WESTERNS BEATEN WITHOUT TROUBLE

Short Lines Subdue Their Rivals with Ease and Grace.

SCORE FIFTEEN TO FIVE.

Fearful Calm Relaxed at Lagoon—The Empire Gate Satisfaction and the Olive Branch Planted.

The Short Lines and the Rio Grande Westerns met on the Lagoon arena yesterday afternoon and indulged in a game of baseball. As the Short Lines were generally conceded their own previously and everything their own way, it was definitely a moulded affair. The olive branch, however, waved at the result, there was no necessity resembling for Empire Days of Ogden days for decorum with sensationism and impartiality in a fashion that was to the eager satisfaction of even a Sunday school. Greg Smith, the Westerns' pitcher, proved to be somewhat erratic and the lads had no great difficulty in finding him and speaking the sphere for sixteen hits, including three two-baggers. Martin, Graham and McCausland of the out league team, were with the H. G. W's. The life were in their good will from first to first. "Adonis Smith" got hit with the ball twice, the second time he received one on the shoulder, established a new bump on the phrenological chart and altogether was a hasty exit.

Guthrie, for the Shorts, was in good form and until the seventh he had the Rio Grande down to one hit, after that the Westerns tapped loose and he went up in the air for three singles and a double.

The Short Lines eventually won by the score of 15 to 5.

In Chicago the Orphans Sent the Pitcher of Rods Up in Air and Won Easily.

Three games were played in the East yesterday. St. Louis contracted to jail Louisville and Cleveland on the shelf, the Perfectos fulfilled their undertaking and succeeded in making the score 10-4 in both cases. At Chicago the Orphans busted the Rods owing to Taylor's good work, his curves being altogether too much for the Cincinnati nine.
