STEED'S BANCH, NORTH OF KAYSVILLE, July 3d, 1878.

Dear Sir - The Osborne Belf-Blading Harvester purchased of you, we started to-day, and though I had never seen a Self-Binder before, I found that an hour's practice enabled me to work It in the most satisfactory manner. It seems far less complicated than other Hinders and less liable to get out of order. The cutting and elevating saturday, all that could be desired, and the binding is perfection itself. The delivery is so easy and gentle, the butt end of the sheaf going down first, that dry as the grain is I tose

I have a few of these ce ebrated Hinders left, and those wanting a first class Machine, should call and examine them. I would be pleased LOCAL AND OTHER MATTE to go with customers wishing to purchase, to the harvest field, and show them the machine at work. A. J. JOHNSON.
