONEER DAY.

Following is the committee for the 24th of July celebration: John T. Flinders, R. M. Robinson, Ray Green, A. G. Sandberg, Frank R. Clark, E. G. Erickson, Robert R. Judd, chairman.

PROSPECTIVE WEDDINGS.

Dame Rumor announces the following marriages in the near future:

Alice Johnson to Robert McMichal; Jennie Anderson to Frank R. Clark; Marintha Ratcliffe to Richard Palmer, Vinnie Clark to Edward Anderson.

The stake priesthood meeting was held here last Saturday in the Relief society hall, the stake presidency presiding. After the adjournment President Gowans invited all to accompany him to the meetinghouse; arriving there in a body they found a convention of the stake Primary association in session, with its stake president, Sister Annie Huntington, presiding; nearly every ward in the stake being represented. A fine program was rendered.

A presentation was made to the retiring stake officers, Sisters Louisa Hale, Annie Atkin, Louisa Fawson, were each presented with a beautiful rocking chair, and Sister Agnes Rowberry, with a picture of lovely pansies. President Gowans, in a few timely remarks, made the presentation, and each of the sisters afterward expressed themselves as fully appreciative of the gifts bestowed upon them for their past labors by the association. The entire company then retired to the grove, where tables were spread with ice cream and cake and partook of refreshments, everybody enjoying themselves in the fullest.

RICHFIELD.

QUIET SCHOOL ELECTION.

Stewart-Stocks Nuptials—Hansen Divorce Case—High Price of Hay.

Special Correspondence.

Richfield, Sevier Co., July 10.—The school election held here yesterday passed very quietly, only 36 votes being cast, all being for Mrs. Minnie Bean, the only candidate. The report of the school trustees showed the past year to have been one of marked success. It was decided at the meeting to increase the bonded indebtedness of the district $5,500 to be used in the completion of the new school building now in course of erection, this amount being in addition to the $30,000 issue last spring.

HANSEN DIVORCE CASE.

The district court had under consideration today the divorce case of Karen Maria Hansen vs Heber Hansen. After hearing the evidence the decree was granted with $10 per month alimony for the first year and $5 per month thereafter. The plaintiff was also given the custody of two minor children and given the home in Redmond where the parties reside.

STEWART-STOCKS NUPTIALS.

A marriage license has been issued to James Stocks of Marysvale and Birdie Stewart of Inverury. The parties were married at the court house, the county clerk performing the ceremony.

On account of a partial failure of the lucern crop, hay is bringing almost twice the price of former years. The price paid is $6 per ton in the field. It appears to be only the lucern growing on the lower lands that is affected, the higher lands producing good crops. Some of the farmers think that the failure of the crop is due to too much water.

RANDOLPH.

PIONEER CITIZEN MOURNED.

Olavus Jacobson, a Handcart Veteran Of '57, Succumbs to Long Sickness.

Special Correspondence.

Randolph, Utah, July 10.—This ward mourns the loss of one of its most honored and beloved citizens, Olavus Jacobson, who departed this life July 5, after an illness of four years, of chronic kidney trouble, at the age of 60 years, 7 months and 10 days. He was born in Christiania, Norway, Nov. 25, 1845, and immigrated with his mother, Ingaber Oleson, to America, when he was 11 years old, crossed the plains with a handcart company, arriving in Salt Lake City, Sept. 13, 1857. Was baptized at Cottonwood the same year, and went south at the time of the big move. In the spring of 1866, went east with an ox train from Morgan City, as far as Council Bluffs, Ia., to assist a company of immigrants to Utah. On Nov. 2, 1867, he was married to Mary A. Parker, at Morgan, Utah, where he resided until 1871, when he moved here to Randolph, and with the early settlers assisted in pioneering and building up this place. He was an energetic worker in both Church and state. He was universally beloved by all who knew him. He labored as a member of the bishopric for 20 years. Fifteen years with A. McKinnon and Geo. A. Peart, in the Randolph ward, and five years with Bishop John Kennedy and Jos. E. Hatch, in the Argyle ward. He also labored as superintendent of the Argyle Sunday school for five years. He was the father of 11 children, nine of whom, with his wife, survive him. He also leaves 27 grandchildhen and a host of friends to mourn his departure. The funeral services were held in the ward tabernacle. The following eulogized the life and labors of the departed: L. D. Pearce, O. J. Spencer, John Snowball, Geo. A. Peart, President A. McKinnon and Bishop John C. Gray of Randolph, and A. C. Call, T. J. Tingey and President J. M. Baxter of Woodruff, and Bishop John Kennedy of Argyle.

WORLAND, WYO.

RESCUED FROM WATERY GRAVE

Alvin Merkley Has Narrow Escape in Big Horn River.

Special Correspondence.

Worland, Wyo., July 12.—Alvin Merkley, while fording the Big Horn river, had a narrow escape from drowning. His team was swept away and he was compelled to seize the wagon box and float down stream to a sand bar, where he was rescued.

PITCHER JENSEN A BIG LEAGUER

Salt Lake Boy Off for New York to Report for Duty.

CLARK GRIFFITH HAS HIM.

New York American Magnate Has Sent Transportaion and Will Give the Boy a Trial.

Salt Lake has long wanted to have a native son on a big eastern baseball league. Nearly every other western town has had some youngster make good in the east, but Salt Lake's contingent has always fallen down, and come "back to the sagebrush." Salt Lake has lived under a cloud in a baseball way, possibly because with Saltair, the bike races, the canyons, and so many other amusements, there hasn't been enough people to go around, for few cities have had the accumulation of attractions that Salt Lake has.

For all of these reasons, the watchful eye of the community will follow the fortunes of Irving Jensen in New York. Jensen secured his transportation last night, and today leaves to report for duty to Clark Griffith in New York. It is quite a lift for the youngster, and what he will do is of course a question. There is a poem almost as famous as Casey, that deals with the British leaguer who went, and was tried, and then returned by freight, right side up, without care.

Jensen started his career as a Salt Lake pitcher five years ago when Harry Joseph was a promising magnate, and Jensen was a street car conductor. He fizzled out that year, and was tried out variously in the west in following years, until this year when he has made good with the Salt Lake team. His pitching this year has been exceptionally good, and promises him a fair future. He seems to have plenty of confidence, and this item will figure very largely in his future, as it is easy to "fall down" in big league company through getting an attack of stage fright. Then, again, big league players, jealous of their own "crowd" often "throw" a new western pitcher. That is, the team fails to render support at critical moments and lets the man develop a "queer" if they can. Ovie Overall fizzed out that way at Cincinnati last year, and this year is leading the Chicago cubs to good victories. If Jensen gets off without at least one year of falling down, his career will be exceptional.

The position was secured for the Salt Lake twirler through a friend of Clark Griffith in this city, who boosted the pitcher to him. He has confidence Jensen will make good.

AMERICAN SWIMMER WINS.

NEW GOLFER WILL DISPLACE EGAN

Champion of Two Seasons is Defeated in Englewood Tourney.

CANADIAN PUTS HIM OUT.

Geo. S. Lyon Led Him Almost Every inch of the Way and Won at Twentieth Hole.

Englewood, N. J., July 12.—George S. Lyon of Toronto, Can., put H. Chandler Egan of Chicago out of the amateur golf championship in the second round of the match play on the Englewood Golf club's course today. Egan was fighting hard to retain the championship title, which he had cleverly won and held during the last two years, but Lyon led him almost every inch of the way and finally won out on the twentieth hole.

Egan played poorly this afternoon and by missing a seemingly easy putt on the home hole, lost the match after he was one up at the seventeenth hole, where by good work Lyon should have had a halve. Both players drove the home green. Lyon then having a treacherous approach putt shot to inside. Egan rimmed the cup on his third shot, while Lyon got down in three, making the match a tie. They halved the nineteenth in four and Lyon won out with a well played four on the twentieth green.

The defeat of the champion was not the only feature of the day, however, as Walter J. Travis, the former American and British amateur champion, made a new amateur record of 74 for the course.

Dr. Carr of Philadelphia defeated Fred Herreshoff of Garden City by 4 up and 2 to play. Dr. Carr made the run in 76 and Herreshoff took 80.

H. Chandler Egan, Chicago, beat P. W. Whittemore, Boston, 6 up and 5 to play. Egan won easily, going out in 37. They did not play out the bye holes.

H. R. Johnstone, Boston, beat D. M. Cole, Westfield, Mass., 5 up, 3 to play.

W. P. Smith, Philadelphia, beat Max Behr, Morristown, N. J., 4 up, 3 to play.

Ellis Knowles, Bedford, N. Y., beat Thomas M. Sherman New Rochelle, 4 up 3 to play.

G. P. Tiffany, Newburgh, beat S. D. Bowers, Bridgeport, 3 up 1 to play.

Jerome D. Travers, Nassau, beat Percy Pyne second, Princeton, 7 up 5 to play.

D. P. Fredericks, Oil City, beat Harold Weber, Toledo, 1 up 19 holes.

H. S. Lyon, Toronto, beat E. M. Barnes, Englewood, 3 up 1 to play.

W. T. West, Philadelphia, beat M. Whitlach, Montclair 3 up 2 to play.

Walter J. Travis Garden City beat A. M. Reid, St. Andrews, 5 up 4 to play.

J. G. Anderson beat Harold Wilcox, 3 up and 1 to play.

George T. Brokaw, Garden City, beat Murray Glyphant, Englewood, 3 up 2 to play.

E. H. Bankhard, Jr., Baltimore, beat B. S. Evans, Boston, 3 up 1 to play.

Walter J. Travis, former American and British amateur champion, played a fine game, making the round of the course in 74. This is the best score made since the tournament began. He won by 5 up and 4 to play and his 74 makes a new amateur competitive record for the rearranged links.

Archie Graham of Paterson, N. J., defeated C. E. Van Vleck, Jr., of New York, 3 up 1 to play.

It Costs Nothing

To find out for a certainty whether or not your heart is affected. One person in four has a weak heart; it may be you. If so, you should know it now, and save serious consequences. If you have short breath, fluttering, palpitation, hungry spells, hot flushes; if you cannot lie on left side; if you have fainting or smothering spells, pain around heart, in side and arms, your heart is weak, and perhaps diseased. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will relieve you. Try a bottle, and see how quickly your condition will improve.

"About a year ago I wrote to the Miles Medical Co. asking advice, as I was suffering with heart trouble, and had been for two years. I had pain in my heart, back and left side, and had not been able to draw a deep breath for two years. Any little exertion would cause palpitation, and I could not lie on my left side without suffering. They advised me to try Dr. Miles Heart Cure and Nervine, which I did with the result that I am in better health than I ever was before, having gained 14 pounds since I commenced taking it. I took about thirteen bottles of the two medicines, and haven't been bothered with my heart since." MRS. LILLIE THOMAS, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.
