MR. GOFF'S STOLEN WITNESS

How She Was Found and Induced to Return to New York,

With the Result That She is Committed to Jail in New Jersey for Thirty Days.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The Evening Post has the following:

Mrs. Hermann was desired by Mr. Goff to give testimony against the police of the Fifteenth precinct of this city, to whom, it is alleged, she has paid large sums of money to be allowed to operate [illegible] alleged disorderly houses. Her sudden disappearance resulted in Mr. Goff's suspecting that [illegible] were in collusion with the police under suspicion.

Private Detective Wells was engaged to look her up. He found her at the [illegible] Hotel, Chicago, and endeavored to induce her to return and testify before the committee. She refused. Wells communicated with Sergeant-at-Arms Thomas Kearney of the Lexow committee and a bogus telegram was sent to her with information that her husband had broken his leg and was lying in a hospital in [illegible] in a critical condition.

Mrs. Hermann lost no time in coming to her husband's assistance. She arrived at the Pennsylvania Railroad station at [illegible] o'clock this morning. Detective Wells was shadowing her. Near the railway leading to Montgomery street, Sergeant-at-Arms Kearney intercepted the woman. He asked her to consent to go with him to New York, and subsequently Detective Wells joined in the conversation. The woman became highly indignant, and was gesticulating wildly when Senator Wm. J. Daly, of New Jersey appeared and told her he had been retained as her counsel.

Kearney and Wells wanted to compel the woman to go to New York, but Senator Daly remonstrated, as he declared he would not permit her to be "kidnapped." Such confusion was caused in the station that Policeman [illegible] and McNally arrested Sergeant-at-Arms Kearney and Wells and Mrs. Hermann, charging them with disorderly conduct, and took the prisoners to police headquarters in Jersey City.

How Senator Daly learned that Mrs. Hermann had left Chicago is puzzling the Lexow committee detectives, and there is a suspicion that the New York police and certain attaches of the Lexow committee are in collusion with the Jersey City police in behalf of damaging witnesses.

When Mrs. Hermann was arraigned before Justice Potts in Jersey City, Senator Daly appeared as her counsel. He said he had been retained for that purpose by Gustav Dirk, of New York, who told him an attempt was to be made to abduct Mrs. Hermann on her arrival from the West. Senator Daly said Mrs. Hermann told him while the Lexow detectives were talking with her that she did not wish to return to New York. The detectives tried to force the woman to go with them and they and the woman were arrested. Justice Potts held upon the evidence of Detective Kearney, that Mrs. Hermann was a fugitive from justice and committed her to jail for thirty days under bonds of $5,000 to await extradition papers. The Jersey City police then preferred charges against the Lexow detectives of attempted abduction.

Amnesty to Chilean Offenders.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The United States minister to Chile has advised the state department that the Chilean government has granted general amnesty to all persons accused of political offenses prior to August 28, 1893.

The effect of this amnesty is to pardon adherents of ex-President Balmaceda on the day he was forced to resign and does not extend to those who violated the new government formed after the ex-president's abdication.

CONFERENCE FOR UNION.

Representatives of Eastern and Western Churches Meet.

ROME, Oct. 24.—The conference to arrange if possible a reunion between the eastern and western churches, a movement that had its initiative in the pope, was opened today, the pontiff presiding. Among the high church dignitaries present were: Cardinal Rampolla, pontifical secretary of state; Cardinal Ledochowski, prefect of the congregation of the propaganda fide; Cardinal Langenieux, archbishop of Rheims; Prince Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli, Cardinal Galimberti, the two Catholic patriarchs of Syria, and a delegate representing the Maronite patriarch.

The pope addressed the prelates on the return of the eastern churches into Catholic unity, and invited Cardinal Langenieux and the patriarchs to give a statement of their views. The conference will be resumed in a few days.

Diphtheria Raging.

[illegible], Ky., Oct. 24.—A fearful and death-dealing plague of diphtheria is raging opposite to Caseyville, in Illinois, and coffins can hardly be furnished fast enough with which to bury the dead. No fewer than forty deaths have occurred within the week.

A man from across the river arrived at Caseyville today for the fifth coffin furnished to one family.

The plague has now crossed the Ohio, and an epidemic at Caseyville and [illegible], having been brought thither by families from Illinois fleeing from its ravages. All the schools have closed. The community is in a general state of alarm.

A number of physicians from elsewhere have been called to assist in controlling the disease. The local doctors thus far have been utterly powerless to arrest the epidemic.

American Century Record.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24.—Albert O. Harding, a clerk. A [illegible] belonging to the St. Louis Cycling club is the holder of the American century record, which owing to his marvelous efforts today now stands at [illegible], or [illegible] minutes better than the best previous record, held by Frank Rodney of London, Ontario.

Harding's victory is decisive and triumphant. At no time was he in trouble. His dogged persistence was rewarded with the success it so well deserved. Undaunted by the fiasco of last Saturday, when he was stopped by rain at the fortieth mile, he went at the record today with renewed determination. After fifty miles had been covered it was evident the American record would go, and the excitement was intense among the large number of bicycle enthusiasts gathered at the fair grounds track. Many of his friends insisted on his going for the world's record of [illegible], held by the Englishman Michael, but his handlers refused to allow it, claiming he had a sure thing on the American record, and that it would be unwise to drive him too hard. Still very many competent judges gave it as their opinion that Harding would have had little trouble in doing better than [illegible]. The work of the pacemakers was very good, taken all around.

SANK IN THE DEEP.

An Unknown Vessel Run Down by the City of Paris

SOUTHAMPTON, Oct. 24.—Between [illegible] o'clock yesterday, the American line steamer Paris, which arrived here tonight, from New York, ran down and probably sunk an unknown ship. The weather was very thick at the time and a heavy sea was running. As soon as the collision occurred the Paris was put about and a search made for the ship. After a little a large and wreck was reported off the starboard side, but night set in. It was too late for a lifeboat to be lowered. Nothing further was seen, although the Paris lay off searching until daylight. The steamer sustained no damage beyond having a portion of her rail bent and two [illegible] broken.

INDIANS IN ARIZONA.

Alleged Troubles Reported by Lieut. Plummer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24.—Acting Commissioner Armstrong today sent to Secretary Smith a letter relating the troubles between the Indians of the Oraibes in Arizona. Lieutenant Plummer, acting agent of the Navajos, recommends that two troops of cavalry be sent there with Superintendent Herring, who has charge of the Indians. General Armstrong suggested the whole matter be turned over to General McCook, who is familiar with the troubles of the Indians, and leaves it to his discretion to use such a force of troops as will overcome the troublesome Indians. General Armstrong says the acting agent thinks the situation is serious, a view of the case not shared by the Indian office.

CLEVELAND AND HARRISON.

The President and His Predecessor in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—President Cleveland and ex-President Harrison both arrived in this city today. The Cleveland party were driven to the house of Dr. Bryant, the President's physician.

Ex-President Harrison went to the Fifth Avenue hotel, where a vast throng of Republican politicians were awaiting his arrival. Soon after reaching the hotel, Hon. Levi P. Morton, the Republican nominee for governor, called, and the interview, it is said, resulted in an agreement on the part of the ex-President to make one or more speeches before his return. There has, however, been no definite announcement to this effect.

At Republican headquarters it was announced there had been no developments to disturb conditions that have existed for several days past. The Democratic managers spent the day in a further endeavor to bring about harmony of action between the opposing Democratic factions in this city and in Brooklyn, but in New York, it was said at Democratic headquarters this evening, the prospect of reaching an agreement tonight was not bright. Despite the efforts of Senator Hill, Lieutenant Governor Sheehan and Senator Faulkner to secure the concessions from Tammany demanded by ex-Mayor Grace, it was said the Tammany candidates who were asked to withdraw refused to do so. Wagle, Cantor and McClellan decline, so it is stated, to step out, but Congressman Cummings authorized the statement that both he and General Sickles would step aside.

Mr. Croker is quoted at headquarters as saying that Tammany had already conceded enough when it allowed Senator Hill's name to head the Grace ticket, headed by Strong, a Republican, for mayor. At headquarters it was also said the indications this evening were that a combination could not be made, although hope was expressed that it might. Senator Faulkner succeeded today in bringing together Chairman [illegible] of the Kings county regular Democracy and Edward M. Shepherd, the leader of the reform movement. Many conferences took place, Mr. Shepherd making his demands in writing, but in this case, Lawrence Gardner, the secretary of the League of Democratic clubs, who is aiding Senator Faulkner, said no definite result had been obtained.

He said that the prospects of harmony were brighter in Brooklyn than in New York. The conferences were proceeding in the former city this evening, and there might be a result in five or six or five hours. In the course of the afternoon Senator Faulkner had an interview with President Cleveland, but declined to state its nature. It was said, however, they discussed the congressional situation, and that Senator Faulkner importuned the President to give expression to a declaration on the subject of the New York campaign.

Entertained by Breckinridge.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 24.—Colonel Breckinridge this afternoon at Mount Sterling spoke to a crowded house. His demeanor was almost entirely. Many ladies were present and gave the colonel of an ovation. Many meetings in [illegible] Montgomery speak of Colonel Breckinridge for United States senator, and the feeling that he will be a candidate seems to be growing every hour.

STOLE A WITNESS.

Revelations Before the Lexow Investigating Committee.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Counsel Goff startled the Lexow committee when it reconvened this morning by saying excitedly: "I am compelled to ask for an adjournment until 12 o'clock. I have told the committee that our witness, a woman who paid money to high officials, has been stolen in the dead of night. Her name is Matilda Hermann. Our detectives struck the trail and finally ran her down in Chicago. She consented to come east. When the party arrived in Jersey City this morning, an outrage was committed. The police of New York got the police of New Jersey to arrest the party on the charge of kidnapping, trumped up and designed to retain her."

Chairman Lexow broke in with: "Is she over 21 years of age?"

"Yes, and, moreover, willing to come here," answered Goff.

"This woman will tell how the police raised a fund to get her and stole women of her class out of the city. There is a colony of them now in Chicago waiting for the committee to adjourn."

"We may never adjourn," broke in Chairman Lexow.

Goff said he hoped to prove how much money had been contributed in furtherance of the alleged police conspiracy to spirit away Mrs. Hermann.

Hawaiian Consuls.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The President has recognized the consuls and vice consuls of the Hawaiian republic, viz: Elisha H. Allen, consul general at New York; Gotham D. Gilman, consul general at Boston; Robert H. Davis, consul general at Philadelphia; Chas. F. Wilder, consul general at San Francisco, with the following vice consuls: George R. Carter, Seattle; Jas. L. Hoffer, [illegible]; Jones H. Rees, Port Townsend; John McCracken, Portland, Oregon; Harry P. Wood, San Diego, California.

STORMED THE OFFICE.

Women Invade the Premises of a Distressed Fuel Concern.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 24.—Over a hundred women, many with babies in their arms, stormed the office of Mr. George M. Irwin and Co., unfortunately paid this morning. Manager Irwin told them they could have their money by giving five days' notice after the date of the next dividend, but did not state when that date would arrive. The office was cleared by a policeman. Manager E. X. Devlin, of the Pittsburg branch of the American syndicate, returned from headquarters at Chicago this morning. The depositors have to send notices of withdrawal through the Chicago office. Devlin promised that a large dividend would be declared in a few days.

Reed at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 24.—Thomas Reed arrived here today and was shown about the city and made brief speeches to the high school students and on the 'change, complimentary to the city and the northwest. At one o'clock he was driven to Senator Washburn's residence, Fair Oaks, for lunch. Tonight he speaks at the Exposition hall.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Much Property Ruined and Several Lives Lost.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 24.—A special to the Bee from Hyannis, Neb., says: A fearful conflagration has just swept over the southern part of Cherry county and the northern part of Grant. The fire has burned over a strip of country nearly fifty miles in width, and destroyed hay stacks, houses, and in some instances stock.

Two men, names unknown perished in the flames. The hay of a number of stockmen was burned and a large space of range ruined. At present, 9:00 p. m., the fire is spreading and extending further north. The destruction of property is great and a number of stockmen will be ruined financially.

FOUND HIS BROTHER.

After Diligent Search for the Last Twenty Years.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—For the last twenty years F. F. Stapley, a wealthy resident of London, England, has been looking for his brother James Stapley. He advertised for him widely and engaged detectives to aid him in the search. Recently Mr. Stapley sent his two stepsons to this country to continue the quest. They inserted advertisements in the newspapers and notified the police of all the large cities of the country. After a short search, Chief of Police Speers located James Stapley in this city by inquiring among the English residents. He is sick and poor and for some time has made his home with W. W. Taylor, a contractor. Mr. Stapley will return to England and live with his brother, whose long search has at last been crowned with success.

VANDERBILT'S PIANO.

Music to the Tune of Fifteen Thousand Dollars.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—When Cornelius Vanderbilt opens his new house at Fifty-eighth street and Fifth avenue with a ball soon to be given to introduce his daughter into society, Steinway will sit down to a $15,000 piano which has been put in place in one of the magnificent parlors. This piano is said to be one of the finest instruments ever made. Mr. Vanderbilt was not to be satisfied with an ordinary wood instrument, and an eminent artist was engaged to decorate it. The paintings are on panels along the sides and on the cover. The wood had undergone scientific preparation to keep it from warping or cracking before going to the painter. In this condition it is said it will last for centuries.

POISON IN THE BLOOD

Another Case That Was Incurable Under the Old Methods of Treatment.

And Another Case in Point Showing the Absolute Mastery of Drs. Shores & Shores New Treatment Over all Chronic and Deep-Seated Diseases.

Mr. Hicks is one of Utah's oldest pioneers. He came into the territory with an ox team in 1850. In an interview with the writer Mr. Hicks says:

"In '75 while working on the Walker Opera House I fell from an elevation of about forty feet and broke my right foot which because of the condition of my blood resulted in a running sore. I have suffered terrible pain night and day for years. All my friends and acquaintances know the condition I was in. The very best doctors in Utah did all in their power for me from time to time during the past thirteen years, but they all failed to cure me. Sometimes I was so bad I had to quit work entirely.

MR. JOS N. HICKS, 453 EAST, NINTH SOUTH STREET, CITY.

"When I was induced to go to Drs. Shores I was in such fearful pain night and day that I was not myself at all and was unable to do anything.

"I have been under Drs. Shores & Shores' treatment and have been using their vegetable medicines just one month now and the result seems almost miraculous. My trouble is all cured and I feel like a different man entirely as I haven't felt better in years. Anyone reading this can realize how grateful I am to Drs. Shores & Shores and I shall be glad to tell any one, in person, of the good they have done for me."

There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try
