H. WILLIAMS & Co.,
San Francisco, Cal.

I, Thomas Cracroft, Painter, 10th Ward, Salt Lake City, Utah, wish to notify the public, that my wife bought a quarter of a pound of Dr. Plant's Cough Lozenges, for which she paid 25 cents; they have entirely cured me, after suffering all winter with a cough, so much so that I had no rest day or night. I can fully recommend the same to all my friends. He also says that they are an excellent remedy for Whooping Cough.

THOS. CRACROFT.

A beautiful head of hair is appreciated by everybody, and how to secure it, interests everybody. The hair and scalp must be kept free from scurf and dandruff, and not be allowed to get dry and harsh. The roots must be stimulated to healthy action. Flexibility and a handsome gloss are essential. All these requisites are easily secured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor.

A SENSIBLE LADY.
Not long since one of our principal physicians was called on to visit a patient who was suffering from a severe cold, and which had become seated on her lungs. He continued for some time prescribing expensive prescriptions for the lady, and she, poor thing, gobbling down the nauseous preparations, with no improvement. At last she was induced by her uncle to try Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, and before she had used one bottle of this wonderful medicine, she could see a decided improvement, and three bottles cured her. Cost only 50 cents a bottle at all druggists. Depot, Crittenton's Patent Medicine Warehouse. The dollar size is the most economical for general use.
