SECOND EDITION.

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Monday, February 1, 1892.

FRAGMENTS.

Nuptials doing in the Commissioners' room this morning.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Captain William C. Cater will be held in the Tenth Ward meeting house on Tuesday afternoon next at 1 o'clock.

In the matter of the estate of Charlotte Talula Young Wood, deceased, before Judge Bartch today, order was made filing with it as the best petition for letters of administration.

It is desired by the relatives of Sister Presendia Kimball that Utah papers generally mention the fact of her death, particulars of which appear in today's issue of the NEWS.

The remains of Sister Presendia Kimball will be on view at the Assembly Hall one hour before the opening of the services. There will be no subsequent opportunity of seeing the face of the respected dead.

In the account of the reorganization of the Elders' quorum in the Eleventh ward, as published in the DESERET NEWS on Saturday, the name Andrew W. Brown should have read "Arthur" W. Brown.

THE Openhouse Mining Company have filed articles of incorporation with the county clerk. The incorporators are William Hatfield, Charles Waite, Wm. N. Chilcoat, Wm. M. Hatfield. The capital stock is $100,000 divided into 100,000 shares.

THE new minchen title of Tonquinese will soon be in the Walker Pavilion for night to rally the "Liberal" ticket. The meeting is called by Grand Cachon and the board of dogsmen. All brave men are expected to be in attendance.

No regular sitting of the Third Justice Court will take place until next Saturday, when Chief Justice Zane will act for hearing civil cases for the coming weeks. The criminal business will not be taken up until the end of February.

Statistical Report.

As requested by the Presidency of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion at the Priesthood meeting held on the 2nd ult, and published at that time in the minutes of said meeting, the Bishops and clerks of ward will please see that their statistical reports (full and complete) are handed in at the Priesthood meeting to be held on the 5th inst.

The Presidents of the Elders' Quorums, Relief Societies, Sabbath Schools, Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations and Primary organizations are also requested to have their reports ready at time. All these reports are desired for the Stake conference near at hand.

AMOS M. CANNON,
JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,
CHARLES W. PENROSE,
Presidency of Stake.

JAMES D. STORRS, Clerk.
SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 1, 1892.

THE REPUBLICANS MEET

And Effect a Temporary Organization and Adjourn.

The Republicans of this city met in the Federal courtroom at noon today for the purpose of effecting a temporary organization tending to a permanent one for the purpose of nominating a mayor, recorder, treasurer, assessor and collector and marshal.

Heber M. Wells was elected temporary chairman and Hoyt Sherman Jr., secretary. The following committees were appointed:

ON CREDENTIALS.

John Lynch, John D. Spencer, William Spry, John G. Robinson.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

On permanent organization and order of business: Joseph Deighan, Harmel Pratt, L. G. Hardy, G. D. Lewis and W. J. Beatty.

ON RESOLUTIONS.

Judge Bennett, Judge Bartch, A. W. Carlson, James Devine and Kenyon.

An adjournment was then taken until 3 o'clock.

County Court.

The County court met this forenoon, all present, Judge Bartch presiding.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Report of Coroner Harris for January presented and filed.

Report of Superintendent of Infirmary presented and filed.

A communication from the Rio Grande Western Railway was presented and ordered filed.

The report recommendatory of the special committee appointed to consider the boundaries of school district 66, that a new district also be formed out of the eastern and northern part of District 29, was taken off the table. A petition in favor of the recommendation of the committee was presented. Continued until Feb. 15.

It is ordered that the sheriff furnish transportation to J. D. Pitt, now insane, to Leadville, Col., if he be requested on bail.

A communication from the joint city and county talking committee recommending affiliating before the County court in the matter of the bond of J. H. Bowman was read. It is ordered that the clerk subpoena J. H. Bowman and all the sureties of his bond for construction of the joint city and county building. W. C. Hall, J. F. Jack, C. E. Stanton and Arthur Brown to be examined by the court before this court February 4, 1892, at 10 o'clock.

In reference to the report of the attorney on the Gallup case, it is ordered that a committee consisting of Harris, Butler and Cahoon be appointed by the County court to consult with a similar committee in the City Council, and that the clerk notify the City Council of this action and request the appointment of a committee.

The attorney reported on the claim of Ewing, Sleeman and Marshall that they are regular in form and that it rests with the court whether the amount claimed is reasonable.

Attorney reported that the coroner entitled to only one day's services in the inquest, no matter how many days it takes to hold an inquest.

Attorney reported on petition of H. Shurtliff et al, praying that a county be established on much fat pelts, that the county has power to grant petition and offer a bounty not to exceed 10 cents apiece. Order made fixing bounty at 5 cents each.

AROUND THE COURTS.

More Divorce Suits Before the Judges. —Miscellaneous Matters.

Divorce suits are falling "thick as autumnal leaves" in the Third District Court. On Saturday afternoon three more came to light before the judges. The case of Monson vs. Monson was dealt with by Chief Justice Zane. This was the petition of the husband, and the ground alleged that of desertion. Petitioner has reached the mature age of 81, and the respondent is only some nine years his junior. The parties belong to Logan, Cache County, and the marriage took place in December, 1890. They lived together less than a month, when quarrels began and a separation followed. Mrs. Monson taking the initiative in that direction. Ever since that time she has kept apart from her husband and refused to return to him. Respondent did not put in an appearance, and the case having been established to Judge Zane's satisfaction, his Honor granted the decree prayed for.

ANOTHER.

In the case of Lydia Hill vs. George H. Hill, the defendant made no appearance, and a decree of divorce was granted on the ground of desertion.

AND THE OTHER.

The divorce case of Susanna Pratt vs. Parley P. Pratt came up before Judge Anderson on the plaintiff's motion for attorney's fees and temporary alimony. The court entered the demurrer to pay $50 as attorney's fees and $25 per month alimony.

FOR JUSTICE JUDGE.

The following names have been secured to act as petit jurors for the February term of the Third District court: Frank T. Hiatt, C. O. Farnsworth, J. L. Lawson, J. H. Grow, H. L. A. Fisher, S. F. Tomlin, George Hoffman, J. A. Cunningham, W. B. Andrew, F. W. Olmstead, John Steel, J. E. Caldwell, John Lees, S. J. Crowe, Joe Watterton, Thomas Powell, J. E. Busby, Salt Lake City.

Stewart Davis, Sandy; R. W. Barnes, Riverside; Jesse Smithwick, Tooele; C. E. Carr, Lake View; Daniel Conley, Grantsville; William Hayes, Kingston; Thomas Pelle, Myton; W. W. Cluff, Coalville; A. W. Brigham, Harry Dougherty, Park City.

H. F. King and Samuel Butterfield, Jr., who were on the venire, could not be found.

BEFORE JUDGE ANDERSON.

In the case of Thomas Knight vs. the Deseret National Bank, the statement on motion for a new trial was settled.

W. H. Wood vs. M. C. Fox. The hearing on motion to settle findings was continued until February 1.

THE COMMISSIONERS' DOCKET.

In the case of D. W. Steele & Co. vs. F. F. Hoffman et al., Commissioner Moyer yesterday gave judgment for the plaintiff for $135.

J. J. Gibson vs. W. A. Smith. In this case, in which Commissioner Norrell recently gave judgment for the plaintiff for $225, an appeal to the United District Court was taken.

TO QUIET TITLES.

Papers were filed in the clerk's office of the Third District Court on Saturday in which Frederick Burt is plaintiff and Andrew J. Burt, Elijah H. Burt and John S. Cowan defendants. The complaint sets up that Andrew J. Burt died intestate on the 20th of August, 1888, in Salt Lake City, leaving as his only heirs-at-law his widow and fourteen children, of whom the plaintiff was one. The complaint says A. J. Burt seized in fee simple certain land in Salt Lake to which the plaintiff is entitled to the possession of nine-fourteenth, and asks that the defendants may be brought into court to show the nature of their claim, and that the court declare the same to be void.

Lawson D. Kinney also filed suit against the Rio Grande Western, the Oregon Short Line, the Utah & Northern Railway Companies and Rodney D. Spencer and Louis Swaze to quiet title on a piece of land known as block 65, in Salt Lake City, and platted as Kinney & Gourley's addition. Kinney purchased the property of Mr. and Mrs. Swazey. A portion of the ground was deeded to the several railroads for the purpose of erecting a depot thereon. The railroads declined the offer of the ground, and Kinney proceeded to put up a depot at his own expense. The railroads refused to use the depot and recently it was moved away by one of the companies. Kinney asks that the depot be restored and that the title to the ground be made in his favor, as the railroads have complied with none of the stipulations under which the land was deeded to them.

"LIBERAL" RESOLUTIONS.

Protest Against the Passage of the Caine-Faulkner and Teller Bills.

The following resolutions were adopted at the "Liberal" county convention on Saturday afternoon:

Resolved that we Liberals of Salt Lake county assembled reaffirm our steadfast adherence to the principles and policy of Liberalism and our unswerving allegiance to the Liberal party and its nominees; and

Resolved, That we are firm in our conviction that the conditions and opponents which have faced us in the past contest are still active; and

Resolved, That we ask the Congress of the United States to retain direct supervision and protection to our rights, which our numbers are large enough to enable us to protect them by ballot, and we protest against the passage of the Caine-Faulkner or Teller bills, either of which would, in our opinion, undo all that has been accomplished for the admission of American institutions in Utah; and

Resolved, That we extend to Governor Arthur L. Thomas our thanks and congratulations for his wise and patriotic action in vetoing the election bill passed by the Utah legislature.

A Short Run and Sudden Stop.

Shortly after one o'clock this afternoon a horse attached to a delivery wagon belonging to H. J. Walk & Co., bakers and confectioners, ran fright at the northeast corner of the Temple block, and ran southward on Main street one block. The animal was proceeding to turn west on South Temple street when the outfit collided with a granite guard post and came to a sudden stop. The harness and one wheel of the vehicle were badly broken. No other damage.

"THOMAS PAINE."

Charles Ellis Talks About one of the Revolutionary Heroes.

It is seldom that an audience, almost filling Salt Lake Theatre, listens with more wrapped interest to play or reputed play than did the people who gathered last night to hear Mr. Charles Ellis lecture upon Thomas Paine.

There was a feeling somewhat akin to fear that the lecturer would make his subject the occasion for an anti-theological discourse. But that was not so. Ever since the Sixteenth Ward Mutualite Club had played two plays very acceptably and the Union Glee Club had sung two of its choice pieces, the audience, as a rule, Mr. Ellis spoke quietly out upon the stage stage and said that when a boy two names had made a strange impression upon him. One was "Old Tom Paine," the other "Old Nick." When he was old enough to investigate the charges against those persons he found that both of them had been very much misrepresented.

The world understood Thomas Paine to stand for infidelity. But the speaker argued it was never a matter of infidelity, but always his fidelity that made him width something, and "when Paine is measured there he is found to have been a giant among the pygmies." Mr. Ellis gave a sketch of Paine's life and then read selections from his works and from what his critics had said of him. He also read Paine's own statements in regard to his religious beliefs, and closed his lecture by a quotation from Paine addressed special to the citizens of Paine in Utah to reconsider their position, and, instead of longer helping the Reform movement, to join with the members of "the National Reform Association," which had been working for twenty-eight years to secure a union of Church and State and the establishment or commencement of all uncivilized people in the country. In secret themselves as freemasons and demand that benefits accrue to Utah shall augment themselves at the expense of the Mormons, and that there all may the laws all shall receive the same protection.

The lecture was well received and many of the points elicited loud and long applause. At the close Mr. Ellis announced that next Sunday evening he would lecture on "Blackstone," and that he would be in the city to lecture on the Municipal Election. The Union Glee Club will also sing and Misses Florence and Unsoeld Bailey, will render selections on the piano.

Amusement Notes.

"The Little Maverick" is the piece in which Miss Maggie Mitchell will be seen at the Salt Lake Theatre tonight. We are told that this piece has made as great a success as "Pauline," in any of the plays in which Miss Mitchell has achieved her great success.

THE CARLTON OPERA CO.

Salt Lake will have a brief season of opera, commencing on Thursday night next and continuing for three nights and a matinee on Saturday. W. T. Carlton's opera company is well known and deservedly popular. This time Mr. Carlton will produce two new operas, "Indigo" and "The Gondoliers." The former is Strauss' best effort, and is said to be very tuneful and melodious. The latter is decidedly clever. "The Gondoliers" was written by Gilbert and Sullivan and is full of bright dialogue and catchy music. The scenery and costumes for these productions are new and magnificent. The chorus is large. The reservation for the engagement is as follows: Thursday night will be given over to the "Indigo" Friday night, "The Gondoliers," Saturday night, "Dorothy." The sale of seats will begin Wednesday morning.

WONDERLAND.

People who visit Wonderland are very much pleased with the "wonders" there exhibited this week. Everybody should see the "Lilliputians" before they leave our city. Wednesday is ladies' souvenir day instead of Friday.

A $10,000 BLAZE.

The O. K. Clothing Company's Stock Damaged to That Amount.

The O. K. clothing store on Main street was the scene of a disastrous blaze yesterday morning. The flames were first discovered by a policeman at 6 a. m. The officer notified the proprietor of the establishment, who immediately extinguished the flames and left the place. It appears, however, that the fire had spread along the basement and was smouldering unseen at that time, as about three hours later it burst forth in a manner that threatened to destroy the entire stock. An alarm was sent to headquarters and the department responded quite promptly. In a time it was very difficult to reach the seat of the fire and it was not until $10,000 worth of goods had been damaged that the work of the brigade was finished. The company claims to have had a stock on hand valued at $15,000; the insurance men, however, claim that it never reached anywhere near to the extent of $10,000 was carried and the adjustment was being made today.

Chief Stanton was badly cut on one of his hands by a piece of falling glass from a broken skylight. Captain Dilworth received a severe scalp wound in a similar manner. Dr. Stancraft dressed the wounds of the injured men both of whom are progressing nicely.

PRISONERS ESCAPE.

Nine of Them Break Out of the City Jail.—They are Still at Large.

The city prison has once again been emptied of its hardest criminals, bold and successful jail delivery having occurred at that institution about 10:30 last night.

The number of men who regained their liberty was nine, all of them have black records. They were serving time as follows: James McDonald ninety-five days, John Murray ninety-five days, John Bailey seventy-five days, John Collins seventy-five days, George Haymond seventy-five days, Joseph French sixty-five days, Frank Pike sixty-five days, Thomas Reilly, alias Jones, 25 days; Charles Smith one hundred and twenty days.

It appears that some one outside the prisoners has gotte a file in possession of a saw, by means of which they severed the bars in front of one of the windows on the second floor facing the court yard. A blanket was then rifled and plaited into a strong rope was used in reaching the ground.

As the men emerged from the alley running from the rear of the jail to State street, they were observed by officer Chase, who ran down and called upon them run to the City Hall and informed Detective Dixon and those of the night force of what had occurred. The fugitives by the time were well out of sight. Squads of officers were sent here and there but did not succeed in capturing any of them, though there is no doubt but some clues have been obtained. A number of officers remained out all night but returned to headquarters empty handed.

UTAH LEGISLATURE.

COUNCIL.

MONDAY AFTERNOON.

There was about five minutes difference in time between the town clock and the one hoisted at the south end of the Capitol building, but the hour of commencement approached this afternoon, and the sergeant-at-arms commenced the back slapping act by setting the minute hand of the Council timekeeper back five minutes.

Roll call showed all the members present except Daniels and after the usual preliminaries had been transacted Evans in behalf of the committee on memorials appointed to consider the Cullom-Davis memorial (S. 2511), providing for the setting apart of 61 acres of the Fort Douglas reservation for educational purposes, recommended its passage.

Evans, in behalf of the committee on memorials, to whom was referred Connell's Joint Memorial (S. 2512), relating to the Blair bill, presented a majority report favoring the passage of the memorial. Filed, to come up in the order of second reading bills.

C. F. 16, which was made the special order of today's proceedings, and which relates to providing for a uniform system of free schools throughout the Territory, was taken up on second reading and read by sections.

The bill which was introduced by Peters, of Box Elder, Jan. 18, 1892, is nearly as long as the one considered by the Council on Friday last, providing for the uniform system of public schools. It is a very extensive document, filling forty-two pages of ordinary foolscap, equivalent to a space of twelve ordinary pages of the NEWS.

The bill amends the law now in force, found in chapter 72 of the Session Laws of Utah, and provides for the appointment of a county superintendent of schools to be held in 1893.

At the hour of going to press the bill was being considered by sections and amended.

HOUSE.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

The lower house of the law-making power was called to order a little after three today, because of the clock varying somewhat with other timepieces in the neighborhood. By the showing, however, it was exactly 2 p. m. when the Speaker's imperious gavel fell and the solons were called to order.

The chaplain offered prayer and the chief clerk called the roll, showing one member present. After which Speaker Minnis Chase took the floor for the purpose of reading Saturday's journal. It was 3:15 by the correct time when he concluded, after which the corrections were made and the Speaker then asked "shall the order of the day be taken up? If there are no objections the order of the day will be taken up." He then changed his mind and ordered the usual routine to be followed. Several petitions were presented for action. One by Nebeker, signed by E. Lee and some other residents of Box Elder county, was read. It relates to the power of the Legislature to pass sectarian legislation. Committee to the stock.

Several bills were read by the committees on claims and public accounts.

A message was received from the Governor announcing his approval of H. F. 20, relating to the county superintendent of schools in elevation, with the usual accompanying message.

The committee on live stock reported back H. F. 11 amended, and recommended that all the amendments suggested it stand. Adopted.

The committee on memorials, through Nebeker, chairman, called up H. M. 4, and recommended its adoption. (This is the memorial to the Congress to pass the Cullom-Davis bill.)

Ferry was on his feet in a moment. He objected to its adoption because he was satisfied it would be lost if it came up for action. There is no reason for such haste. It is an important measure and should not, for the sake of all the people, be rushed through. Let us take a little time. I don't ask this as a courtesy, because it seems that a courtesy has been extended to minorities of committees here. I demand it as a right.

Nebeker explained the action of the committee.

Marshall offered an amendment to refer the memorial back to the committee and thus give Ferry an opportunity to make a minority report.

A vote was called for and carried, Speaker Chase voting in the affirmative.

A motion was made to reconsider. He spoke quite vigorously on the subject, and claimed that the effort of the majority was to threaten the will of the people. I demand its passage.

W. H. Irvine hoped that common decency would prevail and the usual courtesy would be extended. We can't afford under the peculiar circumstances to ignore them.

Arnott said it was not a matter of courtesy, it was a matter affecting the best interests of this Territory. The gentleman represents a small minority. He cannot observe all of the conventionalities, however this is a matter affecting the welfare of a standard people.

Ferry explained how difficult it is to obtain direct information from Salt Lake to Park City, and how uncertain transportation is, and all circumstances mentioned he had a right to the floor upon.

Cunningham moved the current of sympathy that was manifestly setting in for Ferry by reading from Saturday's journal, showing that the latter gentleman was here when the memorial was presented, whereupon Ferry rebuked and his request withdrawn, the vote on reconsideration being rejected. The report of the committee was then adopted.

The committee on municipal corporations and towns reported back C. F. 13, amending Section 1733, Compiled Laws, and recommended its passage. Adopted.

Mackey reported H. F. 39, amending section 2606, chapter 18, Compiled Laws, and recommended its passage. Also, H. F. 59, amending sections 2108 and 2109, chapter 17, repealing the laws of Boyer, Committee on Highways.

Morris presented H. F. 61, to protect farmers at agricultural meetings and institutes. Committee on agriculture and irrigation.

Arnott presented H. F. 62, relating to branding and mutilating animals and fraudulent branding. Committee on live stock.

The municipal charters bill (the special order, a voluminous document,) was then taken up.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Excitement at French Posts.

PARIS, Feb. 1.—There were many exciting scenes at various French posts yesterday, owing to the efforts of shipmasters and consignees to get their cargoes ashore in the custom houses before the new commercial arrangements went into effect.

The Nebraska Governor Cast.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The United States Supreme court today decided in favor Boyd in the Nebraska governor case.

All the justices, except one, concurred in the conclusion that Boyd was a United States citizen, and entitled to the office of Governor of Nebraska. Justice Harlan, Gray and Brown concurred in that part of the opinion which held that Boyd was a citizen of Nebraska, but in the recent case, it must be considered as established that Boyd's father, twelve years before, had lost the rights of a citizen, but in fact in 1866 he was taken to Nebraska in Indian papers, not intimating he did not claim any record of such renunciation of citizenship. The court also held that there is such a thing as collective naturalization; that the enabling act of Nebraska, the omnibus act admitting a number of all the inhabitants of Nebraska at the time of its admission, except such as desired to remain in their foreign rights, and that Boyd's father was entitled to the benefit of the provision of the enabling act, and became a citizen. The court reversed the judgment of the supreme court of Nebraska and ordered a new trial in accordance with the opinion of the Supreme court.

The Nebraska case was argued by Chief Justice Fuller.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—In the House today Arnold (Missouri) presented for reference a resolution requesting the President of the Minister of the United States to Chile Patrick Egan, to the end that reciprocity of amicable relations between the two countries may be had and maintained.

THE SENATE.

Among the documents presented and referred was the annual report of the commissioner of patents, showing that 101 patents issued for the purchase of land within the limits of the Umatilla reservation, Oregon. Hyle gave notice that he would on Wednesday next introduce resolutions on his proposed constitutional amendment, as to marriage and slavery in the United States.

At the conclusion of the morning business, the calendar was taken up pending the question, being a bill to appropriate $75,000 for a public building at Rochester, Minn., which bill reduces the appropriation to $50,000 and cuts of the necessity of a public building there.

Another U. S. Decision.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—The United States Supreme Court today upheld the constitutionality of the anti-lottery law affirming the decision in the case of the publishers of the two New Orleans newspapers indicted on charge of sending through the mails newspapers containing lottery advertisements.

The court held that the power vested in Congress to establish post offices and post roads embraces the exclusion of the entire postal system of the country and designated what may and what may not be carried. The court further granted Congress is complete and carries with it the power to forbid the use of the mails in aid of perpetration of crime, and accordingly, the court says it must be left in Congress in the exercise of sound discretion, to determine what shall be carried in the mails. The argument of the freedom of the press for the reason that the government does not prohibit communication by other means, he says, brings into the government agencies which it controls.

Another Sacred Man Gone.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The death is announced, in his eighty-second year, of Alexander Hare Rangabe, the Greek poet, archaeologist and statesman.

A German Liner Stranded.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—A dispatch received this morning from the signal station at St. Catherine's Point, the southern extremity of the Isle of Wight, stating that the North German Lloyd steamer "Eider" from New York, January 23rd, for Bremen, stranded near that point last night. The North German Lloyd's agent at Southampton dispatched three tugs from that place to take off the "Eider's" passengers. Government tugs have also been sent by the admiralty from Portsmouth, and they will endeavor to get the steamer off. The agents of the company here state that the "Eider" is lying in an easy position and no damage is reported. They state that there is no cause for alarm, either for the safety of the passengers or the vessel. Fifty-seven bales of cotton jettisoned from the "Eider" in the attempt to lighten the vessel, floated ashore.

Twelve passengers have been landed by a lifeboat. Two other lifeboats have reached the stranded steamer and are giving all the aid possible. On shore the relief apparatus is made ready for use in the event of it becoming necessary to take off the passengers and crew by means of chairs and buoys. The passengers who have already reached the shore report that the "Eider" has sustained no damage.

Cleveland at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 1.—Ex-President Cleveland arrived this morning from New Berlin. He was met at the station by the reception committee and escorted to the residence of Thos. Semmes, where guest he will be during his brief stay in this city. A reception was held by the ex-President in the afternoon.

In Grippe!

The tendency of this disease toward pneumonia is what makes it dangerous. As Grippe respects precisely the same treatment as a severe cold, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of severe colds. This Remedy effectually counteracts the tendency of the disease to result in pneumonia, provided that proper care be taken to guard against any exposure from the effect. Careful inquiry among the many thousands who have used this remedy during the epidemics of the past two years failed to elicit a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Z. Happy Homes.

Thousands of sad and desolate homes have been made happy by use of "Rose Buds," which have proven an absolute cure for the following diseases and their distressing symptoms: Dyspepsia, Constipation and Falling of the Womb, Ovarian Inflammation, Dropsy of the Womb, Suppressed Menstruation, Bearing-at Childbirth, or any complaint originating in diseases of the reproductive organs, whether from contagious causes, heredity, tight lacing, overwork, carelessness or miscarriages. One lady writes us that after suffering for two years with Leucorrhea or Whites, that one application entirely cured her, and furthermore, she suffers no more pain during her monthly period. It is a wonderful regulator. "Rose Buds" are a simple, harmless preparation, but wonderful in effect. The patient can apply it herself. No doctor's examination necessary, to which all modest women, especially young married ladies, seriously object. Find the first application, and you will feel like a new woman. Price $1.00 by mail, post-paid. The Lovenberg Sargent Co., 319 Washington St., Boston, Mass. 4*6
