FRAGMENTS.

A NEW four-roomed brick cottage for rent. See advertisement.

TOMORROW'S session of the City Council will be an interesting one.

THE Eighth ward Sunday school went for their excursion to Calder's Park today.

RACING and the driving of Liberty Park have been increasing at an alarming rate, and the danger to pedestrians is very manifest.

THE people of Farmington are worried with the tramp insanity. Several attempted burglaries have been reported within the last few days.

THERE are messages at the Western Union Telegraph office for Rev. Joseph Flint, Louie Canning, George A. Arbuckle, Mrs. Ella Wallace and Miss A. Clark.

THIS evening there will be a meeting of the Liberal Union Association, for the purpose of discussing the action of Chief of Police Paul in enforcing the absolute closing of saloons on Sundays.

IT is said that the select committee of five will exonerate the councilmen recently reprimanded by Mayor Baskin. As to Police Justice Lewis's case, it seems to have been just to stay for the present.

W. H. BAYLISS has entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of embezzlement, and was to have a hearing before Commissioner Pratt this afternoon. The complainant is Albert Lebsen, and he alleges that the defendant has appropriated money belonging to him.

THE two boys of the Twenty-first ward, Whitehead and Clark, who were before Commissioner Greenman yesterday on a charge of malicious mischief (as stated in Monday's NEWS), were allowed to depart on their own recognizances, on the issue of each promising that his son should in forthcoming if again called upon.

THE colored contingent of this city gave an interesting informal musicale at Mayor Baskin's spacious residence last night. The instrumental and vocal selections were first rate and received in a manner that proved the performers to have genuine ability. Judge Zane, Judge Anderson and Judge McKay were among the Mayor's guests.

THE initial trip over the city railway company's line on West Temple street was made last night. It was satisfactory. This morning regular service on that thoroughfare was commenced and residents along the route are greatly pleased. It will now be in order for the company to push its Centre street line to a rapid completion.

IN the Nineteenth ward last night there was another narrow escape from a horrible death by the broken tow of harness in making a fire in the family stove. A lady, whose name was not learned, it seems engaged in pouring coal oil on some smouldering embers in the kitchen stove. Instantly there was a flash followed by a tremendous explosion. The burn of the can was torn to shreds and the building shaken from top to bottom. Strange to say the lady escaped unhurt. Don't persist in using kerosene to build fires.

A Sleek Thief.

A daring robbery occurred on lower Twenty-fifth street, Ogden, yesterday afternoon. A tall, mannly-dressed individual entered the store of Jeweler Weaver, near the Central hotel, during the temporary absence of the owner, and picking up a tray containing four gold and two silver watches and thirty gold rings, placed it under his coat and made off down the street. The robbery was witnessed by a woman in a back room, but she failed to give the alarm until the fellow had made his escape.

Suspicious Characters.

About 7:30 o'clock last evening Officer Sullivan and Learn of Ogden captured two men who gave their names as Thomas Morgan and James Dillon, in the bush on Wall avenue between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets. There were several hard looking customers in the crowd, including two crippled printers, but upon their promising to leave town the latter were allowed to depart. Dillon is suspected of having committed the Weaver robbery, while Morgan is said to have served time as a jail bird in this city.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Man Found Unconscious from the Loss of Blood.

[Special to the DESERET NEWS.]

John B. Meldrum, of the Fifth ward, attempted to commit suicide last night by cutting his throat with a razor. He was found this morning at 5 o'clock on the premises of J. G. Jones, in an unconscious condition from the loss of blood. Dr. Pike dressed the wound, which extends across the throat, cutting the windpipe and other arteries, but missing the jugular veins. He may recover. He left his father's house early in the ninth ward last night, intending to meet his wife, whom he expected from Salt Lake. It is not known whether he went to the train or not. The were no papers to give any reason for the horrible act.

Provo, July 12.

George Thatcher's "Tuxedo."

In presenting his new minstrel farce comedy creation "Tuxedo" to the public of Salt Lake, George Thatcher begs leave to assure them that this is the best and strongest organization with which his name has ever been connected. One of its features is the singing of such vocalists as H. J. Jones, the celebrated contra tenor; Raymond Moore, the famous tenor ballader; H. W. Fridman, the eminent basso; Thos. Lewis, baritone; Miss Ida Fitzhugh, prima donna soprano, and Miss Grace Hamilton, contralto.

The comedy element in "Tuxedo" is represented by such comedians as George Thatcher, Hughey Dougherty, Biff Shepard, John A. Coleman, E. L. Marble, Geo. W. Lewis and Jay Quigley. Miss Maude Gilbey, a clear and pretty soubrette, has the leading lady role.

"Tuxedo" comes for two nights, Thursday and Friday, July 14th and 15th, in the Salt Lake Theatre.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.

Judge Zane Begins the Day by Granting a Divorce.

THE COMMISSIONERS' COURTS.

Rost, the Alleged Embezzler, Has Returned to Salt Lake in Custody.

Although both judges held court this morning nothing transpired of any great importance. Chief Justice Zane's sitting did not last more than three-quarters of an hour, and Judge Anderson dealt only with ordinary matters.

CRUELTY AND NEGLECT.

The first case heard in Judge Zane's court was a suit for divorce, the petitioner being Dora F. Dwyer and the defendant Henry F. Dwyer. The decree was sought on the grounds of cruelty and failure to provide.

The particulars of this case were given in these columns a week or so ago, upon the filing of the suit. The parties were married at Corsicana, Navarro County, Texas, in February, 1888. Plaintiff now stated that for a long time past her husband had wholly neglected her, and in order to make into herself she had been keeping a boarding house in this city. Defendant was a laborer, and capable of earning $75 per month. She detailed acts of gross cruelty of which the defendant had been guilty, and said that on consideration, he struck her severely by the arms, badly bruising them, and threw her across the room. He had refused to go into society or to attend church in her company." His language toward her had been profane, and in consequence of his misconduct, life has become a positive burden to her.

The Judge granted the decree prayed for and allowed $50 attorney fee and court costs.

Mr. A. N. Cherry was the plaintiff's attorney.

The petitioner is about thirty years of age, of lady-like appearance, and was neatly attired in black.

A REFEREE'S REPORT.

Isabelle C. Larson et al. vs. John Wilson et al., plaintiff's sale in partition. John B. Cummings was appointed referee and was allowed an attorney's fee and $40 to the guardian.

THE BURNETT CASE.

In the case of Ida Hughes vs. John H. Hughes et al., the arguments were continued until Thursday, the 14th inst.

JUDGE ANDERSON

made several orders in informal matters brought before him.

JUDGMENTS RENDERED.

In the civil suit of John M. Whitaker vs. the Metropolitan Investment Co., Commissioner Greenman this morning found for the plaintiff in the sum of $245.35 and costs. The claim was for maps and drawings furnished.

H. W. Feller vs. N. C. Christiansen. In this case the same commissioner rendered judgment for the sum of $164.50 on account of money loaned, and costs.

BOND NOT READY.

H. B. Rost, who sold milk for Mr. Stewart the dairyman of this city, received moneys from customers and, it is alleged, then applied it to his own use, is now safely within the law's grasp. When he discovered that the officers were on his track Rost sought pastures new.

A few weeks since a man was arrested by mistake, in his stead, and brought to this city from Cheyenne. Hot speedy recognition followed, and a new attempt was then made to reach the right man, the result being that Rost was arrested at Helena, Mont., on Sunday last. A deputy sheriff arrived in the city with his captive last evening.

This morning Rost was taken before Commissioner Pratt, when he declined to plead, stating that he was not ready to have his preliminary hearing. The commissioner fixed his bond at $2000, but he was unable to give this, and will therefore remain under lock and key until the examination takes place.

A SOLDIER'S PLEA.

O'Neill Says He Is Not Guilty of Attempting to Murder Private Quinlan.

William O'Neill alias "Shorty" O'Neill, was brought down from Fort Douglas last evening by Captain Dorman and placed in the city jail. He is charged with assault with intent to murder a fellow soldier by the name of Quinlan, whom he shot seriously while engaged in a quarrel in a variable house in the western part of the city a few days ago. Judge Powers is his attorney and acting under his advice he appeared before Justice Jones in the Fifth district court and pleaded not guilty. The case was set down for two p. m. on Thursday.

In default of $1000 bonds the prisoner was remanded to jail.

A SHOTGUN AND AX.

Mike Conley and J. H. Mellen Use These Weapons in a Neighbor's Quarrel.

Mike Conley is the name of a tall, light complexioned stevedore of about forty years, who appeared in the Police court today. He was on trial for assault with an ax. His neighbor and landlord, J. H. Mellen was the prosecuting witness. The former, it is said, overheard—while ever dropping—Mellen and his wife talking disrespectfully of himself and the partner of his joys and sorrows. The best morning he demanded an explanation and was told to mind his own business. This, Conley said, he was doing. Each then told the other he was a perverter of the truth and foul and boisterous language was industriously indulged in by both belligerents.

Conley then seized an ax with which he had been chopping wood before the quarrel began and rushed it at his antagonist with the blade of a Kansas cyclone. Fortunately the weapon went wide of its mark. Mellen grew excited and rushed into his shanty and took down a double-barreled shotgun. As he emerged from the domicile with the loading piece, Conley was "making tracks for shelter." Mellen's ire subsided and quiet was restored after another war of words.

Judge Powers represented the defendant while Assistant City Attorney Cool prosecuted. A large number of witnesses were examined on both sides. Among them was an eighteen-year-old stepdaughter of the defendant who sought to shield him in her testimony, but failed signally.

The court found the defendant guilty. Sentence was suspended until tomorrow at 10 a. m., at which time Judge Powers said he would give notice of an appeal.

A CHINAMAN SHOT.

His Assailant Fires Two Bullets Into His Head and Then Escapes.

Word comes from Terrace of the serious shooting at Lucien, a small station on the Southern Pacific road, of a Chinaman by the name of Ah Sin, by a tramp whose name is unknown. The Chinaman says the tramp, who was a young white man about twenty years of age, came to his place of business in the vicinity of where he (the Chinaman) was working, and was in the act of carrying away a load of clothes, when the Chinaman intervened. A scuffle ensued and the tramp pulled a revolver and fired twice, both balls entering the Celestial's head. The wounded sufferer then made his escape. At the hour officers are in pursuit but have not yet captured their man.

Dr. Petty, of Wells, surgeon of this division of the Southern Pacific, arrived late tonight and dressed the Chinaman's wounds, which are very dangerous and likely prove fatal. Anesthetics were administered and at this hour the wounded man is resting as easily as could be expected under the circumstances.

DIED FROM HER INJURIES.

Mrs. Agnes Ebers, of Ogden, Passes to the Great Beyond.

Mrs. Agnes Ebers, of Ogden, who was burned on June 29th by an explosion of coal oil, died from her terrible injuries at 5 o'clock yesterday morning at the city hospital. The funeral services were held this afternoon.

Our readers will remember that on the afternoon of the accident Mrs. Ebers was just finishing her week's washing and had occasion to rekindle the fire, using coal oil to do so. The flames flared up and catching the oil in the can caused a terrific explosion, enveloping fire all over the poor woman and the room. Before the fire was extinguished Mrs. Ebers's clothing had been entirely consumed and her body was the mass of burns and blisters.

Financial Statement.

As secretary of the recent entertainment committee, Mayor Turner of Ogden has prepared and submitted the following statement of the financial condition of the organization:

RECEIPTS.

By cash from city	$200 00
By cash from society	200 00
Total receipts	$400 00

To cash paid Mr. Brown for use of tents	25 00
To cash paid Henry Cook, on account	31 00
Total disbursements	$288 00

There still remain unsettled bills and accounts to the amount of $167.50.

Accidently Shot.

G. L. Wallis, of the firm of Corey Brothers, Ogden, met with a painful accident at Ashville last week. He was cleaning his revolver, when the weapon was discharged in some unaccountable way and the bullet passed through his hand, breaking one of the bones and inflicting a very painful wound. The attending surgeon says that though not dangerous, the injury will prevent the use of the hand for some time.

Police News.

The police last night arrested eight frail females on a charge of prostitution. The two keepers deposited $50 each with the desk sergeant, while the inmates were required to put up $25 each, which they did. Today their money was forfeited.

Frank Polander, a typical tramp, was locked up for 50 days for sleeping in a Union Pacific box car.

The Eagle as a Symbol.

In Europe there are still the eagles of Austria, Russia and Germany, besides others pertaining to minor principalities. An able writer remarks that "ever since the revolution of the western empire during the rule of the Byzantine Cæsars the world has never since the time of Augustus been without one or two emperors of the Romans. The present Austrian emperor, though holding sovereignty a province of Germany is the oldest sovereign of Charlemagne, who was crowned in Rome emperor of the Romans, the sixty-ninth from Augustus." The eagle of Rome bears the double headed eagle, which was assumed by the Grand Duke Ivan Basilovitz, who in 1472 married Sophia, daughter of Thomas Paleologus and niece to the last emperor of Byzantium, Constantine XIV.

The German emperor reigns over some Roman provinces and bears a single headed eagle with the crown of Charlemagne. The single headed eagle, crowned with the imperial title by the first Napoleon Bonaparte, sets forth the union of the whole Roman empire as the traditional aim of its family. It is the strikingly harmonious with the admitted fact of the continuance to the present time, though in a divided state, of the Roman empire, and our eyes thoughts as to what may be the ultimate meaning of the words, "Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered" (Alex.—Westminster Review.

Real Rock.

Mitch—that is, the genuine green frog—the mark does—is now worth its weight in gold, so our best bee-hole, the wild eyed little animal from which it is obtained having been very nearly exterminated from its Asiatic haunts. A full grown mark does will yield about an ounce of the grease, which are found in a sac in the skin of the abdomen. The grains are no larger than a pin's head, and some of them are as small as a pin's head. The mink is sold in the market in the pelt or skin in which it is found, but is very rarely undisguised. So many of the deer have been killed before reaching maturity that the average musk bag imported, either Chinese or Russian, will not exceed half an ounce in weight.

The adulteration of musk is made possible by the use of a good known as the musk seed. It grows in India. The Chinese musk is prized the most but is more open to suspicion than the Russian, which is seldom found with the sac broken. There are many artificial musks, and our own native muskrat yields a pelt that is the only near approach to the genuine imported musk.—Etheridge in New York Evening Sun.

On the Wrong Track.

He—Congratulate me, Miss Delia. In a few days Miss Goldthwaite will be my wife.

She—I am glad to hear it; but I didn't know you were——

He—Of course you didn't, nor my cousin either. Didn't want any competition, you know. But it's all fixed now. She'll be worth ten thousand a year to me.

She—Really! The cunning minx! Now, New York dowries are——

He—No; Kentucky locality, and none of the best. Sired by Hong Up, dam Queen Elizabeth—nice young mare, remember her. She made 2:17 last season and got half mashed at the end.

She—Oh, I thought you were speaking of a marriage engagement.

He—Why, what do you think I am, hand. I mean I spoke half my time in the stable, but there's no reason you should take me for an ass.—Life.
