ELECTION CANVASS IS NOW COMPLETE

City Council Finishes Work of Going Over Returns and Making Certificates.

BLACK AND MARTIN OBJECT.

Wall of Weak Duet Against Action Seating Nominees—Official Figures of Three Wards.

The canvass of the returns of the late election were completed last evening by the city council, the Third, Fourth and Fifth wards remaining uncounted from the night before. Black and Martin resumed their former tactics, maintaining that Mr. Fernstrom of the Third was not Mr. Fernstrom and that Mr. Hall of the Fourth was not Mr. Hall. It was the wail of a weak duet, and Black and Martin were the only ones to vote against the action of the board in properly certifying to the returns.

S. P. Armstrong was again on hand, he of protesting fame, and in behalf of McGinty who went down in the Third, and Harris of the Fourth, he filed objections to the consolidation of the votes cast for Fernstrom in the first named ward and Hall in the other. The official returns of the three wards canvassed last are as follows:

Catarrh A Blood Disease

Whether it manifests itself in the nose, throat, stomach, bowels or other organs, catarrh is a blood disease because it depends on impure blood.

Therefore it must be treated with a blood medicine for a radical and permanent cure.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach and other organs, and builds up the whole system. It radically and permanently cures.

☞ The most easily developed form of Catarrh is Nasal Catarrh, in the treatment of which Hood's Sarsaparilla is greatly aided by Antiseptics or Catarrhals, which afford prompt relief.

GIRL TESTIFIES IN ANDRUS CASE

Marguerite Regan Brazenly Recites Revolting Details in Police Court.

TREATED AFFAIR AS A JOKE.

Admits Consenting to Give Evidence To Avoid Going to Reformatory —Continued Until Tomorrow.

Albert Andrus, the young man charged with the grave offense of criminal assault upon Margaurite Regan, the 15-year-old daughtter of W. R. Regan, is having a preliminary hearing before Judge C. B. Diehl in the criminal division of the city court.

When the case was called several days ago the Regan girl refused absolutely to testify against Andrus. For contempt of courtt she was sent to the county jail for one day. At the next session of court she still refused to testify, but this morning she made a clean breast of the entire affair and brazenly and laughingly gave all the revolting details of the shocking case.

She stated that her reason for refusing to testify was because of Andrus' young wife and baby. The Regan girl looks much older than 15 years. She is a handsome girl of ruddy complexion, chestnut brow hair and large blue eyes. Although of tender years she demonstrated this morning that she is no entirely ignorant of the ways of the world. While she treated the case as a joke she was careful not to be trapped by Atty. Soren N. Christensen, counsel for the defense.

SHOCKING STORY.

She practically admitted that she had consented to testify against Andrus to avoid being sent to the state industrial school, but declared that Asst. County Atty. Carlson, who prosecuted the case, had made no promises whatever to her. The Regan girl said that on the occasion of meeting Andrus she rode with him on the delivery wagon. She met him about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and remained with him until the next evening. She said that at 10:30 Saturday night she accompanied Andrus to a barn and remained there until Sunday evening, when they went to the Hurry Back saloon for beer. Then she brazenly told of her actions and laughed at questions put to her. She admitted that she ran away from her grandmother's home in Chicago at the age of 13 years, cashed a check drawn on her grandmother and went to a hotel where she remained for a week or until a detective located her. The girl admitted that she had told many conflicting stories and that at times she had deliberately lied.

Dr. Calderwood, Probation Officer Brown and the proprietor of the Success market, for whom Andrus worked, were called to the stand to corroborate certain statements made by the girl. The case was continued until tomorrow morning.

WILLIAM H. HILL DEAD.

William H. Hill, a pioneer of 1848, died this morning at Mill Creek, where he has lived for many years. The cause of death was Bright's disease. Mr. Hill leaves a wife and 16 children. He came to Utah from Nauvoo, and until recently was a member of the Metropolis of Mill Creek. The deceased was a much respected citizen and led an upright, honorable life.

HELD FOR ROBBERY.

Tom Parker, the man arrested some time ago on the charge of robbery and grand larceny, was before Judge Diehl this morning for preliminary hearing. The man is accused of robbing a negro named Daniel Webster. Parker pleaded not guilty but waived preliminary hearing and was held to answer to the district court in bonds of $500 in each case.

All printing specially attended to at the Deseret News Office. Estimates promptly furnished.

WORK HAS COMMENCED.

Gangs of Workmen Are Now Tearing Holes in Emigration Canyon.

Many, many railroads have been built by imaginative railroad editors through Emigration canyon, but today Judge Le grand Young is running a line at a cost of thousands of dollars. Work has commenced and two gangs of men are now grading and making necessary cuts and fills. Scrapers and other machinery and equipment are being used to good advantage and from the speed being maintained no time will be lost before the tracks are laid and ready for traffic. It has been announced that the line is being built for two purposes, a pleasure resort road and as a means of opening the immense rock deposits along the route and bringing the products into the city.

Unconfirmed reports put forth a third reason for the line. This is the resurrection of an old, old story in which a line through the canyon was made a part of the Moffat road. By this line an entrance into the city is offered in advantageous form. One survey of the Moffat road crosses the reservation and Uintah county, passing north of Denver and swinging back of Park City finally reaches a point back of Emigration canyon. What this holds for the future is gossip, merely, at this time—the future may prove it more or nothing more.

IN NEW QUARTERS.

Geo. Q. Cannon Association Moves Offices to Main Street.

The George Q. Cannon association has just opened its new offices on Main street. This association is now devoting most of its attention to the real estate business, and in order to handle its rapidly increasing business, has found it necessary to give up its old quarters in the Manx building on east South Temple street, and move to more convenient and commodious offices in its own building at 11 Main street, between Z. C. M. I. and Zion's Savings bank.

FORGERY STORIES DENIED.

Banks Say Cashier Checks Are Enough To Discourage Wiley Crooks.

There was a report circulated this morning that forged cashiers' checks were in circulation. Inquiry at the banks brought out a general denial and the statement that such forged paper would be, under present circumstances, an impossibility. The Utah Lithographing company, which is doing the printing of checks, is keeping strict account of every sheet printed until the work passes out of its hands it to the custody of the clearing house committee, which distributes the paper among the various banking institutions for their individual use. If a single sheet were stolen the fact would become immediately known and the whereabouts of the sheet traced at once.

Then, as soon as the sheets are distributed, and cut up, the checks must be signed by the bank cashiers and one of the members of the executive committee of the Salt Lake Clearing House. After that they are ready for circulation as so much cash. How under the circumstances there can be any forgeries of such paper, is something banking men are at a loss to know. A "News" reporter traced the story to one of the hotels where the clerk said that some clerk in one of the banks had told him that forged cashiers' paper was in circulation, and he understood had been presented for payment at one of the banks. The clerk retailed the tale to a drummer, the drummer "piped it off" to a Main street merchant, and the merchant related it to the paying teller of a neighboring bank who had a good laugh over it. The explanation is that the hotel clerk wanted to be "funny," and started the yarn himself.

AGENTS REINSTATED.

Chas. Pruitt and "Joe" Plaisted Are Called Back by the Milwaukee.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul has taken it all back. Its recent action in laying off freight and passenger agents by wire is past history. To blot out the ugly chapter the road is now reinstating its men. Loudly there is a better feeling since Charley Pruitt and "Joe" Plaisted received word they are to begin at once where they were left off a week ago. Mr. Pruitt had gone dispatching up north and Mr. Plaisted was "brakeing" for the Rio Grande. Both are once more traveling freight agents for the C. M. & St. P.

WHO SAID HARD TIMES?

Chicago, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the Inter-Ocean from Tacoma, Wash., says: John D. Farrell, who has charge of the Harriman interests in Washington, announced yesterday that work on the O. R. & N. tunnel in Tacoma will begin about Dec. 1. Work all along the line from Portland to Tacoma is progressing satisfactorily, Mr. Farrell said. The local right of way is being cleared and a quantity of construction material has been shipped here. This includes 7,000 barrels of cement and 14 cars of steel.

The Tacoma tunnel will be 8,700 feet long and will be one of the biggest pieces of construction work on the extension. It will be of concrete construction and double tracked. The cost will be about $3,000,000.

Official announcement of the letting of the contract for the Northern Pacific tunnel from the narrows to the water front in Tacoma will be made shortly. The beginning of operations on this tunnel will, it is said, be followed at once by letting contracts for the new passenger depot to cost $500,000.

SAYS GRANDMA USED INFLUENCE

Laura Miller Tells Court How Her Grandfather Was Treated.

"COMPANY" MEANT PEACE.

When Visitors Were Present Decent Treatment Was Meted Out To Maker of Will.

The reading of a long deposition by Miss Laura Miller occupied the entire forenoon in the hearing of the case of Miller versus Livingston, before Judge Ritchie today. The defendant is a resident of New York, and is a granddaughter of Thomas Miller, over whose will the trouble originated.

Miss Miller tells in the deposition of a visit made by her to her grandfather in 1900, at which time she says he was under the domination of his second wife, whom she designates as grandma. The latter, it is alleged, was very domineering, even with Miss Miller, only allowing certain persons to visit her granddaughter, among the favored ones being a Mr. Scheitler, to whom deponent became engaged while she was a visitor in this state. According to Miss Miller, her grandfather was only treated decently by his wife when company was present.

Sleam against the United States Smelting company, in which damages are sought for injuries done land and crops by smelter smoke. SULLIVANS ENTER COURT.

Minnie Sullivan entered suit for divorce today against Morris Sullivan. The allegations are made that through idleness, profligacy and dissipation, defendant has failed to provide for his wife for a period of two years, although he is able-bodied and capable of so doing. Mrs. Sullivan asks for a severance of marital bonds, the restoration of her maiden name, Minnie Brown, and other proper relief. The Sullivans were married at Ogden, Sept. 1, 1904.

FORTY YEARS MARRIED.

A suit for divorce was filed today by Angelo Marcavecchio against Lucia Marcavecchio, in the district court. It is set forth in the complaint that the couple were married at Agnone, Campobasso, Italy, June 8, 1878, and that five children, now grown up and married, were the issue of the marriage. The plaintiff alleges that his wife was guilty of statutory offenses with various persons whose names are unknown to him during the year 1884, after which time he refused to live with her. In 1888 defendant deserted plaintiff, and he asks that the bond of matrimony be annulled.

LANDS UNFIT FOR GRAZING.

Henry Wade, a man of a lifetime's experience in coal mining in this country and England, was a witness before Master in Chancery S. M. Lewis yesterday in the circuit court room at the Federal building. He testified that the lands taken up by the Utah Fuel company in Carbon county were wholly unfit for grazing, and that their chief value lay in the fact that they were coal deposits of some extent. This is the contention of the government in its civil suits against the persons holding patent to the land, who, it is alleged, obtained the land on non-mineral affidavits, well knowing that the lands were not agricultural lands, but were mineral lands.

INDIANS TO TESTIFY.

The federal grand jury is believed to have completed its work on the coal land cases and in the remaining sessions will devote its inquiries to an investigation of other matters. It is thought, as a number of court processes having been served upon Indians, that there are matters pertaining to acts on the reservations that will come in for inquiry. There are, too, some postal matters which will come before the grand jury at this session.

MORE WITNESSES SUMMONED.

Summonses have been placed in the hands of United States Marshal William Spry for service on persons who are wanted as witnesses before the master in chancery in connection with the coal land cases now in progress before him. Marshal Spry and his deputies will start to serve the papers today.
