Serious Accident in a Park City Mine.—A Defaulting Railroad Cashier.—A Colorado Forger.

A company comprised of Leadville's most prominent business men has purchased the Hotel Kitchen for the consideration of $50,000.

No trace has yet been found of the wounded Chinaman who disappeared so suddenly last week from Park City, and the case against Sam Lee, the heathen who did the shooting, had to be dismissed.

W. H. Crockett claims to have cut a large vein of low grade ore in a piece of ground he is working just below the Glencoe, at Park City. An average sample of the rock shows 15 ounces silver and 12 per cent lead.

The large number of men on the streets show very plainly the effect of the recent reduction made at the various mines. The boys are all keeping very straight and the town is as quiet as a farming village.—Park City Record.

The Russell Process company of Park City will issue at an early date a pamphlet containing an exhaustive comparison between its process and that of the Peters or old leaching process now in use at Yedras, Sinaloa, Mexico.

Several nights ago two masked men were discovered by J. E. Godsey and his son in their store at Mesa Grande, California. The burglars opened fire upon them, wounding the son in the arm, and made good their escape. Young Godsey's wound is not considered serious.

There are about twenty applicants for the appointment of adjutant general of the state of Colorado. Among them are Major Gardner of Lake City, W. H. Ferguson of Lake City, Captain Cavanaugh of Aspen, D. I. Ensign, Edward Pitkin, Dr. Alexander Coleman of Denver, and one from Georgetown, one from Leadville, two from Pueblo and one from Greeley.

Quite a serious accident happened to "Shine" Hale in the Daly mine at Park City on Friday. In assisting to remove a chute a blank fell down and struck his head and shoulder, producing an ugly scalp wound. Dr. Vik, who attended him, says the wound is four inches long, clear to the bone, with an apparent slight depression of the same. The shoulder escaped with a painful bruise.

There is some talk of trying to reorganize the local dramatic company that a few performances may be presented before the expiration of the winter, says the Brigham Bugler. The Thespian talent of Brigham City is in such a dilapidated state of preservation that it would take "all the king's horses and all the king's men to put humpty dumpty together again."

Quite a number of the boys who were laid off in the recent reduction at Park City, have gone to Rock Springs and other coal camps hoping to get enough work to tide them over until the mines again resume operations on a large scale. Those in Rock Springs report that they are getting over three days work per week and making about enough to keep the wolf from the door.

An officer from Lincoln, Neb., is expected to arrive in Denver within the next few days for the purpose of placing under arrest George Travis and Ollie Wells, who eloped from that city on December the 12th. Ollie Wells is United States Commissioner Strauss's wife. Mr. Wells Strauss is supposed to be in Georgetown, and Davis, who is a gambler, is said to be in Denver. Mrs. Wells will be prosecuted on the charge of bigamy.

Major Noyes Baldwin, one of the pioneers of Wyoming, died at his residence at Lander, Wyo. Deceased was a native of Connecticut. He went to California in '49, and from there went to Nevada. During the war he raised a battalion of Nevada cavalry and served in Utah and Wyoming with George Crooke. He was a conspicuous figure in Wyoming history for more than a quarter of a century.

El Paso, Texas will hold an election tomorrow (Tuesday) for the purpose of voting for the issuance of bonds to the amount of $205,000 for the construction of an entire new system of waterworks, to be owned by the city. The plans and specifications have been adopted, and the taxpayers favor the scheme to such an extent that it received almost an almost unanimous vote will authorize the issuance of the bonds.

A burro, loaded with $5000 worth of silver bars is roaming at large in the mountains around the town of Pueblo Nuevo, Mexico, if he has not been relieved of his valuable burden by robbers. This burro was one of a train of animals loaded with silver bars at the Animas mines a few days ago, and started for this city. On the way here the burro wandered unobserved away from the train. All efforts of the drivers and guards to find him have proved futile. The search is still being conducted with vigor.

The largest industrial corporation filing its certificate with the secretary of state of Colorado of late is the Pueblo Fuel company. It has $1,000,000 and a strong financial backing. The company owns as large a tract of coal land in La Plata county and also has considerable of the same mineral land near. The articles of incorporation were filed yesterday afternoon. The directors are John A. Porter of Denver, John H. Peters of Denver, Ernest J. H. Amy and Samuel Herr of Durango, and John L. Donaldson of Colorado Springs.

About Nursing Babies.

Under all circumstances it is better for the mother if she is healthy to nurse her own child, as more especially in the early months of infancy the proper health is laid down constitution, and besides she knows what and how much the child is getting and that the milk is pure. It is well when the mother's health will permit to nurse her baby herself the second summer if she can do so with a good conscience, as breast diseases which are so common at that time.

Mothers with a hereditary tendency to lung disease should not nurse their own children, but have a strong and healthy wet nurse supply the place, and if no one can be obtained the child should be fed artificially on cow's milk.—Baby.
