THE DEAD SHALL LIVE!

During the present century there have been many attempts made to the resuming of a literal Christian existence, and in a moderately extent there has been working out of different theories with an entire disregard of consequences or experiments, which, if carried to their ultimate, etc. These attempts have been a different result of the preaching of the Gospel as revealed in the Dispensation of the fulness of times. The latter-day apostles and prophets, in the first place, and a consequent grafting of the Tree Eternal by the prophets of Judea and Israel. The truth applied practically, is, to be at all times ready to be sacrificed—and such is, and has been, the spirit of Christianity that which a consistency of Saint Christian principles, and are adding new fuel and affinities which may assist to be racing in their volume of the carrying out of their principles.

A [illegible] Christianity of yesterday Christianity something a fundamental principle of the Gospel of Christ, as shown in the second work of Mr. J. E. Talmage, the Evangelist who was my friend is now the position of the sect on the resurrection. It has to be the mission of Christ, coming that he for the dead at the time for which he was appointed, but that "coming up this resurrection power attained the resurrection of [illegible]." says Mr. Talmage.

He says on page 17 that, the morning of [illegible] the Saints will be [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] Christ, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
