

NEW SHORT LINE TICKET OFFICES.

Handsone Quarters for the Harriman Roads in Salt Lake.

WILL BE OPENED MONDAY.

This City Now Has One of the Finest Railroad Offices in the West—News of the Roads.

On Monday the handsome new Harriman ticket offices on the corner of Second South and East Temple streets will be occupied by the Oregon Short Line and the Union Pacific Coal company's agency.

These of the traveling public whose business has taken them in days gone by into the old Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line and Oregon Railroad & Navigation company's ticket offices at 201 south, East Temple street will not recognize the old site, so great a change has been effected at the hands of the workmen who have been employed on the new offices. The whole interior has been torn out, the partitions removed and unsightly features eradicated. In their place the offices extend the whole width of the canyon block. They are light, airy and handsome. The prime effect is in shades of green and rich mahogany.

On entering the main doors the visitor passes between elegantly carpeted windows backed by art brass railings.
To his right is the solid mahogany polished counter, which traverses two-thirds of the office in the form of an imaginary letter E. The counter is also furnished with a base of polished green marble, kept in position by nickel screws. The footfall of the visitor are deadened by the inlaid rubber slabs which covers an area of 473 square feet in the lobby. This floor covering is a novelty in Salt Lake is said to last longer than any material and costs $1.75 a square foot. The general effect of the green walls, with a dark and dapper shade surmounted by a strip of mahogany, is very soothing to the eye, and is greatly enhanced by mahogany colored stripes around the border.

Immediately inside the doorway is situated the ticket department furnished with a handsome ticket case surmounted by a large clock case, both made of the prevailing tropical wood.
East of this department are placed the desks for the coal offices, while at the back of the office are situated two commodious rooms for the general agent and his assistants, also a store and filing room. The partitions for these private offices are composed of carved mahogany and ground plate glass. In keeping with the fittings the new quarters are furnished throughout in a style commensurate with the general idea of General Passenger Agent Burley. Seven handsomely carved roller-topped and three telephone desks and a number of mahogany velvet chairs go to make up the office furniture. Outside the counter in the lobby the general public is taken care of to the extent of three long benches of solid mahogany whereon they may sit in the advent of a rush of business.

Taken all in all the Oregon Short line ticket offices are away ahead, the handsome of the prevailing tropical wood second to none to any in the West, everything in them is new from the four-up-to-date are lights to the window shades. The Short Line is to be congratulated on its new quarters, which will undoubtedly be one of the indirect means of extensively advertising Salt Lake City and her resources.

R. G. W. vs Short Line.

The Rio Grande Western Railway company has commenced a condemnation suit against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company for a crossing over the Short Line track near the American Smelting and Refining company's works. The claim is that the two railroads jointly purchased a 70-foot strip of ground for a siding to be used by both in reaching the smelting works. To do so the Rio Grande must cross the Short Line tracks and the two railroads are unable to come to terms on this matter.

turned from Denver this morning, where he has been in consultation with Major Hooper regarding passenger and traffic affairs. When seen this morning he stated that the visit was of purely business and routine nature. Asked whether he would appoint a chief clerk of the passenger department, to fill the chair made vacant by George Asper resigning last week, he said that W. F. Skinner would continue to be acting chief clerk for an indefinite period—in fact, he did not know whether a chief clerk would be appointed at all.

BERT STONE CONVICTED.

Sentenced to Term of One Year for Horse Stealing.

Bert Stone pleaded guilty this morning to having stolen a $125 horse from Brown. Stone was recently convicted of stealing a horse from R. J. Jernsey and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Attorney A. A. Duncan asked before sentence was pronounced that the court show all due leniency, and already the sentence is run concurrently.
Judge Stewart considered that he would be exercising a proper degree of clemency in sentencing Stone to a year's imprisonment, and accordingly imposed a sentence for that term to commence at the expiration of his three years term.

SIX MONTHS IMPRISONMENT.

Joseph T. Edwards Convicted of Petit Larceny.

Joseph T. Edwards was arraigned before Judge Stewart this morning on a charge of petit larceny. He pleaded guilty, waived trial and was sentenced to a term of five months in the county jail. Edwards stole two pairs of trousers, valued at $2.50 each from Samuel Appleman on June 25th.

SEQUEL TO ACCIDENT.

James H. Payne Sues the Rapid Transit for $5,000 Damages.

James H. Payne has commenced an action for $5,000 damages against the Salt Lake Rapid Transit company.
Payne, who is a painter, alleges that on June 10th, he was riding on the front platform of a car going to Caldwell Park, that when the switch at East streets was reached the rear wheels of the car refused to take the switch, and the front end of the car was thereby thrown against a pole, between which and the front of the car he was severely crushed.

SHEEP CASE.

Decision in Favor of Plaintiff in Turnbow vs. Beckstead Suit.

Judge Stewart decided the Turnbow-Beckstead sheep case today in favor of the plaintiff. The court rules that John G. Turnbow recovered from Martin Beckstead 1,430 sheep, or their value, $5,720. Beckstead is also to make an accounting to Turnbow for the wool sheared from the sheep since the commencement of the action, and, in case the wool cannot be delivered, to pay Turnbow a sum amounting to the value of the wool less the expense of shearing and marketing. All the increase from the flock since the commencement of the suit are also to be turned over to Turnbow. Beckstead is allowed $1,000 for caring for and keeping the sheep.

Short Orders.

Judge Morse made the following orders today, which practically clears off all the cases from the calendar of the civil division of the third district court for the April term:

es overruled. 20 days to answer.

under advisement till 10 o'clock Monday morning.

husband who was run over by a passenger train at the Murray crossing.

Nothing Tastes Good

And eating is simply perfur-tory—done because it must be.

This is the common complaint of the dyspeptic.

If eating sparingly would cure dyspepsia, few would suffer from it long.

The only way to cure dyspepsia, which is difficult digestion, is to give vigor and tone to the stomach and the whole digestive system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured the niece of Frank Fay, 106 N. St., South Boston, Mass., who writes that she had been a great sufferer from dyspepsia for six years; had been without sleep and had been troubled with sour stomach and headache. She had tried many other medicines in vain. Two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla made her well.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. Don't wait till you are worse, but buy a bottle today.

CLEMENCY FOR BATH HOUSE THIEF

Judge McMaster Makes Strong Plea for William Timson.

A VICTIM OF BAD COMPANY.

George Gross, His Companion, Is Sent to the Reform School—Timson Wants to Go to Oregon.

Attorney Alexander McMaster made a strong plea this morning that William Timson, one of the 15-year-old Salt Lake bathhouse thieves, be released from custody. Timson yesterday pleaded guilty, and was ordered to appear for sentence this morning. The other boy, George Gross, was yesterday committed to the reform school, but Judge McMaster said that he had been at particular pains to look up Timson's antecedents, visiting his friends and relatives, and he found that Timson was not naturally a bad boy, but a victim of bad company, which had led him into his present trouble. He asked the court that sentence be suspended in order that young Timson might go to live with an uncle farming in Oregon. The boy's father, he said, was mining in Nevada.

Judge Stewart inquired if transportation to the uncle in Oregon was obtainable. Judge McMaster thought that the relatives here would be able to furnish it, and the case was taken under advisement till 10 o'clock Monday morning.
