BRYAN'S TELEGRAMS

Designs That Were Withheld From the Populist Convention.

THE NOMINEE URGED FRANKNESS.

Senator Jones and Gov. Stone Agreed on a Course of Secrecy.

St. Louis, July 27.—The Republic tomorrow will say:

Mr. Bryan's telegram declining to allow his name to go before the Populist convention, and the conversation that was carried on between him and Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, on Saturday, were not made public, it is said, because Senator Jones and Governor Stone saw fit to suppress them.

Early Saturday afternoon Senator Jones wired Mr. Bryan that his friends in the convention intended to nominate him if possible, in spite of the fact that his telegram of the previous evening evidced no except one nomination for Vice President. Senator Jones had previously notified Mr. Bryan that Sewall had been nominated for Vice President.

About 5 o'clock an operator in the Western Union at Lincoln, Neb., the home of the Democratic candidate for President, called up the St. Louis office and said that Mr. Bryan was there and would like to speak to Senator Jones.

Senator Jones came to the key and the following telegram was sent to Bryan:

Hon. W. J. Bryan:—The convention will surely nominate you. Your friends seem to be in the majority. They are about ready to proceed to a ballot.

To this Mr. Bryan sent substantially the reply that was contained in the dispatch sent out from Chicago by the Associated Press Sunday night. At the conclusion of the paragraph ending with the words, "The American people cannot afford to surrender the right to legislate for themselves on all questions, and so long as the right is retained it surpasses all other questions in importance," Senator Jones interrupted Mr. Bryan's message with a query as to whether it would be wise to make such a statement to the convention. Then the remainder of the dispatch was sent by Bryan (practically the same as sent out by the Associated Press), either in answer to Senator Jones's question or as a continuation of Mr. Bryan's statement. To this Senator Jones replied:

To Hon. W. J. Bryan:—I think your position has been clearly stated and that it is clearly and fully understood. I will urge our friends to read your statement.

At this junction a message was sent to the convention hall over another wire to Governor Stone, asking him to come and get Mr. Bryan's telegrams to order that it might be read to the convention before the ballot was taken. Governor Stone got the telegram and hurried to the convention hall where the scene between him and Senator Allen of Nebraska, who was chairman of the convention, was enacted.

Subsequent developments indicate that neither Governor Stone nor Senator Jones thought it would be good policy to read the telegrams to the convention.

While this was going on at the Auditorium Mr. Bryan sent this:

To General J. B. Jones—Both friends and opponents are entitled to perfect candor and frankness upon my part, and I think the statement should be read, so that no criticism can arise later.

Before the consultation over the wire was brought to a close, Senator Jones sent a telegram saying Mr. Bryan if he was employing all the arguments necessary to carry on his work. "If you are not, employ the necessary ones and I will hold the fort," was the way the dispatch closed. Mr. Bryan replied: "I am employing necessary ones. I wish you would come home as soon as convenient again. There are several questions which I must consult with you about. You need only stay one day."

Here is the answer Senator Jones sent:

Hon. W. J. Bryan:—I think convention will adjourn late afternoon. If so I will leave for Lincoln immediately.

After the failure to have the telegrams read to the convention, Mr. Bryan is said to have wired Senator Jones to give them to the St. Louis papers and to the Associated Press, in order that they might be given to the world publicly as possible. To this both Senator Jones and Gov. Stone dissented, Senator Jones was going away on the 9 o'clock train, so the matter was turned over to Gov. Stone, who had another conflab with Mr. Bryan.

The latter urged that this statement be given to the press, but Gov. Stone said it would not be politic and that the case was in the hands of his friends, who would do what they believed to be the most politic thing to do, as they viewed the situation from the field of battle.

"I will bow to the wishes of my friends, but it is due to myself and the members of the Populist party that I treat them with perfect candor," is the sense of Mr. Bryan's dispatches to the Missouri governor. But the information was withheld from the press.

UNITED IN DEATH.

A Sheriff and a Robber Go To Gether.

Nevada City, Cal., July 27.—The dead body of Sheriff David Douglas and the corpse of an unknown highwayman were today found lying a few feet apart in a wood two miles from town. There were five empty cartridges in the sheriff's pistol, he having been shot through the heart, in the right eye and hand. The bullet of the sheriff fired gave the robber's heart, abdomen and leg. The unknown man had a rifle, but it did not apparently have used. It is supposed Douglas was shot by an unknown and well-known confederate of the highwayman.

A number of bold highway robberies recently reported in this neighborhood have all seemed to be the work of one man, who enjoyed complete immunity from capture on the roads near Nevada City. The sheriff and his deputies had been untiring in their efforts to capture the highwayman. Finally Sheriff Douglas, believing that a large squad of deputies served to rather hinder his man on his quest, determined to attempt the chase single-handed. He started out yesterday, accompanied only by his dog. The dog returned at midnight, and at daybreak searching parties found the sheriff in the spot where officer and prisoner lay dead side by side.

Claims Against Spain.

Washington, July 27.—A number of claims against Spain are accumulating in the state department for account of American citizens who have suffered in property and person from the operations of the Spanish troops in Cuba. One of the few that obtain publicity was presented today by Mme. Maria Dolores de Durio, a woman 50 years of age, Spanish by birth, but who married an American and was naturalized in 1879. She claims that her property in Santa Clara was destroyed by Spanish troops, her plantation burned and herself fired upon by Spanish troops, although the United States flag floated over her house. For this she seeks indemnity of $200,000.

TIDAL WAVES.

A Singular Phenomenon Observed at Chicago.

Chicago, July 27.—A series of tidal waves along the Western shore of the lake today caused the water to rise over three feet above the normal water mark. The first and highest wave was at 5:30 a. m., and from that time until 10 o'clock there was a succession of ebbs and flows that were about an hour apart.

At 10 o'clock another tidal wave, nearly as high as the first one, appeared. Port Huron, at Northwestern extremity, said he would not attempt to explain it, unless it was some upheaval at the bottom of the lake.

The Middle of the Roaders.

St. Louis, July 27.—The "middle of the road" delegates to the Populist national convention have appointed a "provisional national committee" to decide upon the future action of the Populists in case Mr. Bryan should not accept the nomination tendered him, or indorse the platform adopted by the convention. Henry L. Call of New York City, until recently of Kansas, is a great large from the state of New York to the People's party national convention and a prominent "middle of the road" Populist, has been appointed chairman of the provisional committee. He said tonight that in case it be in readiness to act in such a contingency, the following letter had been addressed to the delegates in each state:

St. Louis, Mo., July 27, 1896.

Dear Sir—Please furnish me the names and addresses of all prominent Populists in your state supposed to the nomination of William J. Bryan. Also, you are advised of the sentiments of the party and of any steps taken or decision reached toward independent political action and oblige,

Yours truly,

HENRY L. CALL,
Chairman Provisional National Committee.

This letter was sent out in pursuance of a motion adopted by the temporary organization of the dissenting delegates of the convention. The resolution was as follows:

That the committee heretofore appointed to ascertain the decision of William J. Bryan relative to his acceptance of the nomination for President of the United States tendered him by the People's party in convention assembled, and further to ascertain his wishes, have to confer the platform adopted by said party in said convention, be requested to report within ten days.

That a provisional national committee, consisting of one member from each state, be appointed by the chairman of this meeting, which committee shall receive the report of the aforesaid committee and shall thereafter confer with each other and with the delegations from the various states relative to what further action shall be taken.

That each member of said committee shall be ex-officio chairman for his state of this temporary organization.

To Manage the Populists' Affairs.

St. Louis, July 27.—The affairs of the People's party are now in the hands of Senator Butler of North Carolina, the chairman of the national committee. Today the nine members of the Populist executive committee made a formal settlement with the new committee. They turned over to Chairman Butler and Secretary Edgerton all the money on hand and their accounts were approved.

Very few of the new members remained in the city for the Monday meeting. They authorized Chairman Butler and Secretary Edgerton to select the accounts and harmonize them to prepare for the campaign.

The silver party has established a temporary headquarters in the Corcoran building, Washington, D. C. Future events will determine whether or not it will be continued there. Vice-chairman Newlon, who will have charge of the headquarters and who will relieve Chairman Lane of much of the work connected with the coming campaign, will leave for the capital city in a short time.

Donnelly's Statement.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 27.—Ignatius Donnelly returned to his home today from St. Louis. In the next issue of his paper, the Representative, Mr. Donnelly will say: "We have done well. We shall support Mr. Bryan and the Populist state ticket until the end of the campaign, and we shall then withdraw from public life forever. We are tired of working for those who would destroy us."

In speaking of Bryan's nomination he said there were in many men at St. Louis who were candidates for office and who hoped for Democratic endorsement to their respective districts that they swept the convention to Bryan. He adds that Bryan is taking too much and is standing over a powder magazine.

DOMESTIC TROUBLE.

It Causes a Woman to Kill Her Children and Herself.

Camden, N. J., July 27.—Mrs. Mary Hermann, 32 years old, drowned her two infant children and attempted to drown herself tonight in the Delaware river. She tied the heads of one child and the feet of the other and took a large dose of carbolic acid. Then holding a child in each arm she leaped overboard. Two boatmen saw her jump and dragged her from the water as she was going down for the third time. She can not live. Domestic troubles caused her to wish to die.

Alleged Mutineers Held.

Boston, July 27.—The Plant line steamer, Olivette arrived from Bahama today with First Mate Brain and crew of the American barkentine Herbert Fuller, for Boston. The men who are under arrest pending a further investigation into the murder of Capt. Nash, Mrs. Nash and the second mate, were taken before United States minister Pirkes. Brain and Brown were both formally charged with murder and both pleaded not guilty. The hearing was then adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, the accused men being ordered held without bail. The other members of the Fuller's crew were held as witnesses.

BATTLE ON CUBA.

The Spaniards Admit Thirty Dead Two More Killed Than the Insurgents.

Havana, July 27.—An important engagement has been fought between Gen. Linares and the insurgent forces under Calixto Garcia, in which the Spanish losses were admittedly heavy.

Gen. Linares left Guisa on the 19th ult. with a force of 2,000 men, consisting of the Spanish forces in Guisa, Cauto Embarcadero and Santa Ana. Coming up with the insurgents soon afterwards in the afternoon, he opened fire and the engagement soon became general. Gen. Linares took their camp and they fell back to Santa Ana. Early on the 20th the insurgents succeeded in effecting movements by attempting to turn the right wing of the Spanish column. They attacked it with vigor, and hard fighting ensued. They made an obstinate stand and refused to give back before the opposition of the Spanish. The attack was finally repulsed by a bayonet charge by the Spaniards. The insurgent position was taken, and at the same time Gen. Rosas made an effort on their flank and put them to flight.

An official report states that the troops sustained a loss of nine killed, while Lieutenant of the Cavalry Mina and 35 soldiers were wounded, the insurgents are reported to have lost seven killed, not to have carried away many dead and wounded.

In the camp of the insurgents was found a letter from a leader of the party which he lamented the death of Jose Maceo. This was in the form of an official document.

Three insurgent prisoners, Luis Mar, Miguel Alvarez and Rodriguez Antonio Icazes, were shot this morning at the Castle of San Severino, Matanzas.

The insurgent leaders in the province of Santiago de Cuba, are publishing the failures from preparing tobacco fields for the next crop of sugar cane.

After the surrender of the reinforcements on their way from Spain to this city, Gen. Weyler will station personal attention of the civil judge against Antonio Maceo in the province of Pinar del Rio.

N. Y. Bond Sales.

New York, July 27.—Comptroller Fitzgerald received for sale $400,000 gold bonds bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent, but only a little more than one-quarter the amount was so far. The bonds were sold at the last sale of city bonds for nearly $101 and were purchased by Muller & Co. of Wall street, who afterwards refused to make good their bid. Mr. Fitzgerald chose to sell the bonds again reputedly, to ascertain how much money was injured, so that the Corporation Counsel might proceed against Muller & Co. if he had a case. The bids received today were from par to $101.

The Mail Stage Held Up.

Wichita, Kan., July 27.—In a lonely, cool-covered miles west of the village of Lacey, in the northern part of Oklahoma territory, the regular mail stage was held up this afternoon by a band of outlaws, who robbed the express and mail sacks, taking all the registered letters and all the valuables carried by the two passengers in the coach. It is the belief here that the robbery was the work of the desperado gang of "Bill" Dalton, the condemned murderer and outlaw, who escaped from the jail at Guthrie several weeks ago with a band of desperadoes and threats against Judge A. A. Ross of United States county marshals has been in pursuit of the outlaws ever since their escape.

The Republican Campaign.

Canton, Ohio, July 27.—Senator Thurston, who is officially connected with the Ministry of Hon. Russell in the office of Sherman, is to be in Canton the Nebraska committee. He will speak in Lincoln August 5th, and at the meeting of the Republican state committee of Nebraska, which is to be held in Nebraska. Following Hon. Senator Foraker of Ohio, with Senator Chicago and Benjamin Butterworth of Cincinnati, will all probably make one or two speeches in this state as dates to be fixed later.

Mr. Thurston will make a political address at the Chautauqua at Madison, Wis., July 31, and will open the campaign in Wisconsin at Milwaukee, August 5th, at the meeting of the Republican state convention. The latter part of August he will go to Vermont, where he is billed for two speeches. He will make one each in Maine, Boston, New York City, Baltimore, in West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, and from two to three each in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Illinois. The last week of the campaign he will give two or three speeches in Nebraska.

Chicago, July 27.—Charles A. Kurtz, national commissioner from Ohio, is authority for the statement that the Republican national campaign will be officially opened at Columbus, O., on August 15th, with a Republican meeting. It is expected that Major McKinley will make a speech.

A Letter From Cleveland.

New Orleans, July 27.—The Picayune special from Jackson, Miss., quotes a letter written by President Cleveland on May 1, 1892, on the eve of the Democratic convention of that year to the late L. Q. C. Lamar, in which the President, discussing his probable candidacy, said:

I can easily be disposed of, either by the selection of a candidate more available or by the adoption of a campaign policy on the financial question which I am not willing to neither. In the first case I would be a happy helper in the second I shall easily await the announcement of a party defeat which will be predetermined. Our Southern friends, if they persist, will be left alone with their free coinage nostrum. The danger is that another Southern idea such as charge of treasonable for the public safety on the financial question will do service in the place of the memories of the Civil War.

The question is often and justifiably put by friendly Southerners, Can Cleveland carry New York? The answer is ready so to Cleveland or any other man if the Democracy is at sea weak on the coinage question. As one who loves the country and believes that her interest is bound up in Democratic supremacy, I am most uncomfortable and unhappy in the fear that the South will not see until too late the danger of their starting at. If I should read this I hardly think I should send it, but it goes inclosed with affection and the most tender memories. Yours affectionately,

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Not Withdrawn Gorman's Name.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 27.—Chairman Jones of the Democratic National committee arrived here this afternoon and sent to Gov. Stone. They were in conference several hours, and it is said they considered the matter of withdrawing Bryan's name from the Populist ticket.

Lost at St. Louis.

St. Louis, July 27.—The heat in this city for the past two days has been intense, a maximum of about 100 degrees in the shade being reached. There were many prostrations. The fatal cases were those of Mrs. Kate Bryan, aged 28, and William Johnson, a carpenter, who died soon after being taken to the hospital. There were several other serious cases.
