AT CRIPPLE CREEK.

Serious Trouble Reported in the Mining District.

FOUR SHERIFFS CAPTURED.

One Said to Be Wounded.—Mounted Troops Sent to the Scene of Disorder.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., March 16.—Sheriff Bowers, who is in charge of a posse at Cripple Creek to prevent interference by the strikers with the men who have gone to work in the mines, sent in this city today for last a dozen more deputies and a quantity of arms and ammunition. It is thought trouble will break out first on Bull Hill.

There is serious trouble in the Cripple Creek mining district tonight. Sheriff Bowers has called for help. A of the Colorado National Guard, to aid him in quelling the disturbance, and they are on the way to the camp, thirty miles distant. The telegraph and telephone wires have been cut.

Superintendent Traverton of the Victor mine at Altman has just arrived here with the news that the Victor mine has been driven off by a large force of armed men. The four deputy sheriffs of that place were taken in charge by the rioters. One was shot, it is not known how seriously. Troop A, mounted, are coming to the camp as rapidly as possible.

From Wilson.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—A dispatch was received today by Representative Strauss of New York from Representative Wilson as follows:

"GUADALAJARA, Mexico, March 15, 1894.

Strengthening slowly; still in bed.
W. L. WILSON."

Army Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 16.—The army appropriation bill was completed by the House committee on military affairs today. It appropriates a total of $27,877,234. The estimate was $28,184,114. The appropriation last year was $24,218,628. There are reductions all along the line.

The allowances to the various departments are as follows: Subsistence, $[illegible]; quartermaster's department, $[illegible]; transportation, $2,500,000. The barracks and quarters appropriation is reduced $5,000, and the medical department suffered a reduction of $[illegible].

Raided a Club House.

NEW YORK, March 16.—Upon warrants sworn out by Anthony Comstock, the police raided the Tenderloin club, which J. A. Keller, president of the New York Press club and managing editor of the Record is president. Several nude paintings on the walls were seized and the colored man in charge was locked up.

THE TARIFF BILL.

It Will Be Reported to the Senate on Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Senators representing both the Democratic and Republican sides of the committee on finance expressed the opinion at the close of the committee meeting that the tariff bill would be reported to the senate on Tuesday.

Double Arrested.

GALVESTON, Tex., March 16.—Three Goodyeows boys, Tom Dever, Nale Dever and Von Evans, have been arrested, charged with the attempted robbery of the International & Great Northern train at Palm valley last Monday night. The arrests were made on information given the officers by Bob Mayfield, whom the suspects tried to murder last night.

Pearl River Harbor.

LONDON, March 18.—Advices received from Honolulu say that President Dole declares that Hawaii may cede Pearl River harbor to Great Britain in the event of the United States giving unfriendly to the provisional government.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—Ex-Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, who is author of the amendment of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty by which the United States acquired Pearl River harbor as a coaling station, at the request of the Associated Press gave an interview on the rights of the United States to that station. He said he was surprised to learn that President Dole intimated that the grant of Pearl River harbor was limited to ninety-nine years.

It is certain that the United States cannot be absolute and exclusive possession of the Pearl River harbor.

The Denver War Ended.

DENVER, Colo., March 16.—The war is over. At least it is announced by Attorney I. N. Stevens, who has been in consultation with the governor a large part of the afternoon, that his excellency has accepted the advice of his attorneys and consented to submit the Bee and police question to the supreme court on its merits. The governor says he is still contesting the matter, but it is generally believed Mr. Stevens speaks by the book. So the Colorado National Guard, which was ordered to be ready to take the field on short notice, will not be called into action.

The state troops at Durango, Lake City, Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Grand Junction and other centers have been mobilized and under arms all day. Deary is take special trains in Denver, and the state troops in this city have been on call. Exciting reports have been flying all over the state.

Many people regard the governor's military demonstration as a big bluff, to show his contempt for Judge Graham's injunction and to compel the people, if possible, to arrest him.

AND THIS IS BOSTON.

A Passion Play in the Vein of "After the Ball."

BOSTON, Mass., March 16.—What its perpetrators call a "miracle play" was presented for the first time in Boston before an American audience. The play proved to be nothing more or less than the alleged representation of the life and suffering of Christ while on earth, and produced by means of hideous wooden marionettes, in fact a burlesque on the passion play.

Not only were the disgusting caricatures of the Savior and his companions offensive in themselves, but the offense committed in almost a scene which the sixth hand that sanctified wood-behind the bearer of the cross to Calvary with "After the Ball is Over" and the crucifixion with "Walk in the Park" music.

The interest and sentiment only who attended in the play is the daughter of a well known Hyde Park gentleman, and an authoress had in the audience of her father instead of this play women. It was represented to her, we hand upon an old religious tradition among the Indians and purchased by some of them during Holy Week as a sort of religious duty. Being interested to religion she engaged the Indian players to give the piece in a hall and took tickets to about 100 Boston people of the most exclusive set and the proceeds went to the poor. The play occupied three hours. All the life of Christ was depicted, although the well meaning nonagenarian had been given to understand that it was in no way like the Passion Play, and otherwise.

The Industrial Army Idle.

LOS ANGELES, March 16.—General Fry's army of unemployed, upon arrival in search for Washington, is a prolonged failure. The city council, the board of supervisors and officers of the merchants' association met this morning and tried to relieve all further as council in action, but to recognize no organization of unemployed. Five hundred dollars was subscribed for immediate use. Work will be supplied on the streets, and the vagrant law is enforced. The authorities will disperse any army or body organization.

The army, numbering about 300, on learning the result of the meeting, abandoned their barracks and marched out of the city, apparently beginning in great earnest. They had no organization and are leaderless. Their leaders are said to have looted the treasury and the meals they was without funds or rations. A large number only were without blankets. Before they reached Alhambra, five miles distant, many had dropped out and retreated to the railroads, in hopes of receiving trains. Deputy sheriffs and constables along the line of march have been notified and will rap the members of the disbanded army as fast as opportunity offers.

Madeline Cross-Examined.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—In the cross-examination which was conducted by Mr. Butterworth, the bending between the skilled lawyers and the young woman was so keen that it furnish unusual amusement to the court.

In January, 1884, Miss Pollard had been engaged to Mr. Rhodes, and when asked if Mr. Rhodes was paying her board, she said: "He was loaning me money for my schooling."

"How long did that engagement last?"

"Until the following December. Mr. Breckinridge remembers it well. He was crossed in the sitting room and heard me break the engagement. I never concealed a thing from Mr. Breckinridge during those years, and I am sorry that he should sit here and let you ask me such questions. I was then pregnant by Colonel Breckinridge with my first child."

The court adjourned until Monday, leaving the cross-examination unfinished.

Civil Service Reform.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—An important meeting of the committee on reform in the civil service was held today, in which the sentiment of the majority of members present regarding the proposed abolishment of the civil service law was fully shown. There were several bills having to do object in view before the committee which had been in the hands of a sub-committee for some time. All the sub-committee bills were accepted by the full committee.

DE MELLO STILL ACTIVE.

The Rebel Leader Trying to Organize His Forces.

Da Gama Refused a Passage to Europe—Hostilities Incurred Against Foreigners.

BUENOS AYRES, March 16.—A dispatch received here from Rio de Janeiro says President Peixoto insists upon the surrender of Admiral Da Gama and the old rebel officers who have taken refuge on board Portuguese vessels. The president declares they will be tried by the ordinary tribunals. The Portuguese commander refused to give up the officers who have sought refuge on board the Portuguese ships, but he has promised to refer the matter to the Portuguese government and to act in accordance with the instructions which he may receive from Lisbon.

The Portuguese steamer Oder de Portugal attempted to leave Rio de Janeiro with the insurgents on board, but she was stopped by Fort Santa Cruz the officer in command of that port threatening to fire upon her if the ship not come back.

A dispatch received from Rio Grande do Sul says Admiral De Mello is trying to organize his forces. It is reported De Mello has ordered the Aquidaban to attack some of the southern ports. The rebel warship Republica is said to be repairing damages and refitting at Paranagua. The torpedo boats under the command of Admiral De Mello are said to have assembled at the entrance of Santos.

NEW YORK, March 16.—A special to the Herald from Rio says that Mr. Anderson, agent of the Royal Steamship company, refused Da Gama passage to Europe. The insurgents boarded the French cruiser about 5 a.m. on the day when his fleet surrendered, with a few prominent officers, after leaving the Nictheroy. The other officers sought refuge on the British and Portuguese warships in the harbor. Both sides condemned the action as cowardly. The ships were round to have little or food, while the island garrisons were without supplies of water.

The Portuguese officers refused to give up any of the insurgent officers who took refuge on their ships. The minister of foreign affairs has informed them that the Brazilian government intends to try the insurgent officers as a formal tribunal. The Brazilians are incensed against the Portuguese over the affair. The English are got their share of the indemnity of the pounds for their old debts long ago.

The Herald's Montevideo special says: Admiral De Mello, who is at present in Carlito, Brazil, personally directing the operations against the southern rebellion, informed the Montevideo Pauli Dentro, does not seem to think the cause of the revolution is lost by any means hopeless. Admiral Da Gama has surrendered. He says, although Da Gama's action has caused the naval revolution, he is willing now to act sympathetically with the Rio Grande do Sul Federalists, and will win in the end.

Dog and the Same Person.

PARIS, March 16.—The people of this city are convinced that the man passing in Bulevard, the author of the bomb outrage in the Rue St. Jacques, and in the bomb in the Rue St. Denis, and Palmyrin, the anarchist who was killed yesterday, are one and the same person. The bomb or infernal machine used in all these cases were of the same kind. The person wanted by the police for the two outrages previous to that of yesterday latest one of the dead body, and the man seen in places in the church also looked one front inside.

Prosperity in the Shoe.

DEVERE, Mass., March 16.—Edward Wagner, a German laborer, put three ounces of dynamite in the oven of the family cook stove to blow out the stove. The consequence, Otto Wagner, aged 13, is dead; Mrs. Edward Wagner, totally blind and crippled; Edward Wagner, slightly injured; Martha Wagner, aged 15, seriously cut and bruised; Lady Wagner, aged 2 years, cut and bruised.

Lady Meredith's Exposure.

LONDON, March 16.—In the case of Sir Henry Meredith, who charged his wife, Lady Meredith, with committing adultery with a Irish American, Richard L. Leigh, the jurist yesterday granted a decree with costs.

Alternative Revolution.

NEW YORK, March 16.—William Lyman, treasurer of the Irish National League of America, today issued, on behalf of that organization, a manifesto to the Irish people at home and abroad. The address condemns parliamentary methods as futile and advocates revolution as the only means by which Ireland can achieve the restoration of her rights.

After declaring the Irish cause has been betrayed by Gladstone and Rosebery, the address says: "Parnell brought the Irish cause almost to the verge of success. The question is, who can save it? Revolutionists or constitutionalists? Take the history of Ireland for a hundred years. What statesmen have the constitutionalists gained? None. Free trade, that is, the right of Ireland to trade on her own account, and legislative independence, were won not by the pen or by the tongue, but by the sword."

The manifesto concludes as follows: "The campaign is not yet over. The struggle still goes on. A critical moment has come. Let those who hold for the principle of Irish nationality close ranks and unite the English force and Irish traitors hip and thigh. Once again, Ireland has got to depend on the revolutionists. The revolutionists only can save her. We must have no more talk. We must have deeds. One blow struck at the enemy is worth a thousand speeches. Remember this, each and every one of you, and the end of the struggle must soon come in a blaze of glory. Now for revolution, and revolution only.

"God save Ireland. Signed,
"WILLIAM LYMAN,
"Treasurer National League of America."

Read the Evidence of Mrs. Anna Smith.

Mrs. Anna Smith, wife of John Y. Smith, and one of the oldest and best known families of the Territory, says:

MRS. ANNA SMITH, OF SPRINGVILLE.

For the years I have been an invalid, being unable to do any of the household duties, I have tried many remedies, but all failed to give me relief. I thought I could not get a fresh cook. I was very weak and emaciated—was a mere skeleton. My stomach was so weak that I could drop from my head back into my throat; my chest and organs were very sore, and I had a severe dry cough, which caused pains in the chest and shoulder blades, no appetite whatever, and I was so weak I could scarcely walk from my bed to my chair, and at times I would have to stop and think of what I had been saying.

I was such a sufferer that I often wished that I were dead.

In this deplorable condition I went to Drs. Shores & Shores. I was like many others and had no faith in advertising doctors, and I thought they were the last I called on; but, after the very first treatment the backing ceased and today I can say that I walk seven miles without taking I have not done in years, and I am so encouraged that I feel a permanent cure. The cost is only a question of a few more weeks.

Mrs. Smith is well known in the city, resides at Springville, and the Smiths live between Third and Fourth streets where she can be seen and will readily verify her testimony.

HERE YOU ARE,
