CONFERENCE AND DEDICATION.

In the Choctaw Nation, Indian Territory.

The morning of September [illegible] ushered in one more notable event in the progress of truth, by the uniting of the Elders and Saints in the Massey branch of the Indian Territory mission to participate in the dedicatory services of another house of worship to the Lord.

At the appointed time Elder Isaac A. Jensen called together the congregation and the services began by singing the hymn "We are not ashamed to own our Lord." Elder J. C. Lyon then opened with prayer, following which was sung, "What was witnessed in the heavens."

Elder Isaac A. Jensen addressed the Saints as to the [illegible] of the services we were participating in and hoped all would impress this fact upon their minds.

Presiding Elder Ephraim Jeppson then took the stand and with [illegible] inspired eloquence offered up the dedicatory prayer. This was followed by the impressive hymn "Dedication."

An address to the Elders and Saints of the Massey branch, Choctaw Nation, written by our highly esteemed president, Andrew Kimball, was read and the heartfelt words of kind remembrance and encouragement to those engaged in the Latter-day work seemed to bring with them a feeling of joy and impart in the hearts of the listeners a firmer determination to press onward and upward in the work of the Lord.

The remainder of the meeting was spent in the bearing of strong and faithful testimonies to the authenticity and divinity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, by Elders Herman E. Campbell, J. C. Lyon, R. G. Winters, E. L. Saunders and Ephraim Jeppson. All joined in singing the hymn, "Come, come ye Saints," and Elder I. A. Jensen brought the services to a close by pronouncing the benediction.

Some few months ago Elder Andrew Kimball, in company with Elder B. M. Harper, established a branch of the Church here, putting Elder I. A. Jensen over the same; they also laid the corner stone for the erection of a house of worship, and since that time, through many obstacles presented themselves to view during its construction, the words of encouragement from Elder Kimball to have faith and push onward have [illegible] and borne their fruits, and now the same have vanished away and [illegible] standing out in bold relief one more monument in the cause of the latter-day work.

Much praise can be attributed to the Elders of the Indian Territory and Oklahoma missions for their liberal donations toward the construction of our meeting house and to Elders Isaac A. Jensen, Jas. E. Nalty and Herman E. Campbell can much credit be assigned for the neat workmanship and [illegible] they have exercised in its construction.—[illegible] the Elders [illegible] the aid and kindness of Grandma Griffiths for her part in the furtherance of the Gospel truths.

Afternoon—At 2 p. m. conference was called to order, Elder Ephraim Jeppson being in charge. "O My Father," the opening hymn, was sung and E. L. Saunders delivered the opening prayer, after which "Come let us anew our journey pursue" was sung by the congregation.

Elder Herman E. Campbell then spoke upon the miraculous achievements to be obtained in obedience to the laws and commandments of the Gospel, citing proofs both from the Old and the New Testament to substantiate the same. Elder Richard G. Winter bore his testimony to the blessings enjoyed by the Latter-day Saints and also spoke upon faith as a moving power.

"Ye mountains high" was sung and a very attentive and enjoyable meeting was brought to a close by Elder Ephraim Jeppson pronouncing the benediction.

Sunday morning—At the usual time Elder Herman E. Campbell called the meeting to order and all joined in [illegible] the hymn "O God, we raise to [illegible]" Prayer by Elder Isaac A. Jensen, singing, "Come all ye sons of [illegible]"

Elder Ephraim Jeppson addressed the assembly as to the importance [illegible] the Gospel of the Latter-day Saints, and the condemnation to be brought upon the false advocates of religion. He also dwelt upon the apostasy and the opening of the dispensation of the fullness of times. Elder E. L. Saunders spoke a short time in confirmation of the remarks made by his brethren, and the morning services closed by singing "O say what is truth." Benediction by Elder H. E. Campbell.

Afternoon.—Elder J. C. Lyon, being in charge, called the meeting to order and the hymn "Do what is right," was sung by the congregation; prayer by Elder Ephraim Jeppson; singing "[illegible] ye [illegible] of glory."

Elder Isaac A. Jensen spoke upon the necessity of baptism for the entering into the kingdom of God [illegible] upon [illegible] as to the proper mode and authority of administering the same. The Holy Ghost and the other blessings that were to follow true repentance and baptism were also spoken upon. Elder J. C. Lyon closed the conference by giving a historical outline of the life of Joseph Smith the Prophet, the organization of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and its rise, and dwelt upon the necessity of new revelation in these the last days to carry out the will of the Lord.

All joined in singing the hymn, "Glorious things are sung of Zion," and Elder Richard G. Winter pronounced the benediction.

This conference, the first one held in this nation, is a success in every respect; there has been a good attendance and a peaceful spirit manifest throughout, and it is pleasing to note that at its close two honest souls were brought into the fold through baptism. The Elders will now leave for their various fields of labor and carry with them happy reflections of unity and friendship.

H. E. CAMPBELL,
Secretary.

SUPPORT HOME INDUSTRY.

THESE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO SELL HOME MADE GOODS

THEY BUILD UP UTAH and are entitled to the support of the people. By dealing with the merchants who give preference to the sale of Home Made goods, you help the Home Industry cause. You help to give employment to worthy people; you help to keep money at home, which circulates in our midst and you get back a part of that money again in your business or profession. Keep this in mind, every dollar expended for Utah made goods, means more employment for home labor; every dollar expended for goods manufactured elsewhere, means employment for somebody living elsewhere, and whose interests are generally not with us. "Charity begins at home." This is a time for both common sense and patriotism.
