COURT JOTTINGS.

Tally Illigitha Increasing in the Minor Courts.

In the attachment suit of Wolf vs. Rogers, Marshal Parsons presented a bill of over one hundred dollars for services and costs, but Judge Anderson reduced it to $50.

A deputy sheriff from Denver took James Conway and Mac. Jennie Sage from the city, last evening, to the metropolis of the Rocky Mountains. They are charged with obtaining money under false pretenses in that burg.

In the case of Wolf vs. Rogers a motion to tax costs was allowed by Judge Anderson.

In the case of U. M. Arnold vs. A. L. Williams et al., Albert C. Smith filed an answer to the amended complaint and cross complaint.

BEFORE COMMISSIONER BARNES.

Suit was commenced by Colin Ross against Mary Rogers for $20.35 for services.

In the case of O. D. Green vs. J. M. Wade, judgment in the sum of $20 and costs was rendered in favor of Hatch.

Peterson & Brown have entered suit against O. P. Pratt for $12 for sign painting.

BEFORE COMMISSIONER BOWEN.

Delmer Bros. are suing E. Dobson for the sum of $100 alleging it to be for necessaries.

S. C. Kelsey entered suit against L. C. Cheshire for $[illegible] to be due for rent and furniture.

J. J. Houston gave his L. O. U. to Mary Weeks for $100. Mary appeared before the commissioner for security to mail way to realize her, and forcibly transferred the currency.

C. H. Preble holds the promissory note of L. C. Cheshire for $[illegible], and a judgment against the defendant in that amount with costs added.

John Melody and Richard Foort allege that R. M. McBride is in their debt to the amount of $70 for merchandise. They ask for judgment and costs of suit.

W. M. McCrackin rings suit against T. G. Dawson for $100 for money lent and received.

The Brown Produce Company for sues T. E. Dawson for $[illegible] which they claim is due for merchandise.

John V. Smith is defendant in an action brought against him by Henry Wagener for the sum of $125.

Joseph Brown alleges that he has a mortgage on 100 of 200 books of Peter Cooper, and Commissioner Bowen is asked to honor the plaintiff judgment in that amount.

Charles Bauer secured judgment for $25 from J. G. Dowell for unpaid commissions.

BEFORE BARNES.

In the case of the C. C. Collin Hardware Company vs. Dowe & Brown for $[illegible] an attachment was issued in Justice Orr's court yesterday and a horse, cart and harness belonging to the defendant were seized by the officers.

Delaney, Hoch & Costigan began proceedings in Justice Kroeger's court yesterday against Mrs. S. Sorb on a promissory note for $[illegible].

The Great Island Coal company sue Reynolds Bros. and Nelson Bros. for $[illegible] to Joseph Duffie for $[illegible].

J. J. Sherlock vs. W. A. Dorey and J. C. Cooper is the title of a suit filed yesterday before Justice Hall. The action was brought to recover $[illegible] on a promissory note.

In the case of M. J. Powell vs. D. R. Hanks and I. B. Grange, judgment was rendered yesterday against Hanks for $[illegible]. The other defendants were dismissed. The suit was for an unpaid balance on work performed on the Buckeye reservoir in Emery county.

The case of Albert Hansen vs. J. J. Stoll was called in Justice Kroeger's court yesterday afternoon, and after the examination of a number of witnesses was continued until Monday. The action was brought to recover $[illegible] which the plaintiff alleges is the value of horses he let Stoll, which the defendant has in his possession.

Hunter Bros. claim that John Van Flandern is indebted to them in the sum of $[illegible] for board, and have begun an action before Justice Kroeger to recover that amount.

The case of Wm. Langrish vs. Louis Kohn, a claim and delivery suit for $[illegible], was postponed in Justice Hall's court yesterday, and set for hearing on August 23rd.

The case of T. B. O'Connelly vs. Dan Kerlins has been settled and dismissed by the defendant paying $[illegible] and costs into Justice Hall's court.

Deserret Silver Medal Contest.

On Monday evening the ladies of the W. C. T. U. have arranged a concert and contest for a silver medal to take place at the new Congregational Church, on First south street. Seven young ladies and gentlemen are to compete for the prize of a silver medal. An interesting and enjoyable meeting may be expected. The following will take

PROGRAMME.

Opening exercises.
Song ..... Union City Choir
Recitation, "Little Boy Blue" ..... Ella Hawkins
Recitation, "Ingratitude" ..... Mina Jackson
Recitation, "Do Unto Others" ..... Rebecca Williams
Recitation, "The Cry of Today" ..... Nettie Hooper
Recitation, "Lady Clare" ..... Ella Williams
Recitation, "Lucretia's Teacher School Mistress" ..... Ethel Williams
Song ..... Mrs. Hooper
Recitation, "Lady Clare" ..... Lizzie Hill
Recitation, "Lady Clare" ..... Ella Hill
Recitation, "Lady Clare" ..... Mrs. Hooper
Recitation, "Lady Clare" ..... Mrs. Hooper
Recitation, "Lady Clare" ..... Mrs. Hooper