SECOND EDITION.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Copy for Advertisements which are expected to appear in the Morning Edition on the day when received should be handed in to the business department not later than 12 M.

Rates of Advertising furnished upon application.

Copy for advertisements must be in after hours.

Saturday, October 31, 1891.

FRAGMENTS.

SOWING on the sea are now being held on Marble Island.

THE Oquirrh Beach and Blue Stack company has filed articles of incorporation with the Territorial Secretary.

TOMMY Miss Kate Field will deliver her lecture on the Territories of "Alaska and Utah," in the Salt Lake Tabernacle.

THE Sons of St. George will give another social on Wednesday evening next, in the Temple of Honor Hall. All Brothers and their friends are invited.

THE Union Pacific has offered reduced rates to and from all points on its line between Logan and Pleasant Grove, for those attending Chorus concerts, to be held in the Tabernacle in this city.

MR. CLAIR, general traveling auditor of the Union Pacific, is in this city today transferring the accounts of T. B. Shaller, who recently retired from the company's coal department, to Mr. C. Adams, who succeeded him.

A DEAD man who read the article in last evening's issue headed "Cremation Fashionable," is said to be writing a revised composition which will bear the title of "Fashionable Cremation." Or, "Telling Your Troubles to a Reporter."

JOHN COLLINS, J. H. Montgomery, Eph Rolly and Mary Jolgenson were the witnesses before the Grand Jurors this today. They were convicted of drunkenness and fined $1 each, and in default of payment were sent to jail.

A MESSAGE from Great Falls, under date of October 30th, says that Mr. C. Bennett of Salt Lake City, was married to Miss Belle Rosecrs of Pacific Beach, Oregon, at the Park Hotel, on the evening of the 29th inst.

PROFESSOR STROUT, of the Chamber of Commerce, has received a communication from Vice-President Morton, of the United States, acknowledging the receipt of the resolutions on the silver question recently passed by the Chamber of Commerce in this city. They will be laid before the Senate at the next session.

A MORE than hundred persons were present at the Masonic reception and ball of the Salt Lake Calednonian Club, held at Mark's Hall, last evening. Some songs and personal entertainment formed the first part of the programme, and the affair wound up with dancing. The gathering was a pretty one, and all who took part will long remember the occasion.

Elder Thomsen's Funeral.

The funeral services over the remains of Elder P. O. Thomsen were conducted at the Latter-day Saints' Chapel of the Eighteenth ward, yesterday afternoon, Bishop Whitney presiding. The building was filled on the occasion, with the relatives and friends of the deceased. The opening prayer was offered by Counselor Robert Patrick. The speakers were, in the order in which they addressed the congregation: Elders Neve, Sansom, Lamon, Ure and Jensen. Some closing remarks were also made by Counselor Patrick and Bishop Whitney. Benediction was pronounced by Counselor William H. Barton. The musical exercises were beautifully rendered by the Scandinavian choir.

An Affecting Scene.

There was an affecting scene at the city cemetery yesterday. A large number of friends of Brother Wm. D. Owen surrounded a newly one grave in which the remains of his five-year-old daughter were about to be laid. The little one had died of diphtheria. Services were held and words of consolation spoken by Elders Foulger and Tuft. A prayer was then sung by the choir, led by Brother McIntyre. The sympathy for the bereaved family was great. The mother of the little one could not attend the last rites over the remains of her daughter, as she was confined at home by illness, and anxiously waiting for a boy, who was there afflicted with the same disease that carried his sister off. At the boy's request the choir, after the service, went to the house and, standing in the hall, sang a hymn. May the words of consolation rest upon the afflicted household.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.

Gillmore's Famous Band in the Grand Tabernacle.

Probably the greatest Festival in Gillmore's extended tour will be given in the large Tabernacle on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and Saturday afternoon next. For this occasion a chorus of 50 voices have been in training under Prof. Stephens. Besides, there will be a chorus of school children and the large organ. It is said to have is the band, which Mr. Gillmore has so long made famous, and four soloists, who are the most celebrated in the country. Concerning the trip that we ship an account of their recent appearance in St. Louis from the Globe-Democrat:

"The Misses Emilie and Emma Schoendienst, soprano and alto, captivated the audience in their duet and had to appear three times before the audience were satisfied. Miss Emilie has a high soprano, the tones clear and liquid and of great carrying quality, while Miss Emma has a rich alto voice, the tones being in perfect harmony with the voice, the tones being in perfect harmony with the voice, the tones being in perfect harmony with the