GEO. D. SAXTON SHOT.

The Brother of Mrs. President McKinley Murdered.

THERE IS A WOMAN IN THE CASE.

The Divorced Wife of Sample C. George is Arrested on Suspicion of the Crime—Five Shots Fired.

Canton, O., Oct. 7.—George D. Saxton, a brother of Mrs. President McKinley, was shot dead at 6.10 this evening in front of the residence of Mrs. Ira D. Althouse, a widow of the late George Althouse, 112 Lincoln avenue, where he is presumed to have gone to make a call. Five shots were fired, three of which entered his body. Mrs. Anna C. George has been placed under arrest on suspicion of the murder.

Saxton was unconscious when neighbors arrived and began investigating the cause of the shooting and was dead when the physicians and officers arrived, the physicians having expressed the opinion that death was instantaneous, two bullets having entered vital spots. The position of the body indicated that he had been on the step to the Althouse residence when the shots were fired. The body was taken to an undertaking room and placed in charge of the coroner. Immediately after the autopsy it will be taken to the home of M. C. Barber, a mother-in-law, where Saxton, who was unmarried, made his home.

Mr. Saxton left the Barber home about a o'clock, telling his folks, and this was the last seen of him by his friends. The Althouse home was dark and locked, and the neighbors said that Mrs. Althouse had not been at home for the past three days. One of the neighbors said a woman who was supposed to have done the shooting had passed back of the house.

Mrs. George is the divorced wife of Sample C. George, who formerly was a tenant of Saxton in his Lincoln avenue business block, conducting a dress-making business. Her divorce was obtained in Dakota, and a pending case filed in Stark county by the husband against Saxton, charged that Saxton had sold his home to secure the divorce, the proceeding now being a suit for damages for the alleged alienation of the wife's affections. This case has been through all the intermediate courts, and was passed upon by the state supreme court on an interpleading, and finally remanded for hearing on its merits here.

Before this occurred, and on Wednesday, a settlement was effected, Saxton paying George $1,025 on the claim set up of $10,000 for damages. Mrs. George has also had several cases against Saxton, claiming the detention of furniture, the defense of Saxton being that the articles were held for overdue rent in the house. Mrs. Althouse, in front of whose home the shooting occurred, several months ago began a series of suits, claiming against Mrs. George, alleging that she had been threatened.

For some time past Mrs. George has been living alone, her husband having gone from where the shooting occurred. Early in the week she is said to have packed up her household goods to have them shipped to her mother's home at Hanoverton. Since her goods have been gone she has been living at the home of Mrs. Jake Oberlin, in the same house. She left the house at 5 o'clock this morning and did not return.

While the officers were talking to Mrs. Oberlin tonight, Mrs. George was seen coming across a lot nearby. As she attempted to go around the house, to get in the back way, she was put under arrest by the officers and brought to police headquarters. When she was brought into the station, she seemed to be self-possessed, and refused to answer questions propounded by the state's attorney, who was present.

Mrs. George was then taken into the women's department. No weapon was found on her. The skin of her hands was stained, and will be analyzed to see whether there are any traces of powder upon them. She was locked up to await a hearing.

It was rumored tonight that Mrs. George would make frequent threats of taking Saxton's life. Many of these threats are said to have been made through the mails, and the Federal grand jury sitting in Cleveland last fall, inferred her for alleged threats made in the mails. Mrs. George was asked about the grand jurisdiction, so far as known here, is still alive.

Sample C. George, the husband, is now reported to have been married for a second wife for more than a year. He is reported married in Wheeling to Miss Lucy Graham of Allianceand the marriage was kept secret until after the settlement with Saxton. As soon as George got his damage money from Saxton, he announced his marriage. Mrs. George claims Saxton deserved her and deserved her.

MRS. M'KINLEY NOTIFIED.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—The news of the murder of Mrs. McKinley's brother was received at the White House just about the time the reception of the Episcopalian council was about to be brought to a close. Mrs. McKinley was receiving with the President during the evening and was in her usual spirits. The news of her brother's death was a great shock to her.

Several private dispatches were received at the White House from members of the family in Canton, in regard to the tragedy. They were very brief, however, and contained little, if any, additional information to that contained in the press dispatches. The President made an effort to secure further facts over the long-distance telephone, but this was soon found unsatisfactory that there was little reward for his efforts.

Mrs McKinley expressed a wish to attend the funeral, and accordingly hurried arrangements were made whereby she will start for Canton at 7 o'clock tomorrow night. The President, Mrs. McKinley's pastor, Mr. Barthow, who was at the reception also tonight, the latter's son and several others will accompany her. No word received here to date the funeral will be held on Monday.

The unfortunate event will not interfere with the President's trip to the Omaha Exposition, save that he will not be able to leave here with the party as originally intended, but intend will join them in Canton on the night after the funeral. It is not yet determined whether Mrs. McKinley will accompany the President to Omaha.

LAWS DESIGNS.

The Auditor General of Hawaii Tendors His Resignation—It Is Accepted.

San Francisco, Oct. 7.—The United States transport Walla Walla arrived here this afternoon from Manila and Honolulu. She was thirty-four days and 21 hours on the trip from Honolulu, and nine days from Manila. The Hawaiian government of the Annexed Group sent in the following advices under date of Sept. 30:

Honolulu, Sept. 30.—It is learned on good authority that ex-Queen Liliuokalani will leave for Washington about the middle of November, to place her claims against Congress for resumption of her rights to the use of her income and the revenues from the crown lands, for which she feels that that the people of the United States owe her some pecuniary compensation.

The United States steamer Bennington arrived from this Protectorate yesterday, eight days out. The Bennington comes to relieve the Philadelphia, which is already coaled and ready to sail for the coast with Admiral Miller, who is to be succeeded in the command of the Pacific squadron by Commodore Kenny. Admiral Miller and the Philadelphia will sail on the 10th for San Francisco.

At a meeting of the cabinet held on the 27th, the resignation of Henry Lewis as auditor general of Hawaii was formally tendered and accepted, and H. C. Austin, the present tax assessor of the island of Hawaii, chosen to fill the vacancy. The appointment is a presidential one, and subject to confirmation by the senate. The changes will take place on the first of the month.

Computer I of the New York registers in the Hawaiian Pearl City. They have been ordered to make a survey of the Pearl harbor region, probably with a view of securing new fortifications and improvement plans.

Now that the Hawaiian islands are under the jurisdiction of the United States, the Chinese contract laborers are raising a fund for the employment of attorneys to free them from their contracts under the laws of the United States. It is reported that about $5,000 will be raised for this purpose.

THE McINTYRE CASE CLOSED.

At Close of Proceedings the Chaplain was in a Tight Corner.

The Attorneys Will Spend Today in Verbose Argument—The Defense Object to Rebuttal Testimony.

Denver, Oct. 7.—Upon the assembling of the trial of Chaplain McIntyre of the Oregon this morning, the prosecution called Mr. Lee Ullery, of Franklin, Ind., who testified that he was a commercial traveler, and was in Denver on the evening of the Dewey reception, and gave testimony in rebuttal. Attorneys for the defense went on record as objecting to the testimony offered.

Mr Ullery said that on August 4th he had a conversation with Chaplain McIntyre at their hotel. The chaplain said that he was on the Oregon during Cape Horn, of the naval battle of July 3rd. Witness said the chaplain asserted that when the battle began, Admiral Cervera with the flagship New York, was fifteen miles away and that when the Oregon was going into the battle she passed some men going to the rear. The chaplain said, witness declared, that "Fighting Bob" Evans was a coward, and that Admiral Sampson was a nonentity.

The chaplain said he served as chaplain of the cruiser Baltimore when Admiral Schley was her commander. He had greatly admired him for his action at Vaparaiso in 1891, but since the battle of July 3rd he had lost that admiration. Chaplain McIntyre spoke of the division of prize money, intimating, witness declared, that Admiral Sampson receiving more than a fair share.

John L. Riley, a wholesale confectionery dealer, testified that on August 4th, he had talking the battle of July 3rd with the Oregon's chaplain. The chaplain said the Oregon was going into the battle she passed some men going to the rear. The chaplain said, witness declared, that "Fighting Bob" Evans was a coward, and that Admiral Sampson was a nonentity.

The chaplain said he served as chaplain of the cruiser Baltimore when Admiral Schley was her commander. He had greatly admired him for his action at Vaparaiso in 1891, but since the battle of July 3rd he had lost that admiration. Chaplain McIntyre spoke of the division of prize money, intimating, witness declared, that Admiral Sampson receiving more than a fair share.

Rood S. King, private secretary to Gov. Adams, testified that on August 4th, he had talked with Chaplain McIntyre's brother, he had a long conversation with the chaplain. He told of the cruise of the Oregon around the Horn, and said he had heard the battle of July 3rd. The chaplain said, as witness remembered, that Sampson had no more to do with the battle than had witnesses.

Rebuttal Mining testimony

At the close of Mr. King's testimony, the prosecution rested. The defense, it had no further witnesses ready, but that he wished to introduce evidence to prove the previous habits of the accuser as to the use of the defendant's name. He asked the court to adjourn from day to day until he could send for one witness now at Mare island navy yard and two in the East. The court decided that such evidence was not necessary, and the judge-advocate announced the case closed.

A recess was taken until 2:45 to allow the defense to secure other witnesses. When the court reassembled, Attorney Chandler said that the witnesses whom he side had so further testimony to offer. It was decided to postpone argument by attorneys until tomorrow.
